TOGETHER WE DID IT ALL

Individuality, the ability to be yourself when it would be so easy to go along with the crowd, was a trait which was cherished by everyone at Pacific. Each student and each faculty member had his own interests, beliefs, and grudges. These differences were what brought together the many different groups on our campus, and were the bonds forming friendships which would last a lifetime. Just as there were endless opportunities to be an individual, to strive for personal dreams, there was always a chance to become one of a group. We were a crowd of unique people, working together to make it the best year our school had ever seen. Of course, not everyone was able, or desired, to do everything, but . . . together we did it all!

To annette, the most funniest, nicest and Great friend of mine, Have a really "Hot" and great summer.

THE PACIFIC POLITICAL SCENE

Freshmen Rule, ain't it the truth! Cheryl Herring

FRESHMEN RULE

Students at Pacific truly did have a voice in the way their school was run, the activities which were planned, and the money which was spent. Student Council officers were elected by the entire student body. These people, along with Mr. Singer and Mr. Elton, planned dances, rallies, and assemblies, and kept a general eye on the campus. I.C.C., Inter-Club Council, was composed of representatives from each club on campus. This group was responsible for keeping the many clubs represented running smoothly. Each class had its own set of officers. The senior class officers had the task of planning graduation, and all of its surrounding chaos. The juniors were responsible for putting on the Junior-Senior prom. The officers elected to represent the sophomores and freshmen planned activities for their own classes, and began raising money for their own proms. Yes, these were the leaders of our school. We elected them, then we learned to live with them.

A GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY ALL

We all had a great sense of pride in Pacific. Our many teams were always there to defend this pride on the field, on the court, on the track, and in the pool. Other Pirates showed their pride by cheering on these athletes, as part of the leadership squad, or as spectators. We gave to our school, by giving of our time and talent. In return we were given endless opportunities for enjoyment. Games, dances, rallies, and groups, such as band and leadership, gave us many chances to get involved, and were the things which made our years at Pacific not only good — but GREAT!

Pacific has always been a school of high academic standing. Those students who were eager to learn could always find a helpful teacher to assist them. Some members of our faculty gave freely of their spare time, serving on committees, working at games, sponsoring clubs, and helping students before and after school. It was this togetherness, this working of student and teacher side-by-side, which made learning at Pacific a pleasure.

Together . . .

We Did It All

Think of the responsibility involved in helping to shape the futures of hundreds of young lives daily. This, was the awesome task faced by Pacific's faculty each year. Many of us, as teachers and administrators, took this responsibility very seriously. We were always willing to give a bit of our own time to our students, to answer questions, offer advice, or if the need be, just talk. It was our hope to be remembered as much more than teachers, but likewise as friends and confidants.

MRS. WINTERS KEEPS PIRATE SHIP AFLOAT

Winter's Office . . . the Buck Stops Here

Through her third year as Pacific's principal, Mrs. Winters kept the ship sailing smoothly. It was a demanding job, and one which required a strong, dependable person, all of which Mrs. Winters was. She managed to keep every aspect of running a school under control, and even found time to enjoy many activities right along with the students.

Two's Company . . . Three's Fantastic

Our vice-principals were nothing less than miracle workers. Between the three of them, they kept a check on students, assisted student council in planning activities, set up courses, calmed irrate parents, and performed a multitude of other tasks. Mr. Regalado, Mr. Singer, and our new V.P. Mr. Davitt, were an essential part of our faculty, and were there to lend a hand to the confused populous roaming our campus.

OUR COUNSELORS HELD THE GUIDING LIGHT

Students had a tendency to not even know who their counselors were, until they needed help. Then, boy, did they find out fast! When a schedule needed to be changed, a g.p.a. verified, or a college applied to, a skilled counselor was an irreplaceable asset. Pacific had the blessing of eight superb counselors, with Mr. Lackner as their leader, who was always there when the going was tough.

To keep the education at Pacific of the highest quality, the curriculum was divided into departments, such as math, science, English, and art. For some teachers school did not end when the bell rang at 2:05. These were the members of our faculty who made our extracurricular activities possible. They sold tickets at games and supervised dances through the year. They did all of this on their own time, without pay. Without their help, many of our events would not have been possible. These were the people we went to when we needed help, and we never had to look far to find one.

Meeting the Faces Behind the Grades

Pacific's Back-to-School Night has always been an event. Parents were exposed to the routine faced by students each day, saw the faces seen by their high schooler each day, and took advantage of this opportunity to meet the teachers, and develop a better understanding of the joys and pains felt by their own Pacific students.

For everyone at Pacific the Christmas season brought many happy times, and our faculty was no exception. In fact, they had an extra event each year. This was the faculty Christmas party. During 1978 it was held at the Lamp Lighter on Friday, December 17th. Attended by faculty both old and new, this bash was definite proof that students are not the only ones who knew how to party!

EXCUUUSE ME! — It appears that good ol' Mr. Nielsen, with one elbow on the table and reaching across it with his other hand, is having a hard time remembering his manners at the dinner table.

HEADS UP — One of our P.E. coaches, Mr. Fox, seems oblivious to the fact that the dessert tray is directly above his head, as a really enthused Kristen Kopp looks on.

YES, TEACHERS ARE PEOPLE TOO

Year after year, day in and day out, our faculty was faced with classrooms full of us sniveling brats. Retaining their sanity seemed impossible. Then, they heard of an activity in which their students participated. Something called, "partying." They tried it, and they liked it. In fact, many of them became quite proficient. As the ol' saying goes — "Practice makes perfect."

Mr. Farr

DIG IN — At a luncheon catered by L.I.B.S. this year, all the teachers wait their turn in line to get a taste of that delicious soul food.
T.G.I.F. — Two members of our faculty, Mr. Farr and Mr. Wise, looked forward to the end of the long week and the parties that followed this year. They also enjoyed the excellent food served at these parties.

Partying on and on and on . . .

STUDYING HARD — Mr. Krabill studies extra hard for his next algebra test.

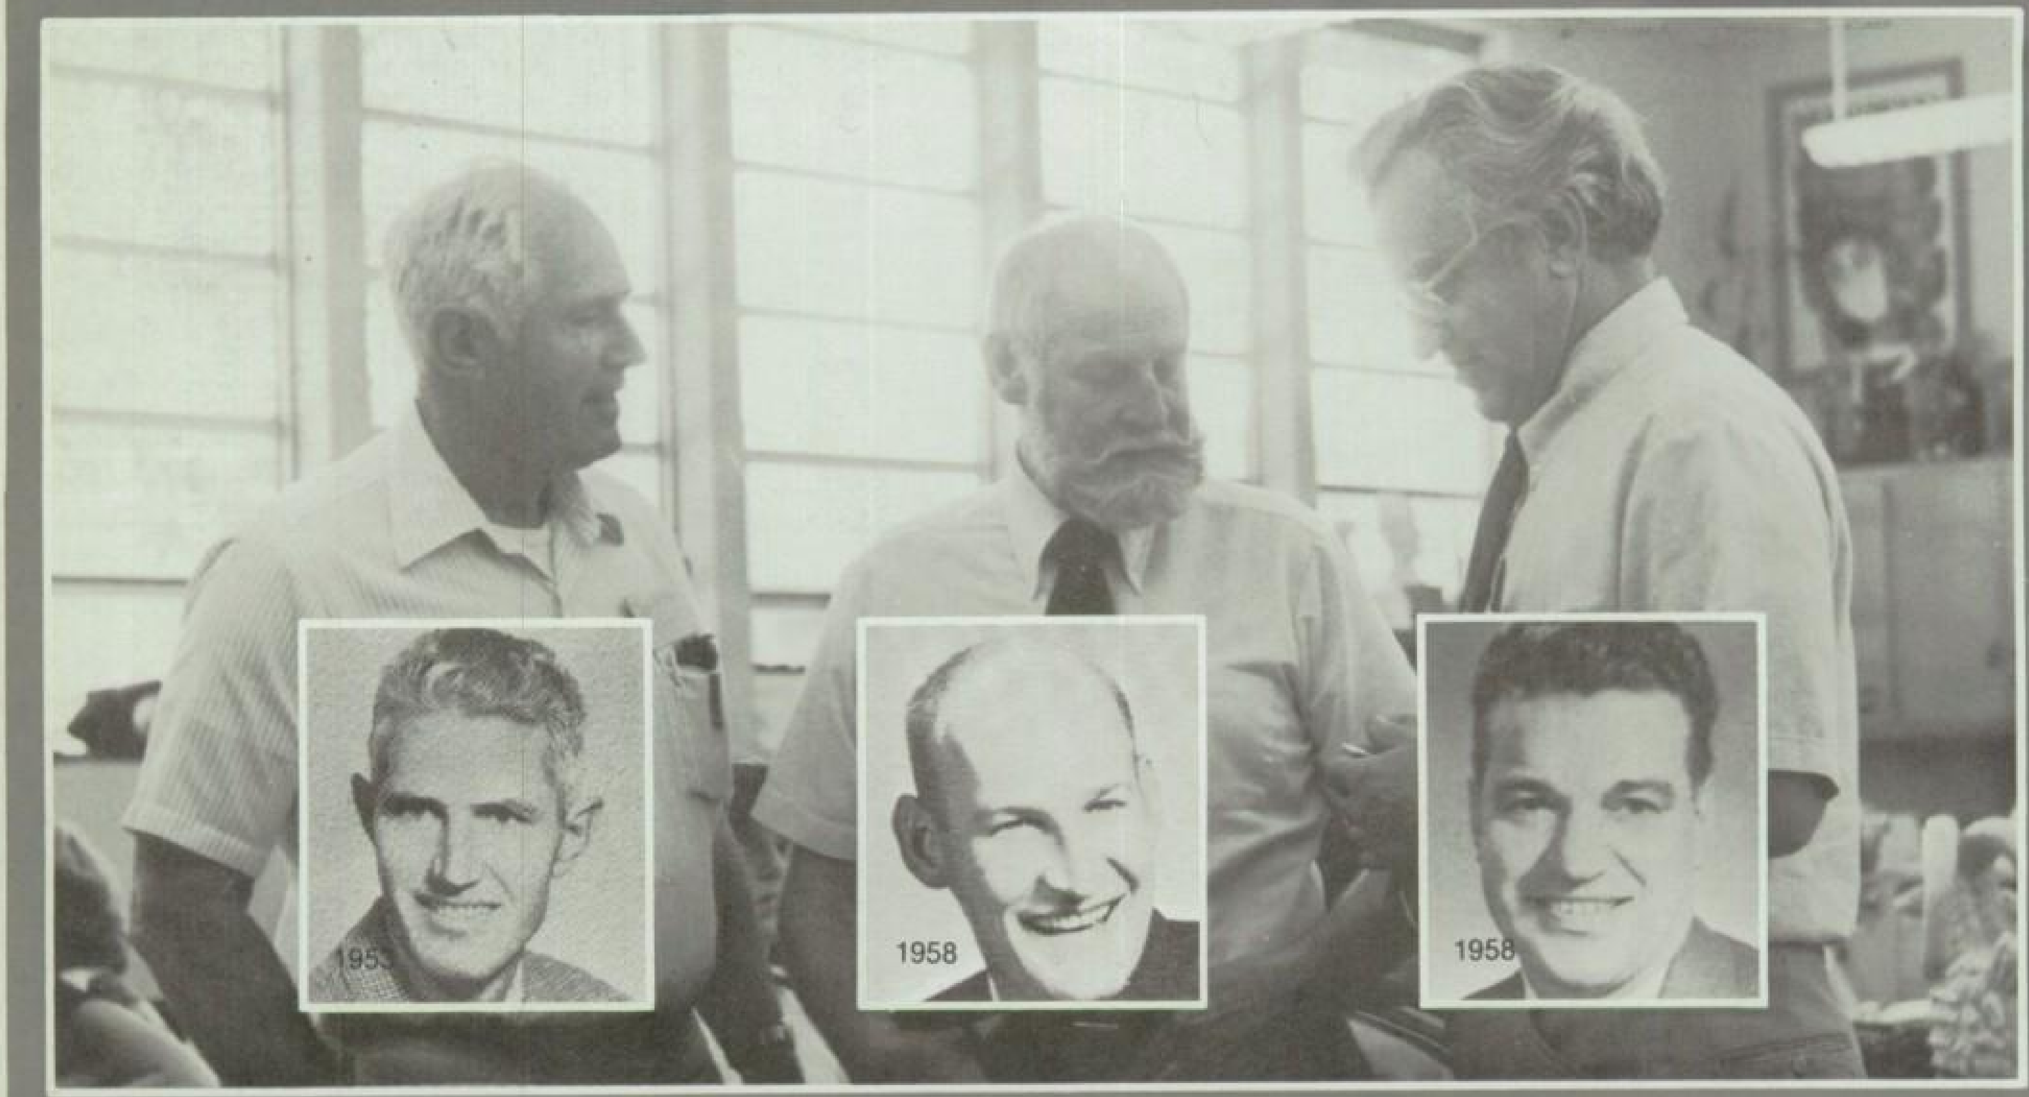
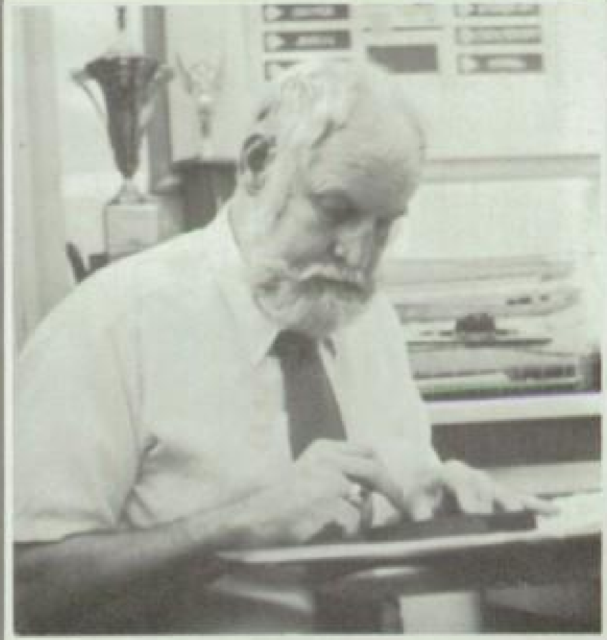
THREE WHO BETTERED THE LIVES OF MANY





"A Friend and a Great Educator."

— John Grenfell

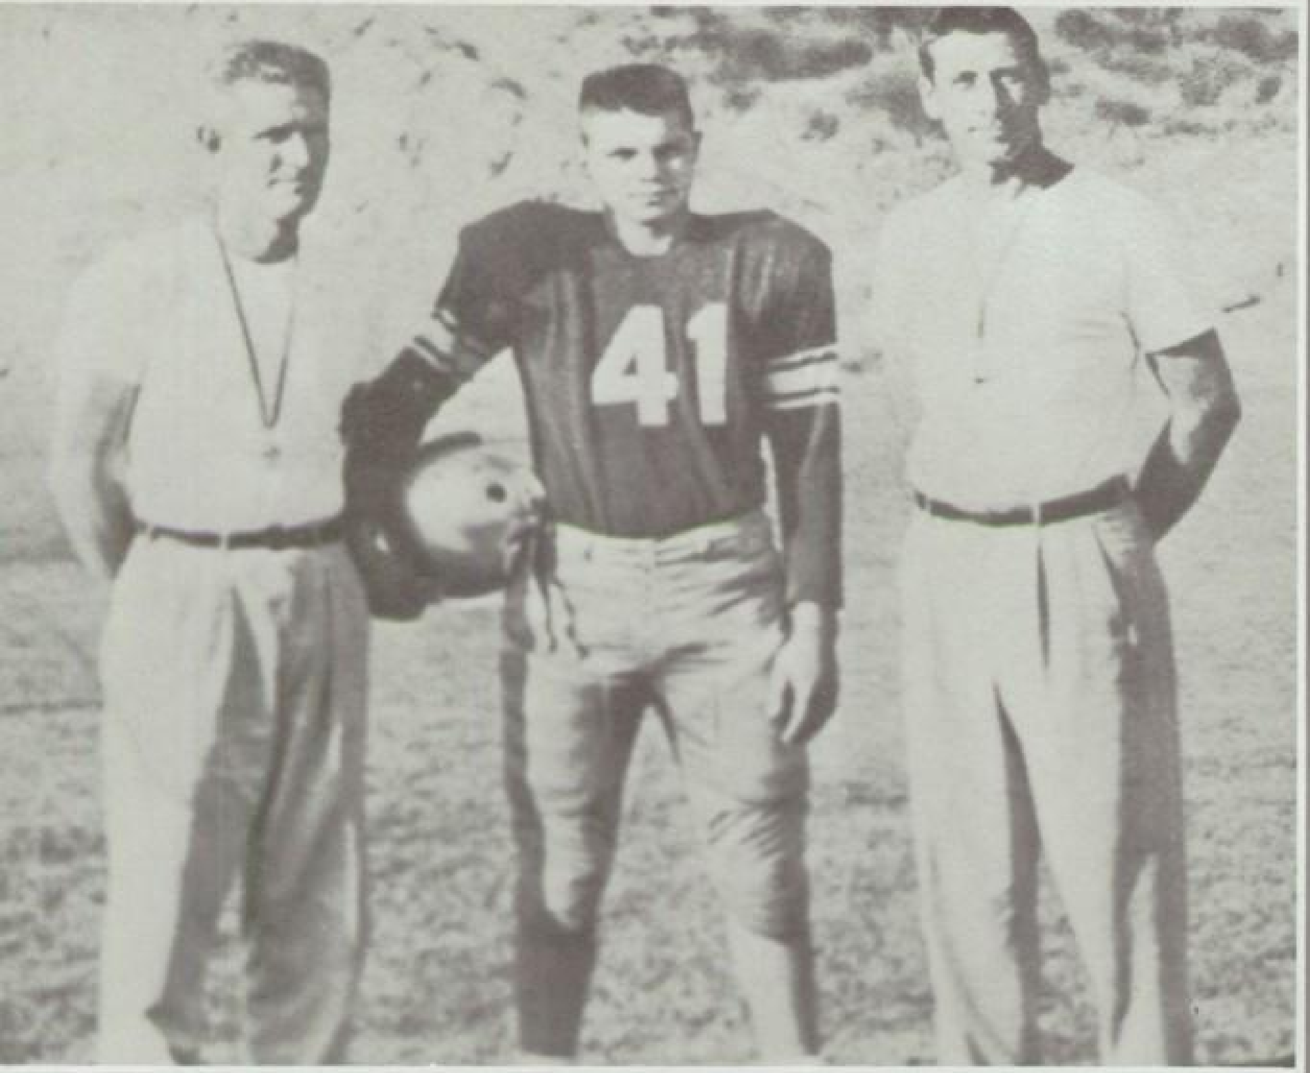
Mr. Nielsen began his teaching career in 1951, and came to P.H.S. in 1958. He has been an art instructor and annual advisor for his entire 20 years here. His annuals have won many awards, and he has remained close friends with the editors whom he worked with on these books. Mr. Nielsen has always been an active member of our faculty, serving as faculty President and faculty Social Chairman. We all wish Mr. Nielsen the best of luck, and may the fall find him with more oranges than Anita Bryant ever dreamed of.

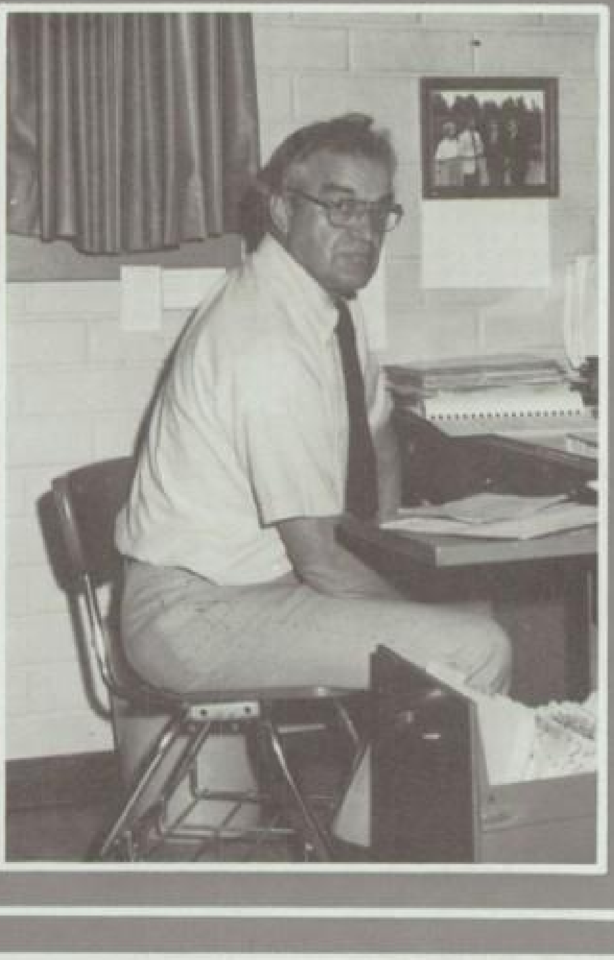
THE THREE MUSKETEERS — During their years at P.H.S., Mr. Grenfell, Mr. Nielsen and Mr. Lackner have become very close friends. You could often find them together in D-4.
WHO'S THE YOUNG MAN? — He couldn't be Mr. Nielsen could he? Yes, here we have Mr. Nielsen back in 1960 with one of his art classes.
CONCENTRATION — Being head of the art department and annual advisor kept Mr. Nielsen busy bringing budgets up to date.

"... He is One of the Greatest."

Russ Lackner

Mr. Grenfell started teaching in 1945, and came to Pacific when it opened in 1953. During his 26 years here he gave of himself in many ways. He coached varsity track and football, taught social studies and P.E., and spent many of his last years as our Athletic Director. His contributions to high school athletics were great. His accomplishments were many, and his contributions to the athletic program and throughout Pacific will never be forgotten.





Mr. Lackner came to Pacific in 1958, after spending many years at junior high schools in San Bernardino. Although he is known primarily as a counselor, he gave to Pacific in many other ways as well. He taught various government classes, as well as a math class, and once upon a time sponsored our radio club. His many honors throughout the community were well deserved. He served as President of the San Bernardino Teachers' Association and on the Board of Directors of the California Teachers' Association. For the past nine years he has been the City Councilman for the 7th Ward. As a counselor he greatly eased the confusion of many a student. His patience, intelligence, and practicality were appreciated by students and fellow faculty members as well.

RUSS THE D.J. — In 1961 Mr. Lackner kept busy by sponsoring the amateur radio club. He sometimes got carried away with the microphone, that's when they got a new sponsor.

MY WORLD AND WELCOME TO IT — From the confines of this wee desk, Mr. Lackner calmly and patiently gave advice and information to the many confused or eager students who entered his office.

COACH GRENFELL — Here we have Mr. Grenfell (left) back in 1954 when he was our football coach here at Pacific.

SIGNATURES, SIGNATURES — For the past 15 years Mr. Grenfell was kept busy by helping better our school's athletic department as Athletic Director.

RIGHT HAND LADIES

During a visit to the administration building at Pacific, one could be sure to see many smiling, helpful faces. These belonged to the many secretaries who assisted our Principals, Vice Principals, and Counselors, and those who kept our finances and academic records up to date. Pacific experienced some changes in our secretarial staff during 1978, and those who are new to our school quickly adjusted and became loyal Pirates in their own right. They were welcome, and we wished them the very best of luck.

LOADS OF WORK — Being busy and making appointments came natural to Claudia Magdaleno.
SMILING BIG — Thinking about changing diapers and warming bottles in the middle of the night made Marion Ross stop and wonder, "Will it be a boy or a girl?"

PLANT LOVER — One of the secretaries, Eileen Treadwell, took time from her hectic schedule to admire the fern in her office.
BEING AT HOME — For Mary Clark everything came easy when finding her way around the office.

EILEEN TREADWELL — Sec. to Mrs. Winters
LINDA VALERIO — Sec. to Mr. Regalado
RUTH WASLEY — Attn. Clerk
CAROL ZUG — Register
MARION ROSS — Sec. to Mr. Davitt
VIDA SIBLEY — Lib. Asst.
DOROTHY SMITH — Sec. to Counselors

JOAN HARRIS — Sec. to Mr. Singer
BARBARA HOPTON — Health Aid
GLORIA RITCHEY — Campus Resource Officer

The motto of Pacific's security team seemed to be, "A place for everyone and everyone in his place." Helping wandering Pirates find their ways back to class was a major responsibility of our 5 person force. We appreciated them and the phrase, "Do you have a pass?", will always bring back fond memories.

BUSTED AGAIN — Junior Todd Graham is being reprimanded by security officer, Ellis Brown.
HEAR NO, SEE NO, AND SPEAK NO EVIL — Security officer, Calley Ramos, Robert Conde, and Gloria Ritchey want nothing to do with students and their problems at the end of the long day.
CAMERA SHY — Our newest security officer, Gloria Ritchey, appears to be camera shy, but when it comes to school security she's the top of the line.

LET'S GET IT RIGHT THIS TIME

1979 was a special year in many ways. For our faculty a major part of it was the visit by the Committee for Accreditation of the Western Association of schools and Colleges.

In 1975 Pacific was accredited and did not receive a very commendable report. The 1979 faculty was well prepared and Pacific emerged with flying colors.

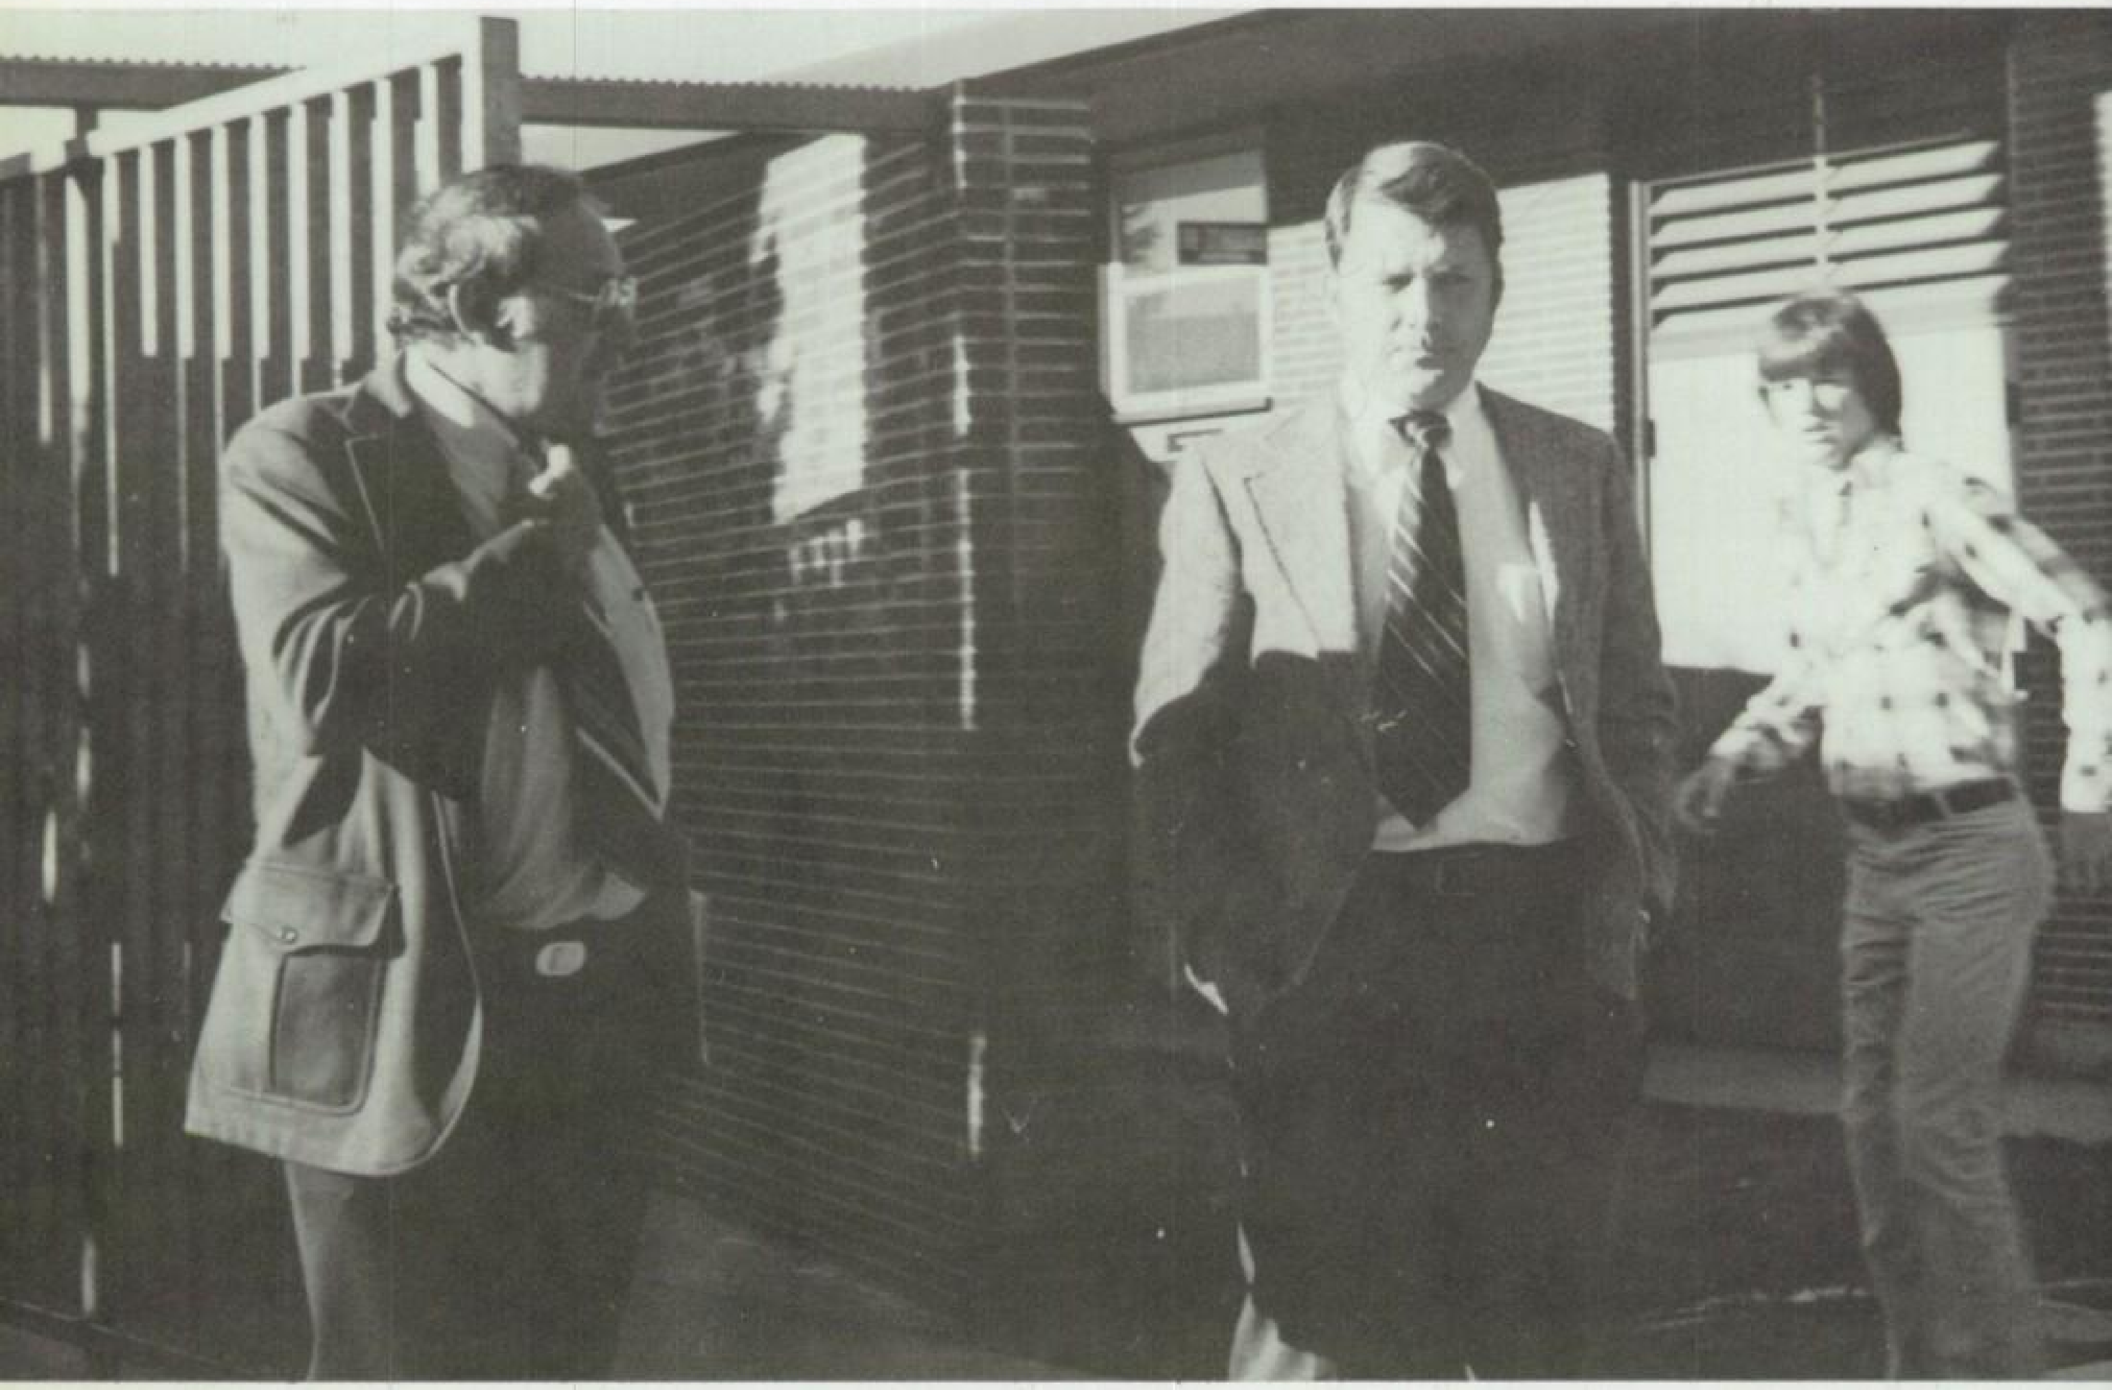
FRIENDLY VISIT — Early in Oct., Dr. Jack Ranklin, Mr. Regalado, Mrs. Winters and Miss Tortorola had a get together discussing Accreditation.

RAP SESSION — Several teachers got together during the year deciding how to handle Accreditation in March.

EAT AND BE MERRY — While at the Mexico Restaurant every one seemed to be having a good time, especially Dr. Terrell.
ENTERTAINING — Catching Mrs. Winters off guard, we found her hosting the accreditation team dinner on Sunday evening.
LISTENING CAREFULLY — Mr. Luna seemed to be interested in what the Bilingual Staff had to say.
MUNCHING OUT — When it came to Mexican food Mr. Singer was more than happy to try it.

DAY BREAK —Accreditation chairman Dr. Rankin waits with Mr. Regalado to observe the school opening.

IN THE HALLS — Accreditation committee members Mrs. Oitzman and Mrs. Norman take a close observation of P.H.S. between classes.



Education of High Quality at P.H.S.

WHAT'S THIS — Scratching his head Dr. Rankin is not sure what to write in his report after the cafeteria inspection.

Together . . . We Did It All

School played a major part in the shaping of our lives. It provided a social life, a sports life (both as spectators and competitors), and, most importantly, an academic life. Pacific had teachers who cared and the facilities available to assist in providing an invaluable education to those students who cared enough to grasp it.

ME WORK? — Being a Valedictorian isn't all just work and study, as you can see below. But even though there were a lot of nights of long hard study, it all paid off in the end. Steve was a member of N.H.S. and C.S.F. He also enjoyed wrestling and delivering papers for the Sun.

JUST RESTING HIS EYES — It was a wonder how Alex Nesbitt got such good grades, with all his football, track, clubs, plus working at the dairy. We'll just have to let him slide this time, maybe for some free ice cream?

STUDY, STUDY, STUDY — Life seemed too short for Vicki Oppelt, who has usually caught breezing through her work. This way she thought she could have time for Sobbans, N.H.S. and most of all, her boyfriend.

Achieving the goal of being a Valedictorian or a Salutatorian was a very honorable thing. It took many long hard hours of slaving over the books in study, to gain the positions that were achieved. All the way from their freshman year to their senior year, it was set in their minds that they must get A's, no C's or B's. It had to be A's, and because of their determination to push on, they have gained a satisfying reward.

Special achievements deserve recognition. In order to honor those students who had achieved high academically, many groups offered scholarships and awards. Pacific had four finalists in this competition, and Rex Winters, and Gary Mitchell received scholarships. The Sun Telegram had a carrier award. There were congressional appointments for the Air Force Academy, and hundreds of other ways certain students devoted to studying could be awarded.

ORGANIZERS OF MASS CONFUSION

From their first meeting (the infamous Surf Conference of '78) and throughout the year the 1978-79, student council had a multitude of responsibilities. These covered most every aspect of the running of a school: planning rallies and dances, working with the accreditation committee, calming poor Mr. Elton, and convincing certain coaches that there was "just no more money to be had."

HA HA HA — One could wonder what goes on at student council meetings. Lydia Ferraris and Mindy Smith seem to be having a good time.

WHERE'S THE EXCEDRIN? — Most of the time Mr. Elton enjoys advising student council, but as you can see, occasionally they can be a headache.

AND FURTHER MORE . . . — A.S.B. President Ken Martinez lets the people know who's boss in student council.

WHERE MINDS EXPANDED FREELY

The Room Where Knowledge Was Absorbed

In any educational institution a library is a most important asset. Pacific was very fortunate to have a library of which we could all be proud. Mr. Jones, our librarian, kept the shelves well stocked with both current and classical books, as well as many magazines and reference materials. He was also always willing to accommodate other groups and displays. Here, art projects were displayed, the audio visual equipment was stored, and Jeff Hamill and his House of Representatives met.

HOUSE OF WHO? — House of Reps held their meeting in the library. Jeff Hamill was speaker of the house.
CLAY ON DISPLAY — Our library here at Pacific was used for many things, besides providing a place for students to work and gathering information, our library was used for displays. Here we see the ceramics display made by our artistic students at Pacific.
TEACHER — Mrs. Willis's English class was one of the many to use our library.
AUDIO VISUAL — The NEW audio visual equipment in the library just happens to be dated 1808.
LIBRARIANS — Our librarian, Mr. Jones and his secretary Mrs. Sibley show a very fine example of leadership in Pacific's library.

PAY FOR YOUR ANNUAL WED.
FIRST PERIOD

A SIGH OF RELIEF — Mr. Nielsen gives a sigh of relief that this yearbook and all of its miseries and pains are finished and he can finally relax.
SKY HIGH — This is just one of the many piles of signs printed up by the staff here in an annual. They may have gotten their fingers a little black, but they got their point across and had fun doing it.

Much hard work and many long hours go into the making of a yearbook. The Pacificana was a labor of love. Once again, Mr. Nielsen had the great privilege of directing the afternoon activities in D-4. Without him the 1978-79 Pacificana would have never made it. The editors and staff overcame obstacles of every kind, pushing to meet the deadlines. The product? Once again, an award-winning yearbook.

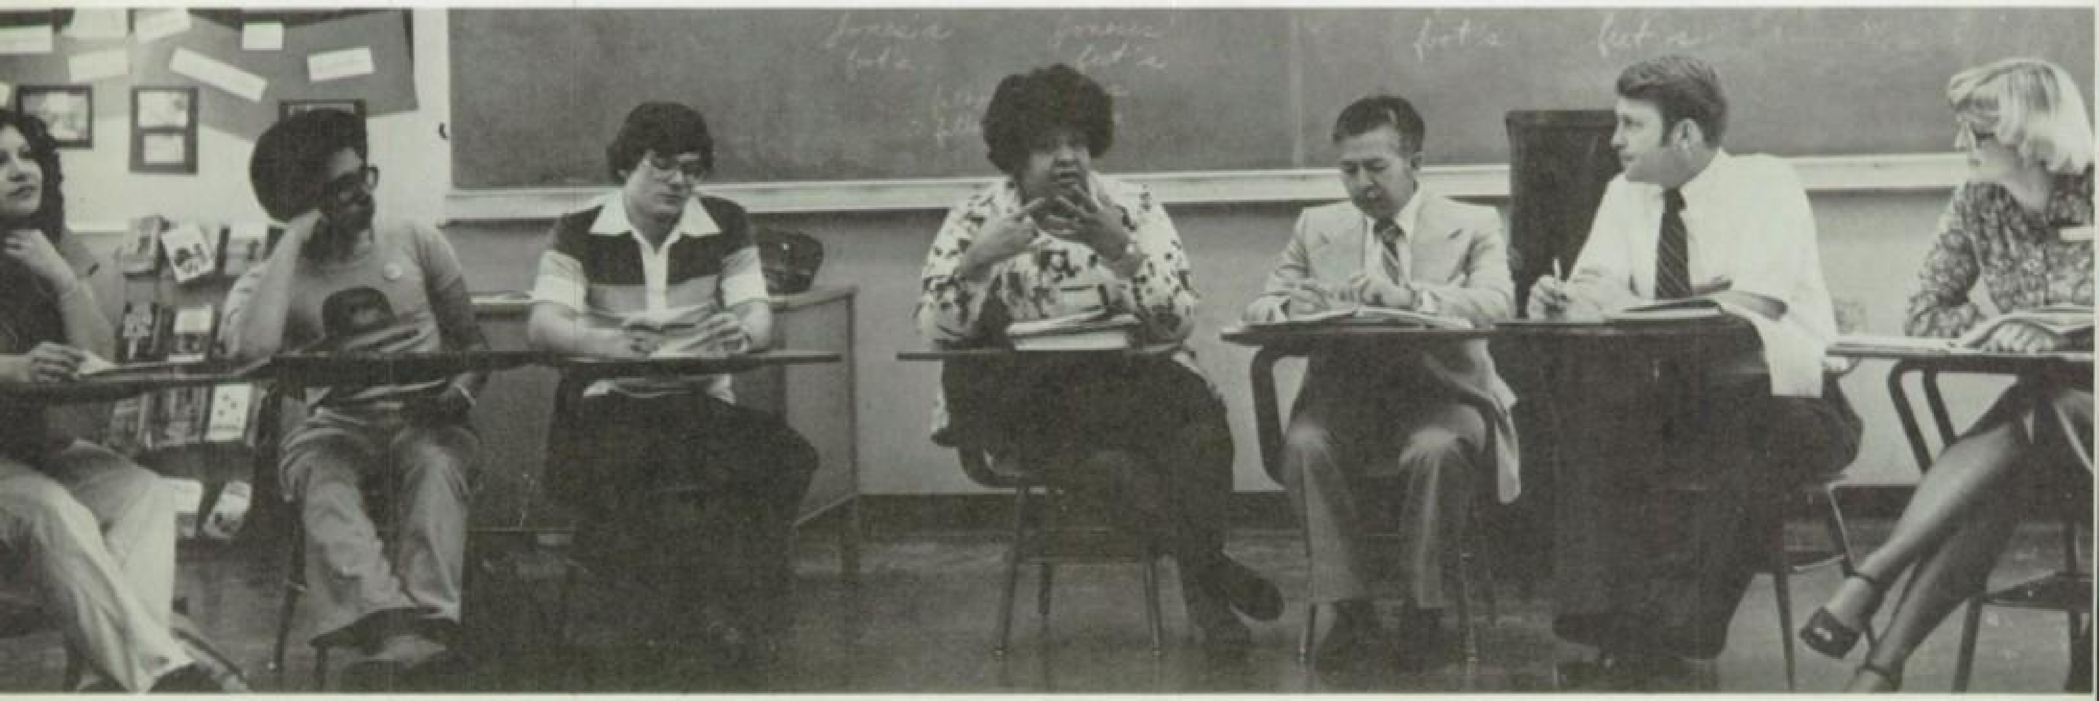
Together We Did It All

I SAY OLD CHAP — It takes a special talent to be a good copy editor, something not just everyone has. Fortunately we here at annual were lucky enough to have Kristen McDaniel as our copy editor. She put in many long hard hours for us editors and took many a criticism not only from us, but from the MAN too. But even so, she was a great profit to this yearbook, we just want to say Thanks Kristen for a great year.
IT'S ALRIGHT BABY — Rushing to meet a hectic annual deadline, Michelle Everett wonders how she ever got mixed up with this loony group of people. Here we see her in one of her more frustrated moments with Lydia Ferraris trying to comfort her.
STAFFFFFFS — BACK — G. Kaseno, C. Jones, T. Grahm, D. Norquist, T. Jackman, V. Gonzalez, L. Costello, and S. Crane. Middle — T. McCullough, L. Chakos, and H. Martinez. Bottom — K. Coletti, S. DeRosier, and R. Jordan. Missing from picture are Dianne Heston and Connie

REVIEWING THE TROOPS

STUDENT ACCREDITATION COMMITTEE — Mrs. Totorolo, Caroline Lightner, Ken Martinez, David Jackson, Nova Hunn, Gary Mitchell, Lydia Ferraris, Liydia O'Campo, Karen Martinez, Mike Williams, and Tony Ramirez.
AD-HOC — Here the Accreditation committee gets together with students David Jackson and Gary Mitchell, to discuss how they feel about the school. The members of the Accreditation committee were Dr. Jack Rankin, Kent Campbell, Gilberto Luna, Shirley Norman, Doris Oitzman, Vashti Roberts and Ellen Shockro.

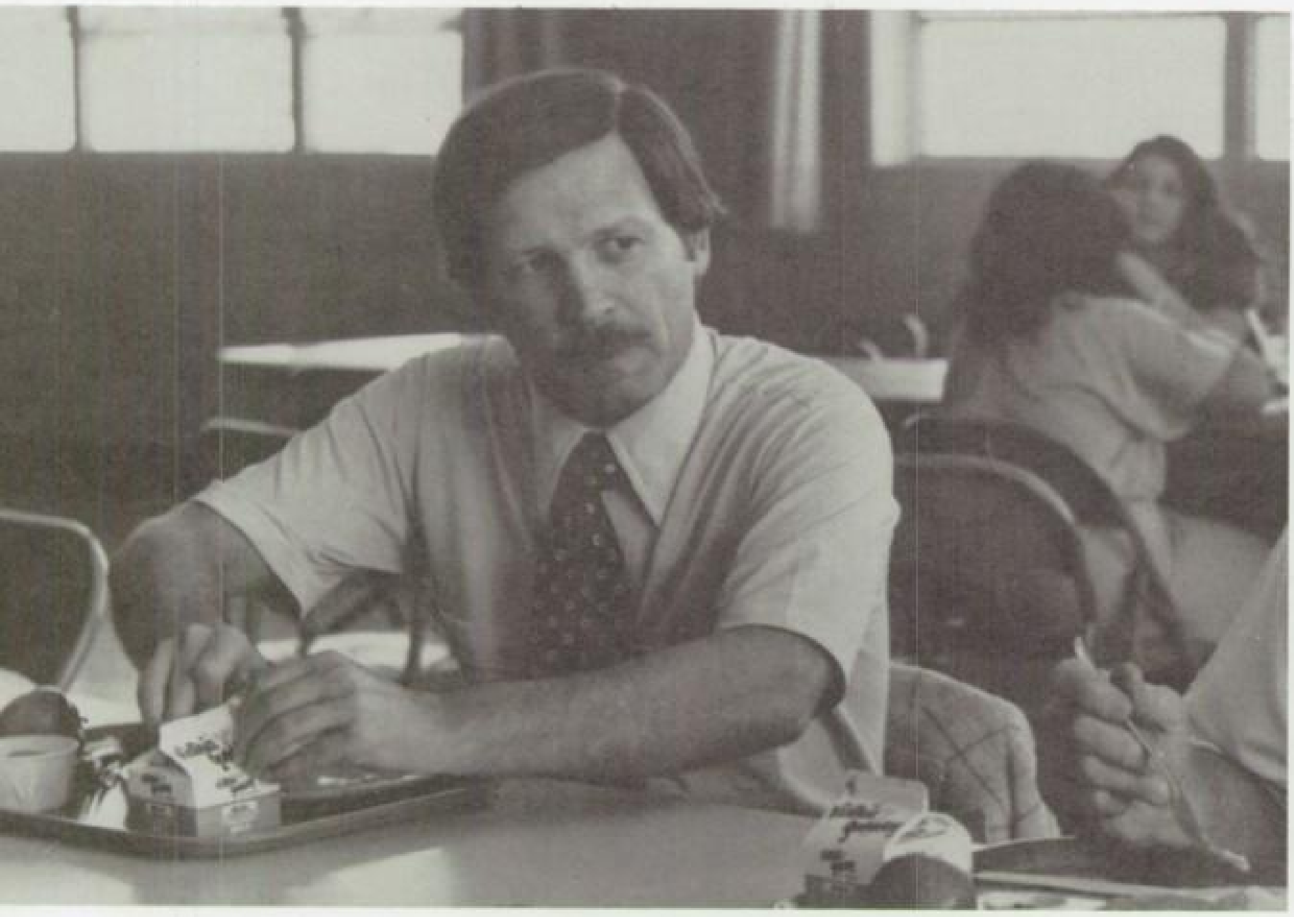
When the Accreditation committee came to Pacific in March of 1979 they commended us on many things. One of those was the fact that the students were so well informed on what the purpose of their visit was. And it was true, we had a group of students who worked right along with the team, as well as a good majority of students who were aware of what was happening, and who were eager to offer their opinions and ideas whenever needed.



ALRIGHT MISTER — Dr. Rankin, one of the Accreditors gives a stare of disgust as he reluctantly has his picture taken.

MUNCHIN OUT — Being a member of the Accreditation committee, Kent Campbell, had the pleasure of checking out the school lunches. Boy was he in for a surprise!

A Top School — in Top Shape



GUILTY OR NOT GUILTY — Here we have Doris Oitzman getting the whole truth, all the truth, and nothing but the truth from this faithful Pacific High Student.

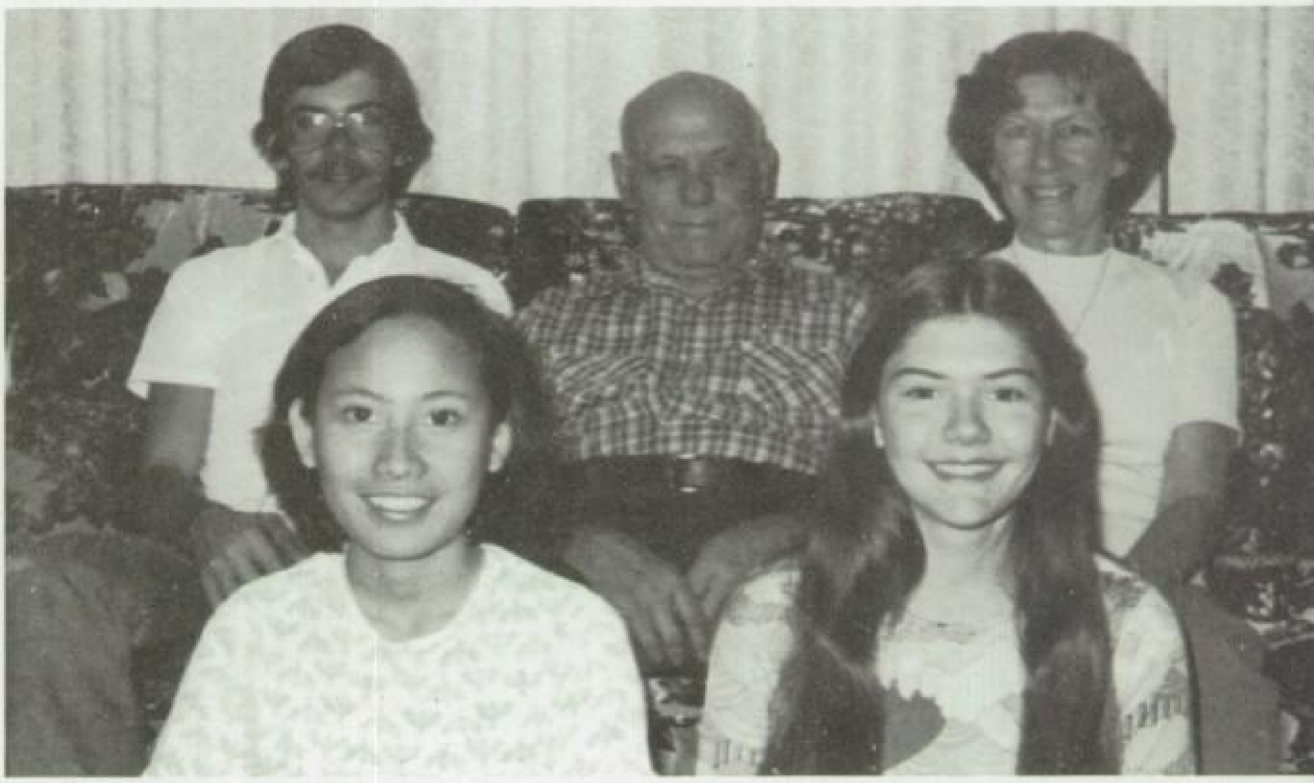
HAVE YOU HEARD THE ONE ABOUT . . . This was supposed to be a classroom, but Kent Campbell soon found different.

MENARI BAGAIMANA CARA MEMBUAT BATIK!! — This year's AFS student was Arifah Priharyini from the small island of Java. Here Arifah and Karen Denton show us their talents and brightly colored costumes as they dance Batik.
MILES MAKE NO DIFFERENCE — Here we have Arifah Prihartini from Java, Beth Wheeton from the U.S. and Varaporn Kritsanajootha from Thailand showing us that even though their countries are many miles apart, they all have one thing in common, their big beautiful smiles.
KER-PLUNK — While Arifah was on her stay here in America she had the honors and privileges of staying with the Plunk family.

FRIENDS FROM AFAR . . .

"Walk together, Talk together, O ye peoples of the earth, for then and only then, shall ye have peace." — AFS motto.

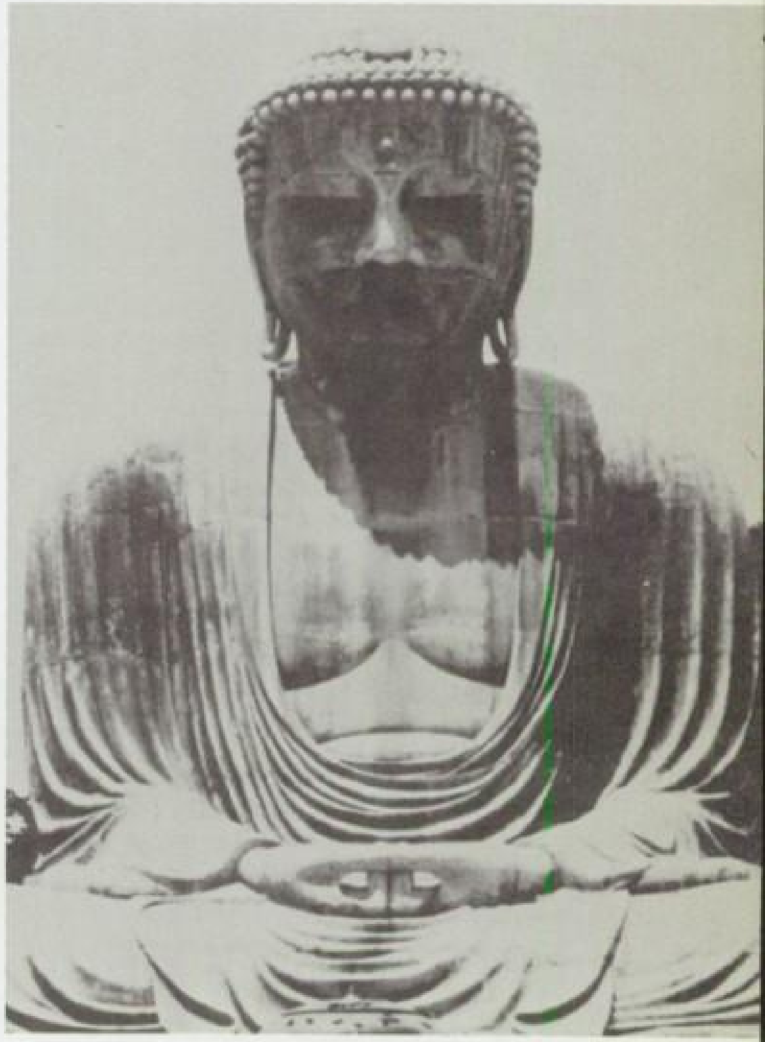
Before any group of people can begin to reconcile differences they must understand each other. The world as a whole is no exception. Pacific afforded many opportunities for students to expand their world, to begin to understand the ways of people in foreign countries. Three such groups were American Field Service, The Tachikawa sister city program, and the Foreign Study League. These groups strove to help interested students reach out and grasp a world far beyond the boundries of the Pacific High campus.



HOMESICK? — Not on your life! Here we see the group of students in the foreign study league showing off their big smiles in the country of Poland. This was just one of their many stops while they were touring the continent of Europe.
Row 1 — B. Young, D. Torkleson, S. Young, D. Dye, R. Perry, K. Hernandez, M. Plunk, D. Ahlmyer, D. Rafael, D. Meiman, A. Bataman, J. Kuechler, Row 2 — Mr. Taylor, L. Squerzi, Polish guide, C. Koch, W. Waldock, B. Plunk, D. Arnold, B. Koch, Allen, J. Bevelin, Row 3 — Warsaw Poland Guide, L. Bacon, B. Spell, M. Ross, B. Spell, S. Gishke, L. Stiles, P. McKinley, G. Kohl, A. McElroy, L. Ahlmyer, C. Atkinson, P. Miller, R. Hubert, K. Winstead, M. Rice, J. Ford, A. Torkelson, L. Arnold, J. Rowland. Not present — Dianne and Rozita Heston.

WARSZAWA STARE MIASTO 1978

HING YONG YONG CHING CHONG — Lucky Gary Mitchell got over to Japan just in time to celebrate a Japanese Halloween. His costume was very original. He dressed up as a Japanese person.



MADE IN JAPAN — This Giant Buddah was just one of the many beautiful statues in Japan.

AHHHHSSSSOOOOOOOOOOOO — Here we see the "lucky" family that got to host Gary Mitchell on his stay in Japan. Yasuo, Tomiko, Shin-Ichi, and Masaru Ishimatsu.

BROTHERLY LOVE — Gary and his two Japanese brothers, Masarua and Shin-Ichi, somehow found time enough to stop eating their rice and pose for a picture.

EVERY SCHOOL NEEDS A PAPER . . .

No, That's Hi-Tide Not Hi-Times! . . .

Pacific's school newspaper, the Hi-Tide, was a journalistic adventure for all involved. At the head of the group were Mr. Havemann, as sponsor, and Mike Mark, as Editor-in-Chief. Though the issues were few and far between, they were fun to read, carrying some interesting facts, and lots of juicy gossip. It may not have been The Times, but it was a Pacific tradition, and this gave it a permanent place in our school.

INTRODUCING THE 1978-79 HI-TIDE STAFF — Row 1 — D. DeLeon, B. Verdonne, A. Kuehnan, Row 2 — P. Smith, M. Darkens, M. Hawkins, C. Costello, C. Lightner, S. Shamblin, J. Johnson, H. Davis, Row 3 — K. KICKING BACK — After meeting one of those hard deadlines in Hi-Tide, Mark Arnold decides to relax and take it easy for a while before the next deadline.

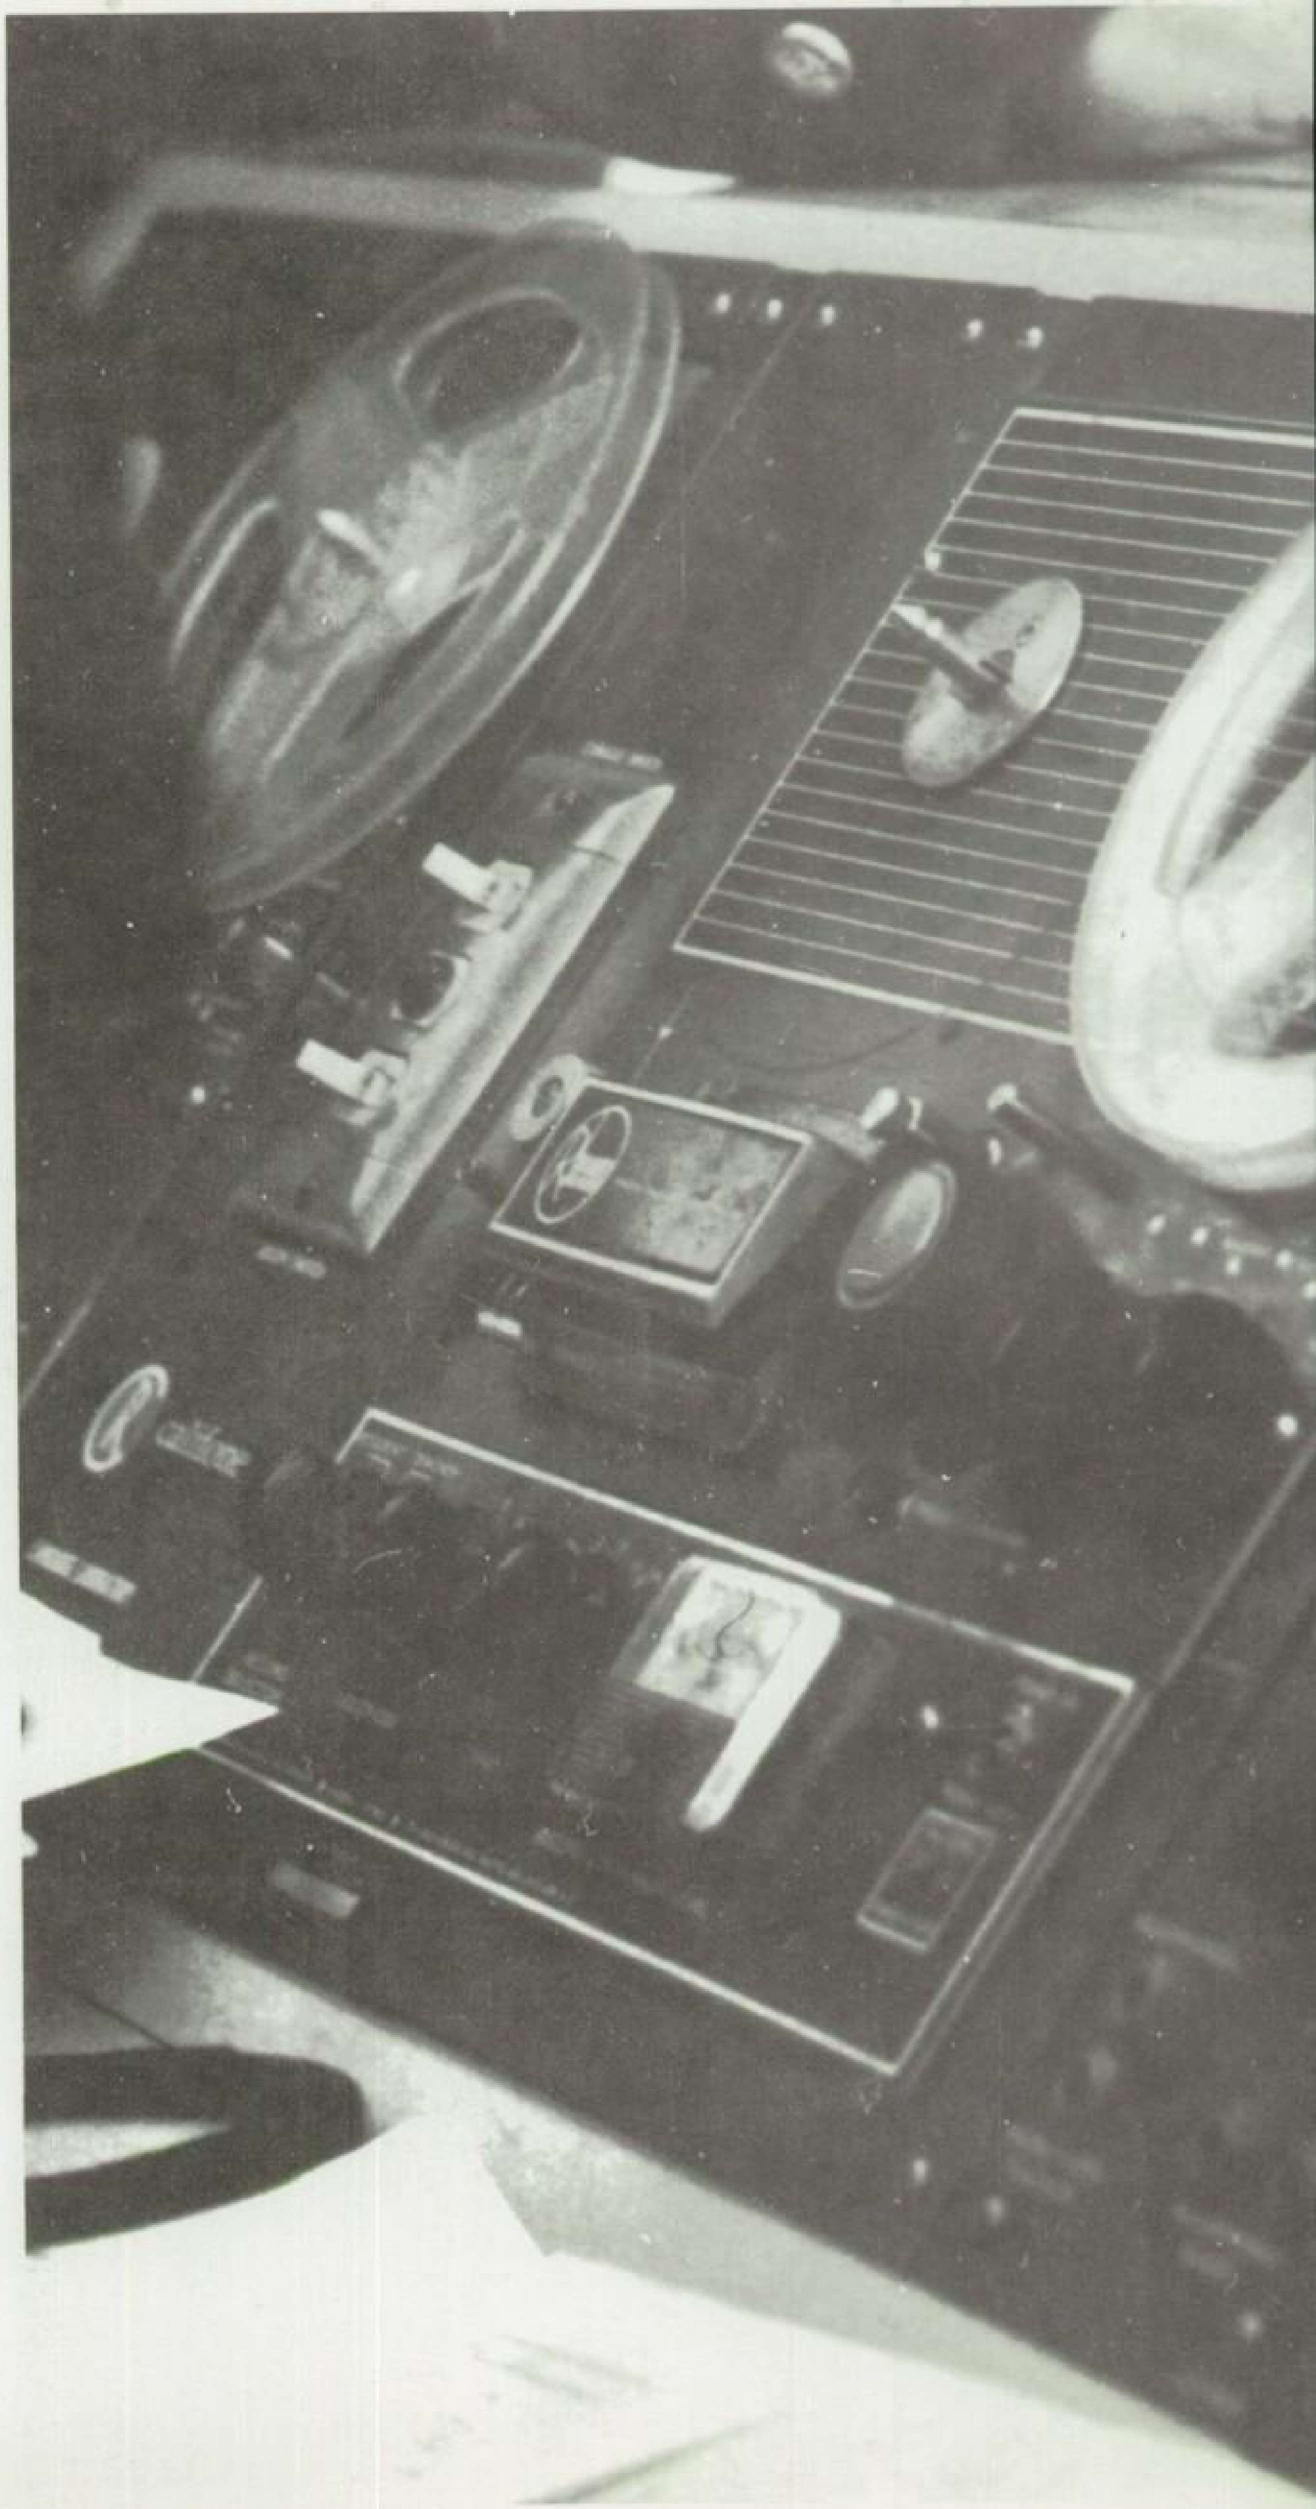
SURPRISE — Dennis O'Leary and Dianne McCoy didn't realize just what they were getting themselves into when they signed up to be on Hi-Tide. Here we see Mr. Havemann telling them about one of the many rules and regulations they have to go by in Hi-Tide.

Bringing a Bit of the World to Pacific

Language can be the key opening the door to new relationships and understandings, or the barrier separating individuals and groups from each other. It all depends on if the same language is spoken. The goal of Pacific's foreign language and Bilingual dept. was to provide a chance for students to learn some of the other languages spoken on our earth, as well as giving students the opportunity to become proficient in the English language. The teachers in this dept. also offered to their students stories of experiences in foreign countries, and various other insights into the cultures and traditions of the lands from which their foreign language originated, such as foods, religions, and holiday celebrations.

COMMUNICATION: THE KEY TO UNDERSTANDING



TIN GRIN — Mrs. Cereceres wore a real live, honest to goodness, genuine TIN GRIN! She really put a bright spot into the Bilingual department.

PLUG IT IN OUR EARS? — This delicate piece of machinery was used in our ever so loved spanish dept. The students would "PLUG IT IN THEIR EARS" and get an electrifying shock of spanish.

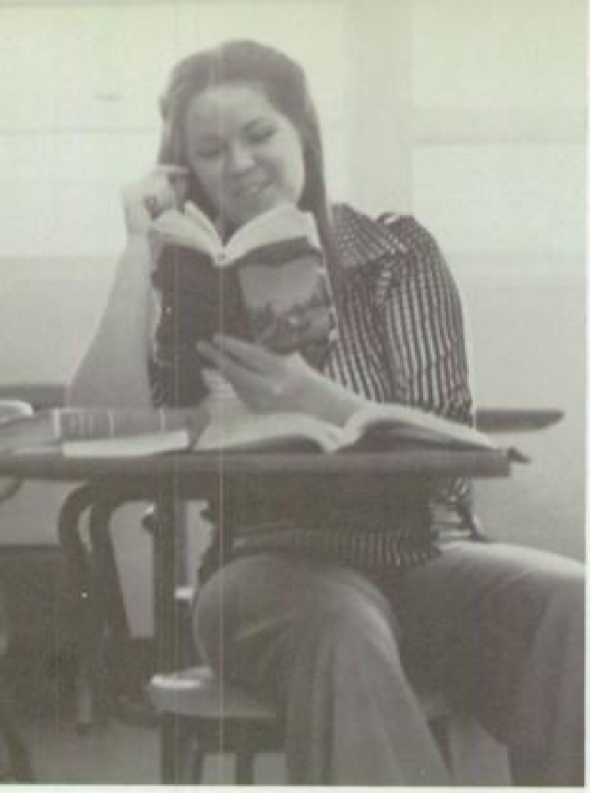
A WAY WITH WORDS

Every student at Pacific was required to take 3 years of English. And many college-bound pirates fit an English class into their schedules for each of the eight semesters which they spent here. There were so many different types of classes available, ranging from Black Literature to English Composition, that no student was left wondering how to fill these requirements.

HOW WE ARGUE — Debating was an art commonly practiced among students. English 3AP class expresses their point through Kristen Kopp, Matt Houlihan, and David Jackson.

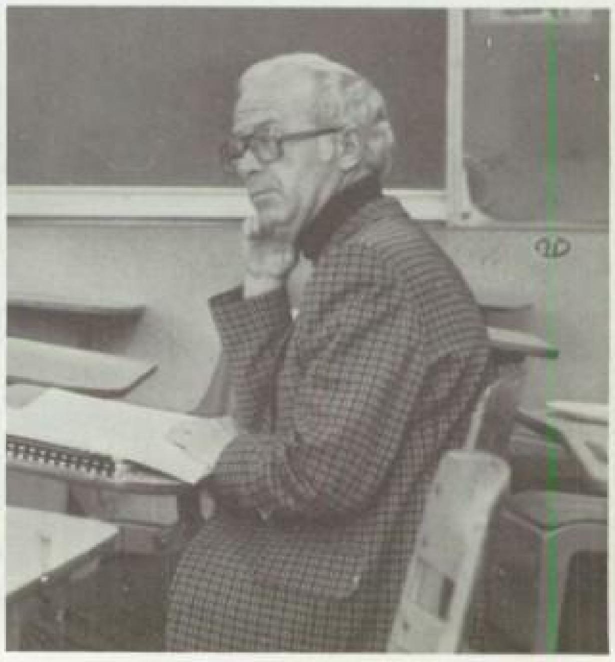


BOOK WORM — Studious junior, Tammie Beeman, busies herself with famous pieces of literature that are commonly read by AP students far and wide.

STUDY AWAY — Library time plays a big part in the learning process of Becky Webb and her friends.

T.V. TIME — English major Tricia Drury expresses her point during the T.V. special Wuthering Heights.

HO HUM — English teacher, Mr. Taylor, seems anxious for the end of the year to arrive.



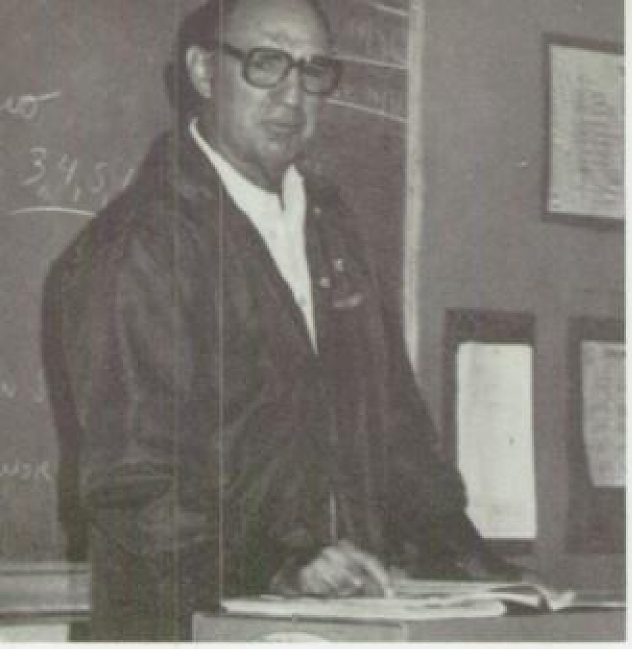
PAST AND PRESENT . . .

Some things never change. Every generation of man has basically strove for the same goal, to make this a better world in which to live. A few men have stood in the way, but the idea never really changed. The goal of our social science dept. was to carry on this dream. We were urged to learn from past peoples' mistakes, preserve worthwhile traditions, and mostly just get involved.

Angel
Patti

STUDY OF THE HUMAN MIND — Psychology was the study of the human mind. In this particular situation, Angel Ramirez and Pati Sauceda were the subjects for discussion. The class was trying their best to find out just what makes them tick.

WHEELS GO ROLLIN' — As Mr. Wheeler teaches his crime and justice class, the students' heads go rollin'.



The Workings of the Human Mind . . .

FROWNING — Coach Hackleman didn't look too pleased to be stuck teaching social studies. He looked as though he'd rather be horsing around with a basketball in the gym.

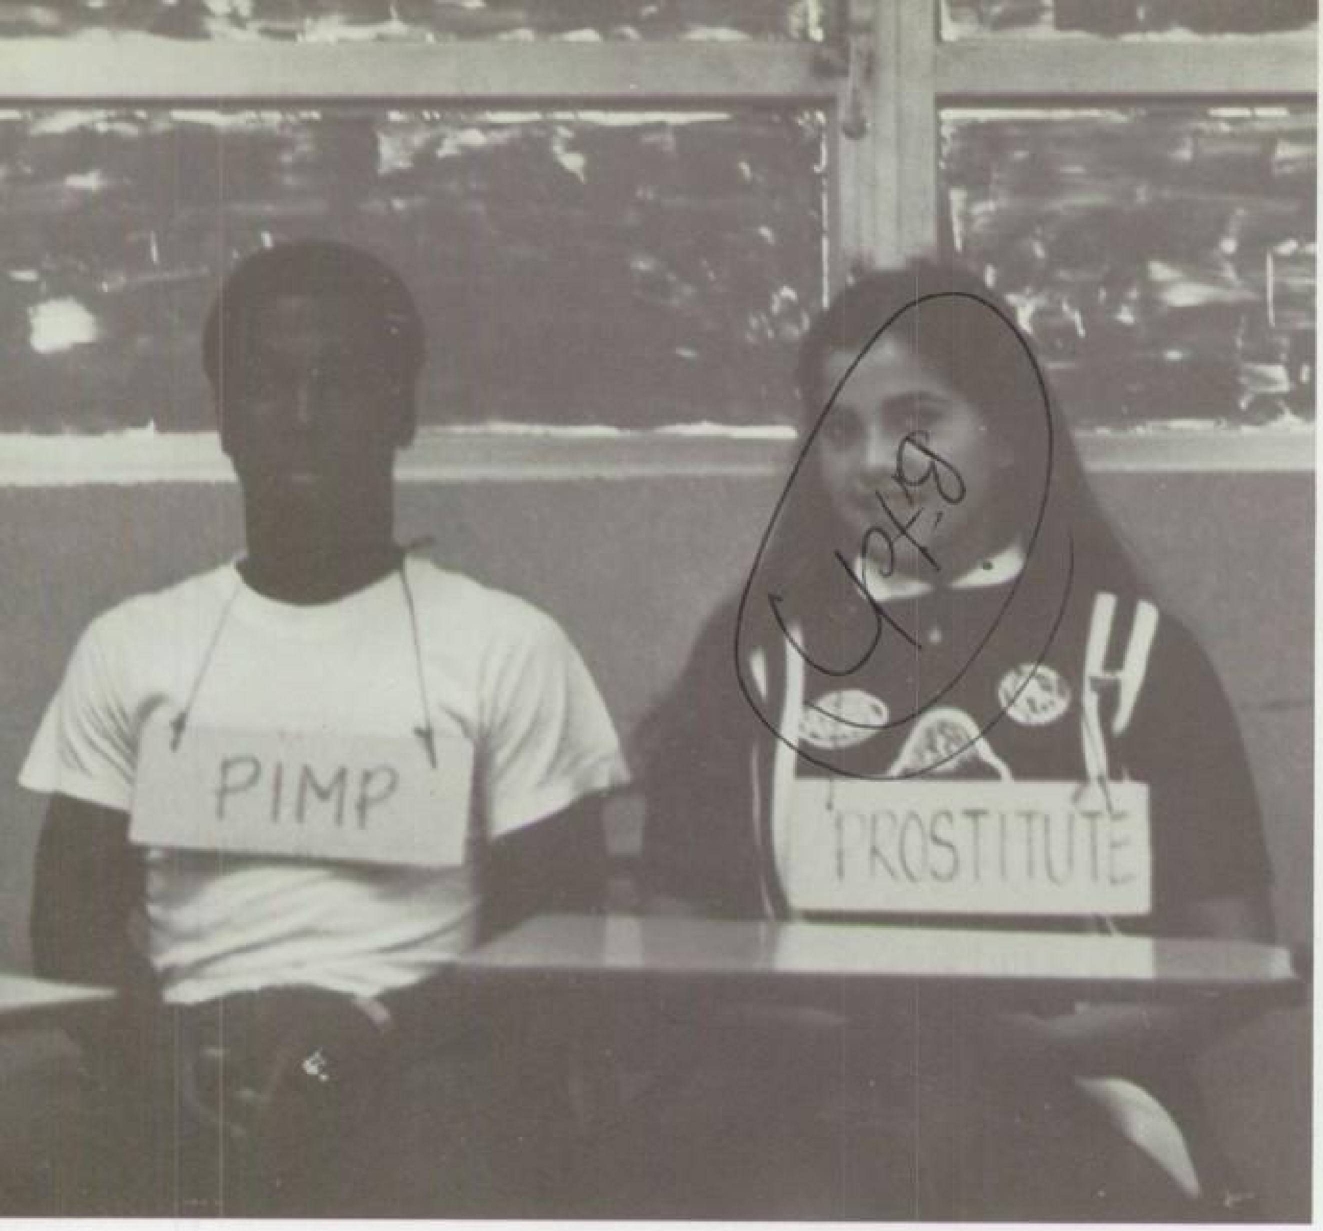
Danny

SAVE US — After Dan Mosley and John De Vries tried furiously to solve their problems, they finally got up enough nerve to consult Mr. Pendergast for his opinion on the situation.

DRIP, DRIP, DRIP — Being ever so careful not to spill, Beverly Pickins closely watches every drop she puts in. This being her 100,000,000 time to do this experiment, she wants to get it right this time.

WEIGHT?? — As Mike Duggan fiddles with his scale, trying desperately to get the correct weight, a groping hand comes up from behind and tries to do him in.

BUTTER FINGERS — As Ken Douglass carefully adjusts his scale, being the butterfingers that he is, John Freedson stands by to catch anything that just might happen to fall.



THE WAYS OF MOTHER NATURE . . .

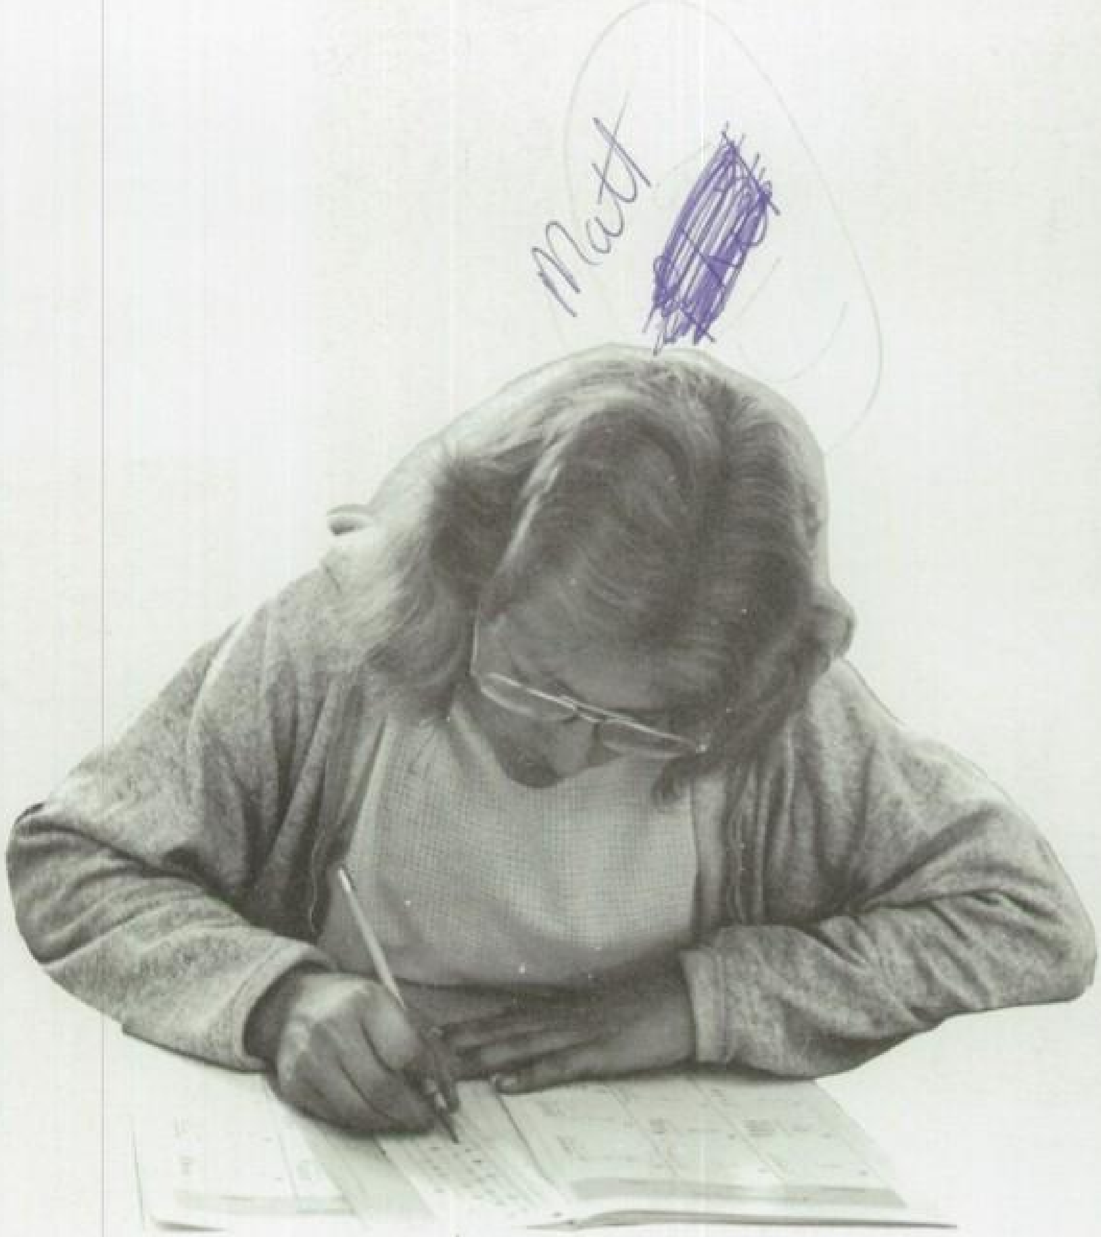
Understanding the ways of nature has always been a challenge to mankind. Some questions have been pondered for thousands of years and the answers are yet to be found. But when the answer is found, the benefits reaped can be immeasurable. The instructors in our science dept. aimed to supply their students with the knowledge needed to seek the answers. Those students who showed an interest in this field were proof that mankind's quest for answers is unending.

The Creation and Preservation of a Universe . . .

50 BUCKS — In Sex Ed., when the semester nears its end, Mrs. Mitchell brings out the game played every year called "Survival." In this game each person has a role to play. There has been a nuclear explosion, and they have to decide on who should and shouldn't live to make room for the others. Here we see the prostitute, Danysa Nickell, and the pimp, Pat Major, thinking of things to debate, as to why they should live, and the others die.

I SEE — Joanne said I SEE, as her beady little eyes grew, but Renee and Annette just couldn't understand what she was gawking at.

ENTRANCED — Mindy Smith seemed to be captivated by Mr. Kechams drab and dreary speech, while Cathy Conklin, Denise Crowder, and Sheril Bethurum were just simply bored to death.



Matt

[redacted]

TEST TIME — Matt Gould struggles his brain trying to answer the questions given on the C.T.B.S. test that was given to all ninth and tenth graders.

900,621,493,67 KILOGRAMS, 416,299,76 METERS — Slowly but surely this nation is turning to the metric way of life. The metric system is being taught all over this nation, teaching people this new way of life. Although it is not going to be easy to make the switch over sooner than we think we are going to be doing everything the metric way.

METRIC AND MILITARY SYSTEM

Future Einsteins and MacArthurs

To many Americans the meaning of the words Kilometer and Mach I are very vague. But every serious Pacific math student knew that a kilometer is a measure of distance, about 6 miles, and every R.O.T.C. cadet learned that Mach I is the speed of sound at sea level. These bits of vital information were just a couple of the mysteries of mathematics and science which were revealed, through our various math teachers and R.O.T.C. leaders, to those gifted students who cared to learn.

SPACE SHUTTLE — At left, the space shuttle is shown like it would be during the initial flight testing. At right, it is in vertical launch position for an orbital flight in space. This is the United States current manned space effort.

AWARD WINNING R.O.T.C. DRILL TEAM — Gail, Michael, Jana, and Crystal lead the team to practice for any coming parades. In back Kim watches every step she takes.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME . . .

The art of making a house a home was one which many people took for granted. The home economics students knew that it shouldn't be that way. The talent needed to bake a perfect loaf of bread, or to put a hem in a pleated skirt, had to be carefully cultivated. But courses in this department went further than just teaching basic homemaking skills. Courses concerning psychology were also taught. It was the goal of everyone involved in our Home Ec. department to keep the traditions of family life intact throughout our generation.

OWLING — Katy Fernandez became so wrapped up in the making of her owl, that she didn't even realize that school was out over three hours ago!
HOW DRY I AM — Sylvia's bowl cries HELP, HELP, SAVE ME, SAVE ME, as she innocently tries to smother it.
A STITCH IN TIME — Stitching her way through time was one of Rosa Calderon's favorite activities.

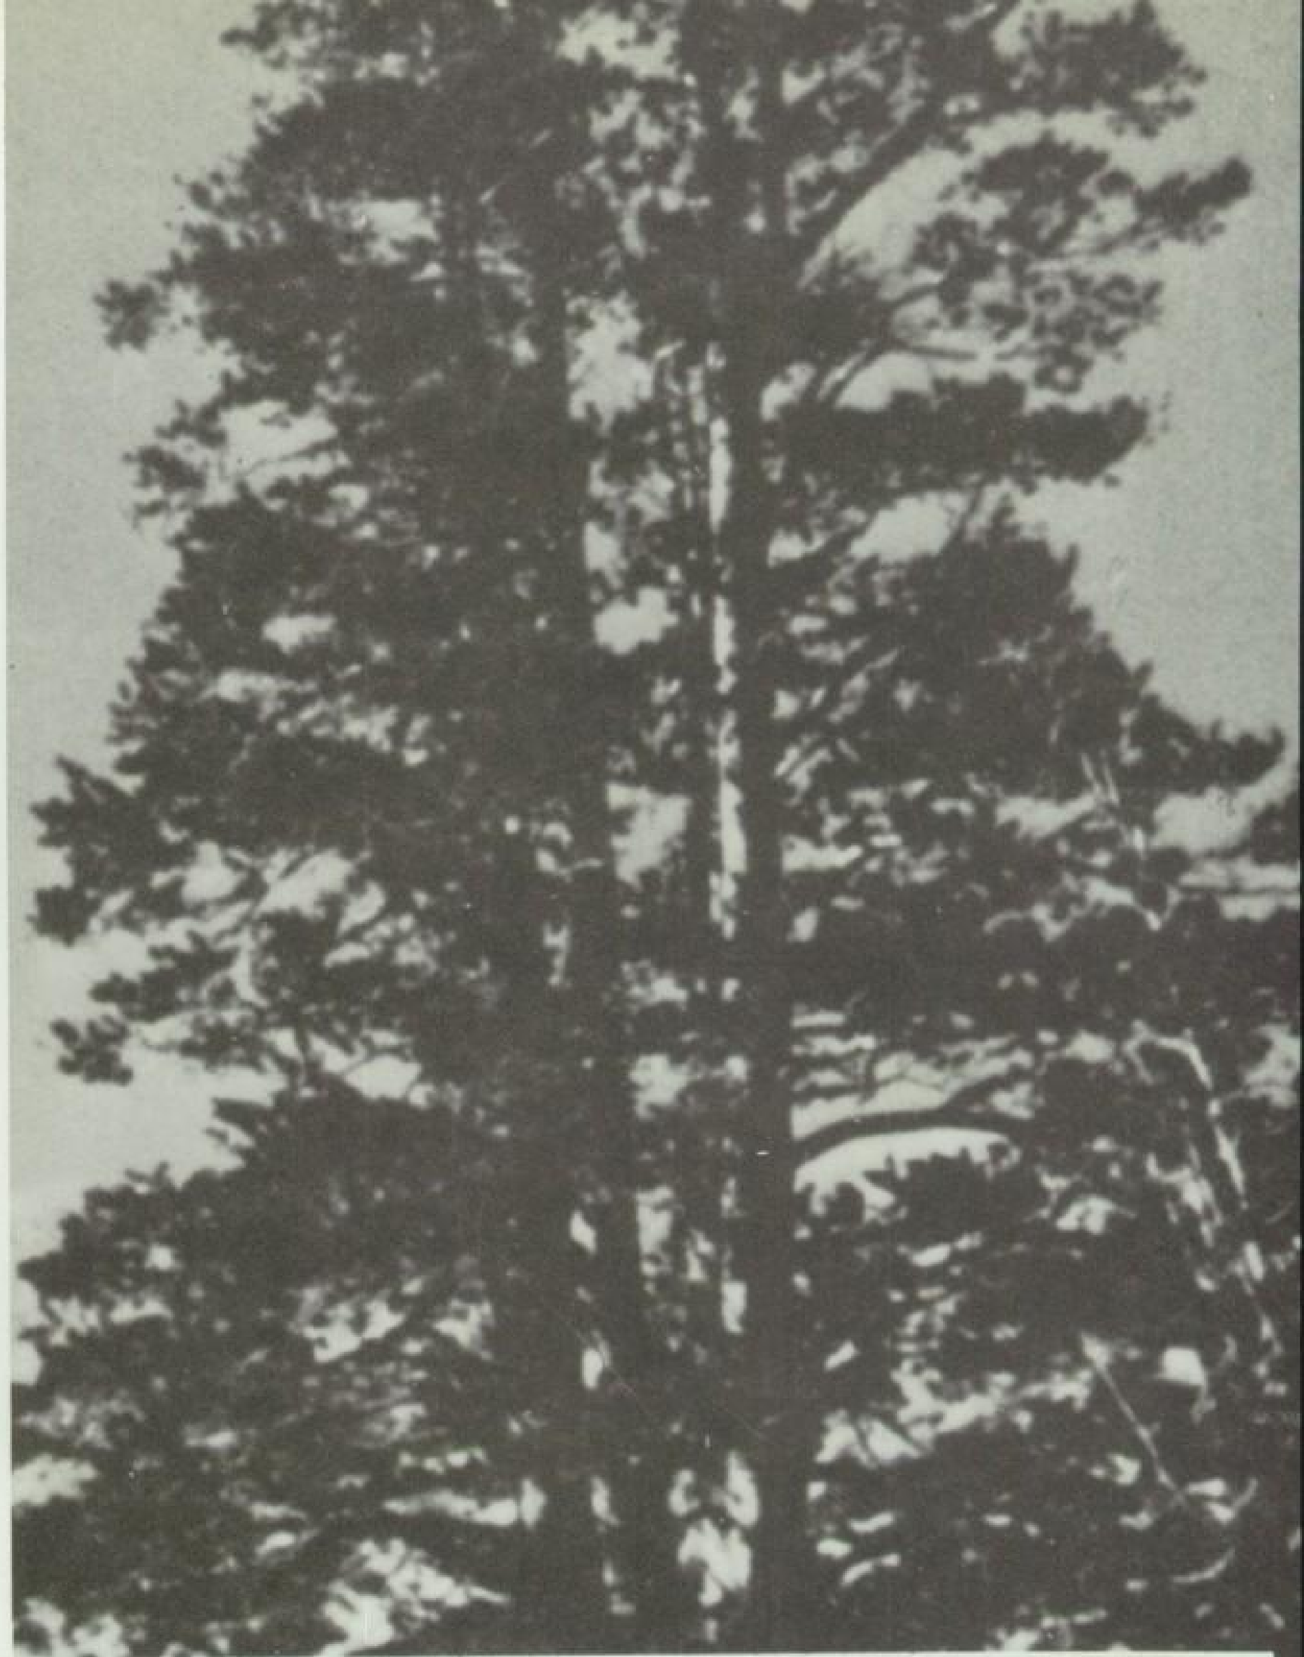
BUSINESS AS USUAL . . .

ACCOUNTING — One of Theresa Santos' favorite activities was learning how to work business machines. She just loved to punch those little buttons.

TYPING AWAY — As numbers 37 and 40 type away, Lisa Lightner daydreams about her date this weekend.

The complexity of the world in which we live makes organization a must. Those who handle our money and our records must be carefully trained. The business students of 1978-79 were prepared to become the future accountants, record keepers, and secretaries of tomorrow. To some, the language of shorthand and percentages would always remain foreign. But to those who could master these skills, the list of career opportunities became endless.

AND THEY'RE OFF — And it's a neck to neck race to the finish, with Chris DeMaio in the lead by a nose.
SERIOUS — Record Keeping was very serious business for normal people, but as you can see Julie Broadhead and Deborah Smith were not your normal, everyday people.
CHICKEN SCRATCHING — This unidentified martian hand scribbles out some unknown language, foreign to all those who do not have the master of reading shorthand.



Heading for the Hills . . .

Reaching the cluster of buildings known as "Ag." required quite a walk. But the people who took it were a special lot. They were devoted to the plants and animals who made their home on the outer edge of our campus. The rewards gained from this devotion were many. Those who gathered the harvest from the gardens, or witnessed the birth of a lamb, had an experience some people never will, and somehow this made each days walk worthwhile.

NATURE-ALLY — The students here at Pacific who had a craving for nature's beauty, were lucky enough to have the outdoor living class. They went on many trips, far into, the wilderness and deep into the woods to explore, and take part in natures beauties and wonders. On this particular hike they went deep into the hills of Mt. San Gorgonio, where the ice and snow never melt. It was a long cold trip up there, especially in the back of a truck, but it was well worth the experience. The air was clean, the fishing was good as you can see by the beautiful rainbows caught by Steve Robinson. But most of all, they were alone. It was just them, the bears, and mother nature.

SPECIAL MOMENTS WITH AG . . .

A NEW BEGINNING — Only a few people witnessed the birth of this new spanky lamb Ag. proudly called Joey.
WORKING HARD — Sue Soloman, Karrie Faris, Piper Collins, and Cathy Baker were usually left to do most of the dirty work, but still, they were happy to be a part of Ag.

MYSTIFIED — Brett said, "I know you're up here somewhere."

Art: A Form of Expression . . .

BEING CREATIVE — Taking time to mix some paint in the art class, seems to be a quiet time of the day for Kathy Krabil.
SMILING BIG — Being in ceramics makes school worthwhile for Virginia Diggle.
M-I-C-K-E-Y M-O-U-S-E — Being as cute as he is, Mickey hung around in E-2 with all the other piñatas made by the students in Mr. Garcia's class.

Art, in its many different forms, has been enjoyed for thousands of years. It brings enjoyment in two ways, the satisfaction of the artist and the pleasure of the viewer. Pacific offered many different courses in art, ranging from crafts to ceramics. Each one in its own way gave students a chance to create and enjoy the creations of others.

n this complex world of ours eing able to do car repairs, lectrical work, and minor home epairs is a desirable trait. Pacific's various shop classes rovided this knowledge. There ere also drafting and metal orking shops, preparing future rchitects and welders. ur shop was considered o be the best in the district, nd constantly improving, this ear by the addition of a new 8,500 machine, which checks the nition system in a car.

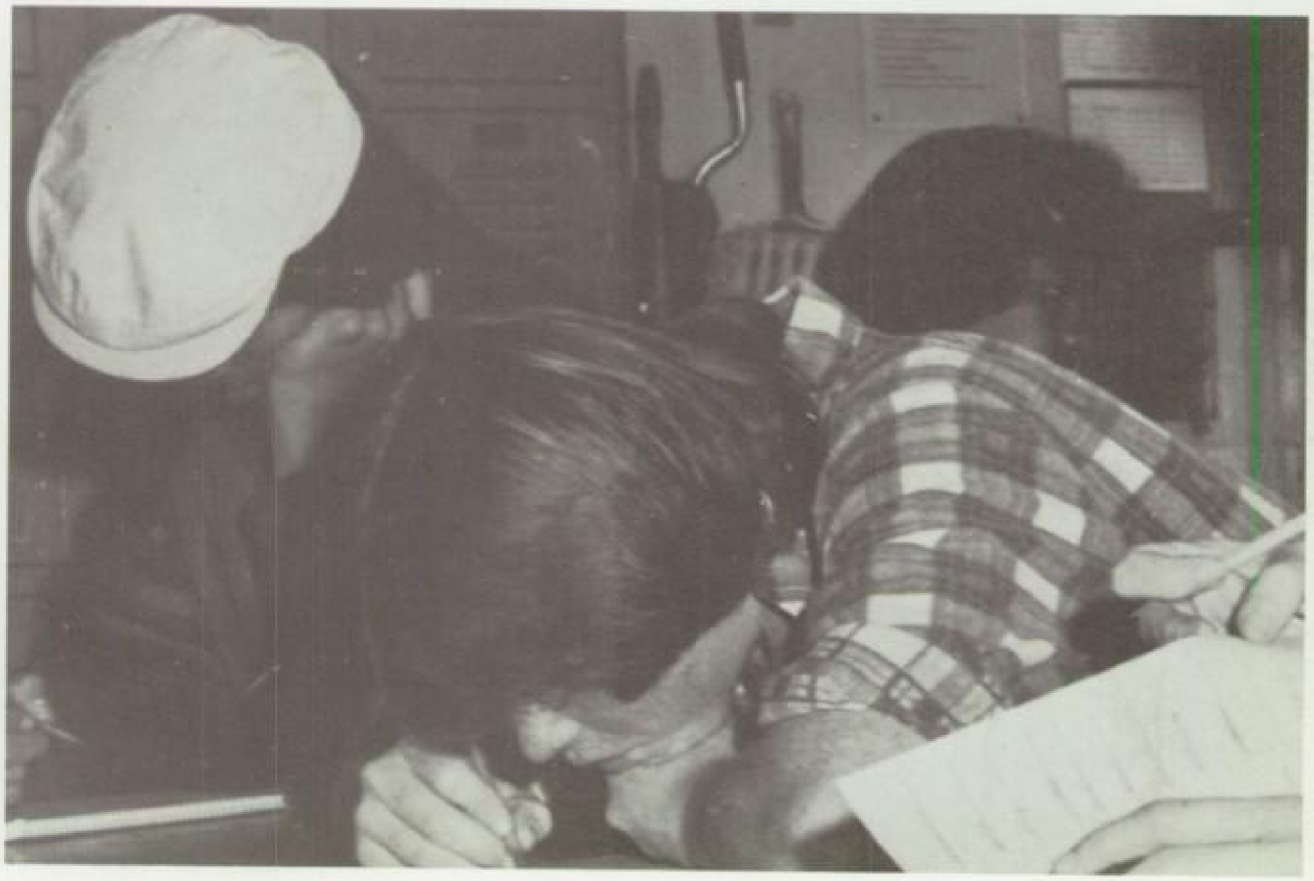
THE MASTERING OF MAN'S MACHINES . . .

LEISURE TIME — After a hard days work in auto shop it's usually break time for Dana Manjarrez, Reynaldo Levario, Dale Schillero, Jim Frye and Bob Bennett.

DOODLING — In metal shop we couldn't tell if Jeff Smith was really working or just sleeping.

GREASE MONKEY — Living under a car gets to be hectic for Bob Bennett, especially when he thinks of better things he could be doing.

TAKING A BITE — While in drafting Jim Plunk usually found more enthused with his lollipop than his work.



The Greatest Show on Earth
ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE

SMILE YOU'RE ON CANDID CAMERA — David DeLeon and Chuck Carter were showng what they could do with t.v. work shops cameras. (left)
ONE MORE TIME — Mr. Gallardo and his dance class ran through their new dance rouine.
HEY, IS IT WORKING? — While testing out he mic. Chuck Carter was teased by his classmates.
COULD IT BE MAGIC — The cast of the Magic Toy Box enjoyed acting in this Christmas special.
LIGHT AS A FEATHER — This little ballerina shows her talent in the play The Magic Toy Box.

The entertainment industry is one of the largest in the U.S. People have a need to be entertained, and many have a need to perform, to show their talents, in dance, drama, and backstage productions.

The needs of Pacific's extroverts were met by the performing arts department, under the direction of Miss Stathis, Sr. Gallardo, and Mr. McPeck, and the masses were kept entertained.

THAT'S DISGUSTING — Gaye Evans gives a look of sheer astonishment to see such a performance going on in front of her with that fresh old Tito Costakes and Lisa Ingro.

O SAY CAN YOU SEE — Chorus was supposed to be serious business, but somehow Cheryl Beeman and Sabrina Tomlinson always found a way to stick a smile into it.

LITTLE LOST LAMB — When Mr. Will gets into that chorus room he just loses all sense of direction and wanders around aimlessly, but somehow, through it all, he came out with a fantastic sounding choir.

Throughout history music has been a source of pleasure and comfort to man. Those who provide this music do so in many ways, with instruments simple and complex. The simplest being the gift of song. Hundreds of students at Pacific belonged to one or more of Mr. Will's choirs. Some were blessed with a natural talent for singing, and others just truly enjoyed the chance to get together as a group and raise their voices in song. Either way the music which exuded from room M-2 was a special part of life at Pacific.

Musicians Extraordinair

Musical talent is a most special quality. Pacific's music department wanted to make sure that each musician could find a place where he or she felt comfortable. Three very specialized music groups helped to fulfill this goal. These were Wind Ensemble and Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Anzelmo, and Stage Band, under the direction of Mr. Will. Each was composed of very talented musicians, and the music they made gave a special touch to homecoming rallies, fashion shows, and many other special events.

OP TO IT — Sometimes Mr. Anzelmo got so nvolved in directing the band that he felt as if e could take a flying leap and soar around he room.

DETERMINED — Greg Ulmer had grown so attached and so determined to stay in the band room that it took 10 bulldozers to moved him out, even after school had dismissed for the year.

The automobile plays a major part in the lives of many Americans. Pacific High recognized this fact, and so the Driver's Education program was established. Although a fortunate few had the family car as a means of transportation, most students found themselves in need of a job to finance a car. That's where Pacific's Career center fit into the picture. The ladies here did their best to find employment for hundreds of students throughout the year.

Together . . .

We Did It All

As the year 1978-79 came to an end, we, the senior class of 1979 paused to reflect on the years past. We had been together 4 years, having entered as the first freshman class at Pacific. Filled with challenges (ice cream eating contests), artistic endeavors (floats), and exaltation (finally, Coach Hoak and a winning team), the years passed with incredible speed. We made our way into Baily Bowl on June 13, filled with so many different emotions. Our years at Pacific were over, leaving us with memories of good times and good friends. But the future loomed ahead, holding for each of us more challenges and exaltations, and we were anxious to begin.

THE FINAL LEADERS OF A FABULOUS CLASS

CLASS DEBATE — A disturbed Beverly Clayton tries to make a point at a class officers meeting while Mr. Havemann takes notes.

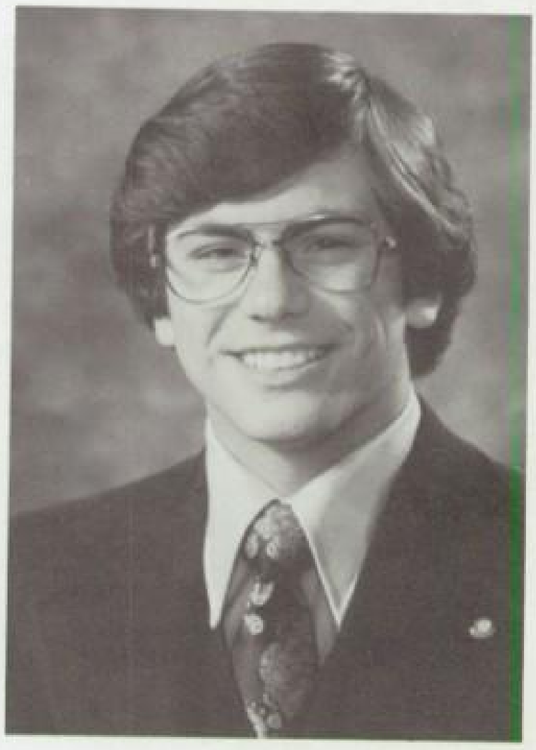
SR. CLASS PRESIDENT — Gary Mitchell.



The job of the senior class officers and their sponsers was to plan the finale, the various events which marked the end of the Class of 1979's years at Pacific. These included Baccalaureate, Senior Week, and Graduation. They polled the entire class for ideas for the class song, motto, and gift. Gary Mitchell, as class president, also had the honor of leading the class at graduation. All in all, they did a fantastic job, assuring that the Senior Class of 1979 would never be forgotten.

A Song, a Motto a Theme, and a Week to Be Remembered Always

A STAR, A LEADER, A STUDENT, A FRIEND

Ray Davis was not your typical senior. He was though, a typical model senior. He was our star basketball player. As president of B.S.U. he led a good number of Pacific students. And finally, he was the kind of guy who many people were proud to have as a friend.

SMILING SENIORS — Ray Davis and Richard Wiggins posed for a friendly picture.
PSYCHIC WIZARD — Ray Davis carefully studies the difference of the co-sign of a paper clip and a ruler.
UP FOR TWO — After a well thought out plan of attack Ray takes a chance of making a basket.
PRESIDENTIAL DUTIES — One of the many responsibilities Ray undertook was B.S.U. President.

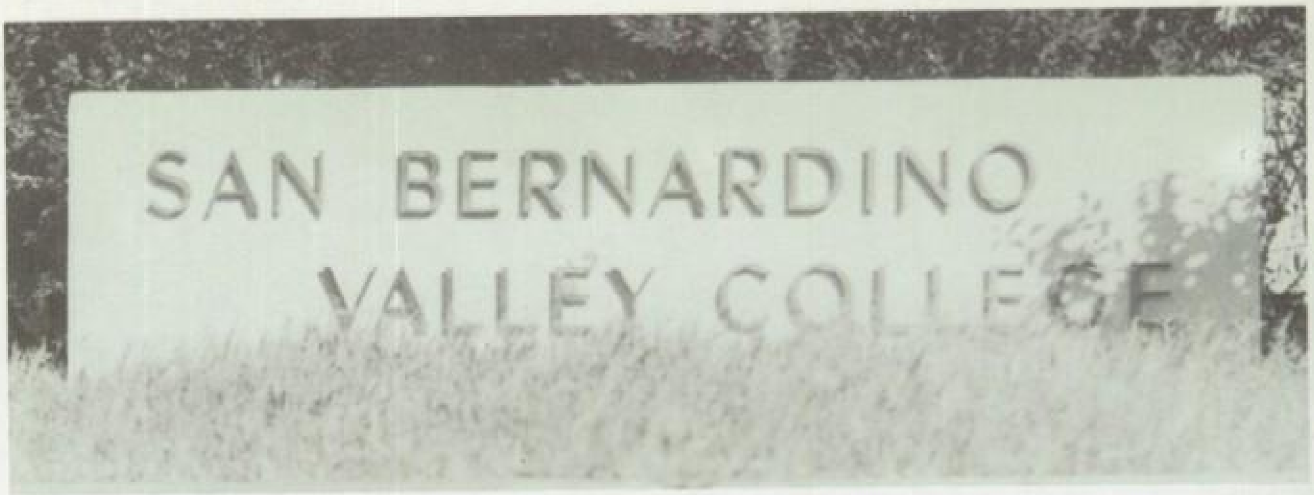
THE DAY TO DAY LIFE OF A WETHEAD

The rumor that Richard Wiggins had webbed feet was untrue. He just happened to be more at home in the pool than any place else. Oh sure, he enjoyed other things also. He loved Stieners parties, and was an active quadsitter. But close friends of his knew that he never really felt at ease with his hair dry.

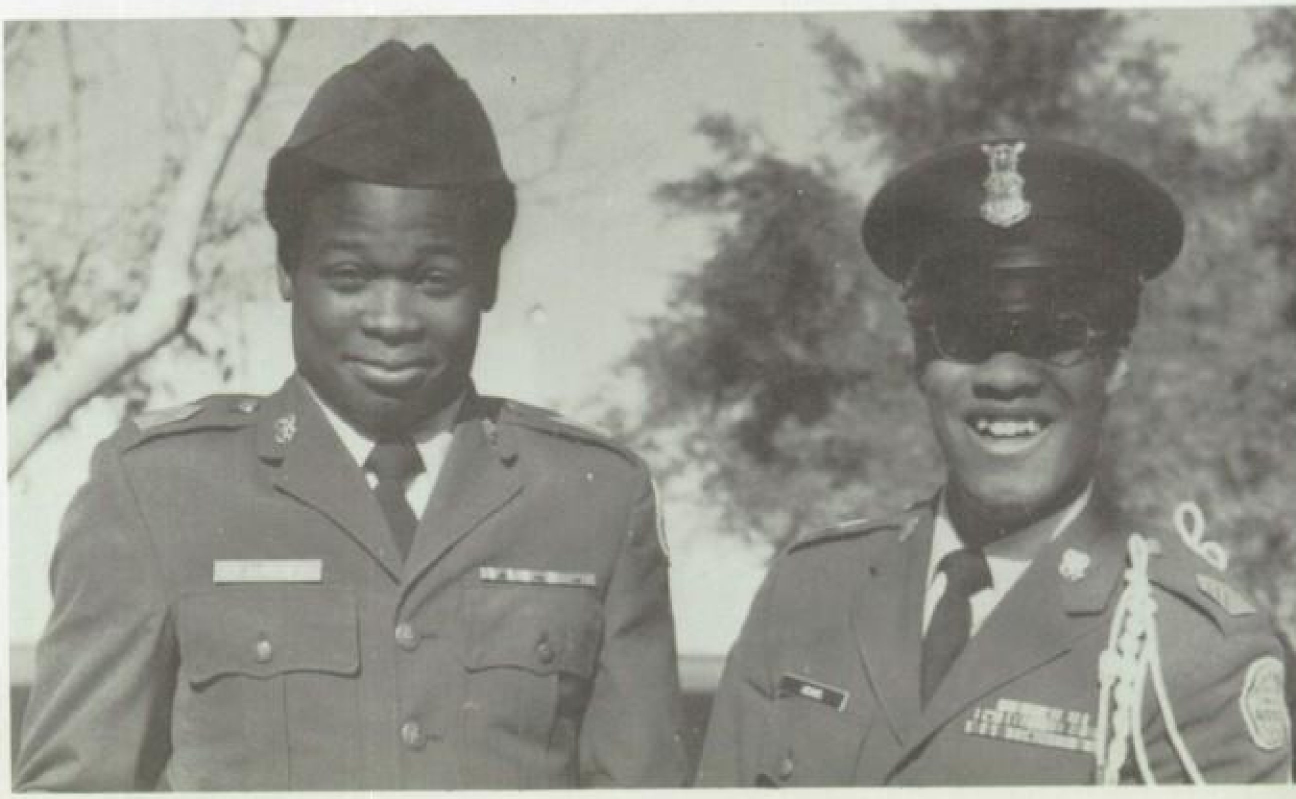
BOUNTIFUL BACKS — Richard and Ray display their treasured letterman's jackets.
WHAT A HAM — Richard would do anything to get his picture taken.
WATER WIGGY STRIKES AGAIN — Proving that the pool was his second home, Richard flew through the air while doing the butterfly stroke.
WONDERING WIGGY — It was tuff to be a senior and sometimes Richard took time out of his busy day to think about what lay ahead of him.



THE HEADACHE OF THE S.A.T.

Being a senior was the ultimate. Right? Right. Being a senior was all fun and games. Right? Wrong. For in between the parties, the senior forums, and the days at Snow Valley, came the taking of the Scholastic Aptitude Test, or S.A.T. and, the chant heard throughout the room was, "I was supposed to have learned this?"

MOUNT VERNON TECH — The site of the dreaded day, San Bernardino Valley College.
THE JUDGEMENT DAY — The planning of a senior's future depended on a cold Saturday morning.
AFTER THE S.A.T. — Roger Johnson and Ron Adams had mixed emotions about their S.A.T. scores.



A QUESTION OF NEED

Everybody is entitled to an education, and public schools give all children a chance to receive one. But, once 13 years had been completed and the diploma was in hand, many students still had a desire to learn more. They wanted to go on to college. With the help of Mrs. Taylor and the scholarship committee, every serious senior was assured the necessary funds, whether through local scholarships, federal grants, student loans, and various other means.

EPER OF THE FUNDS — The hard work-head of the scholarship committee, Mrs.
ylor.
E FIRING SQUAD — Prominent citizens
re among the interviewing committee.

A TEST OF COURAGE — A nervous Leatrice Williams was interviewed by a number of community leaders including Mr. Lackner.

THE THREE MUSKATEERS — Grouped together for a planned attack were the three muskateers; Mindy, Michelle, and Valerie.
READY, AIM, FIRE! — Editor-in-Chief, Susan Plaut, could think of no better way to take out her aggressions than to bomb some poor unsuspecting soul with a snowball.

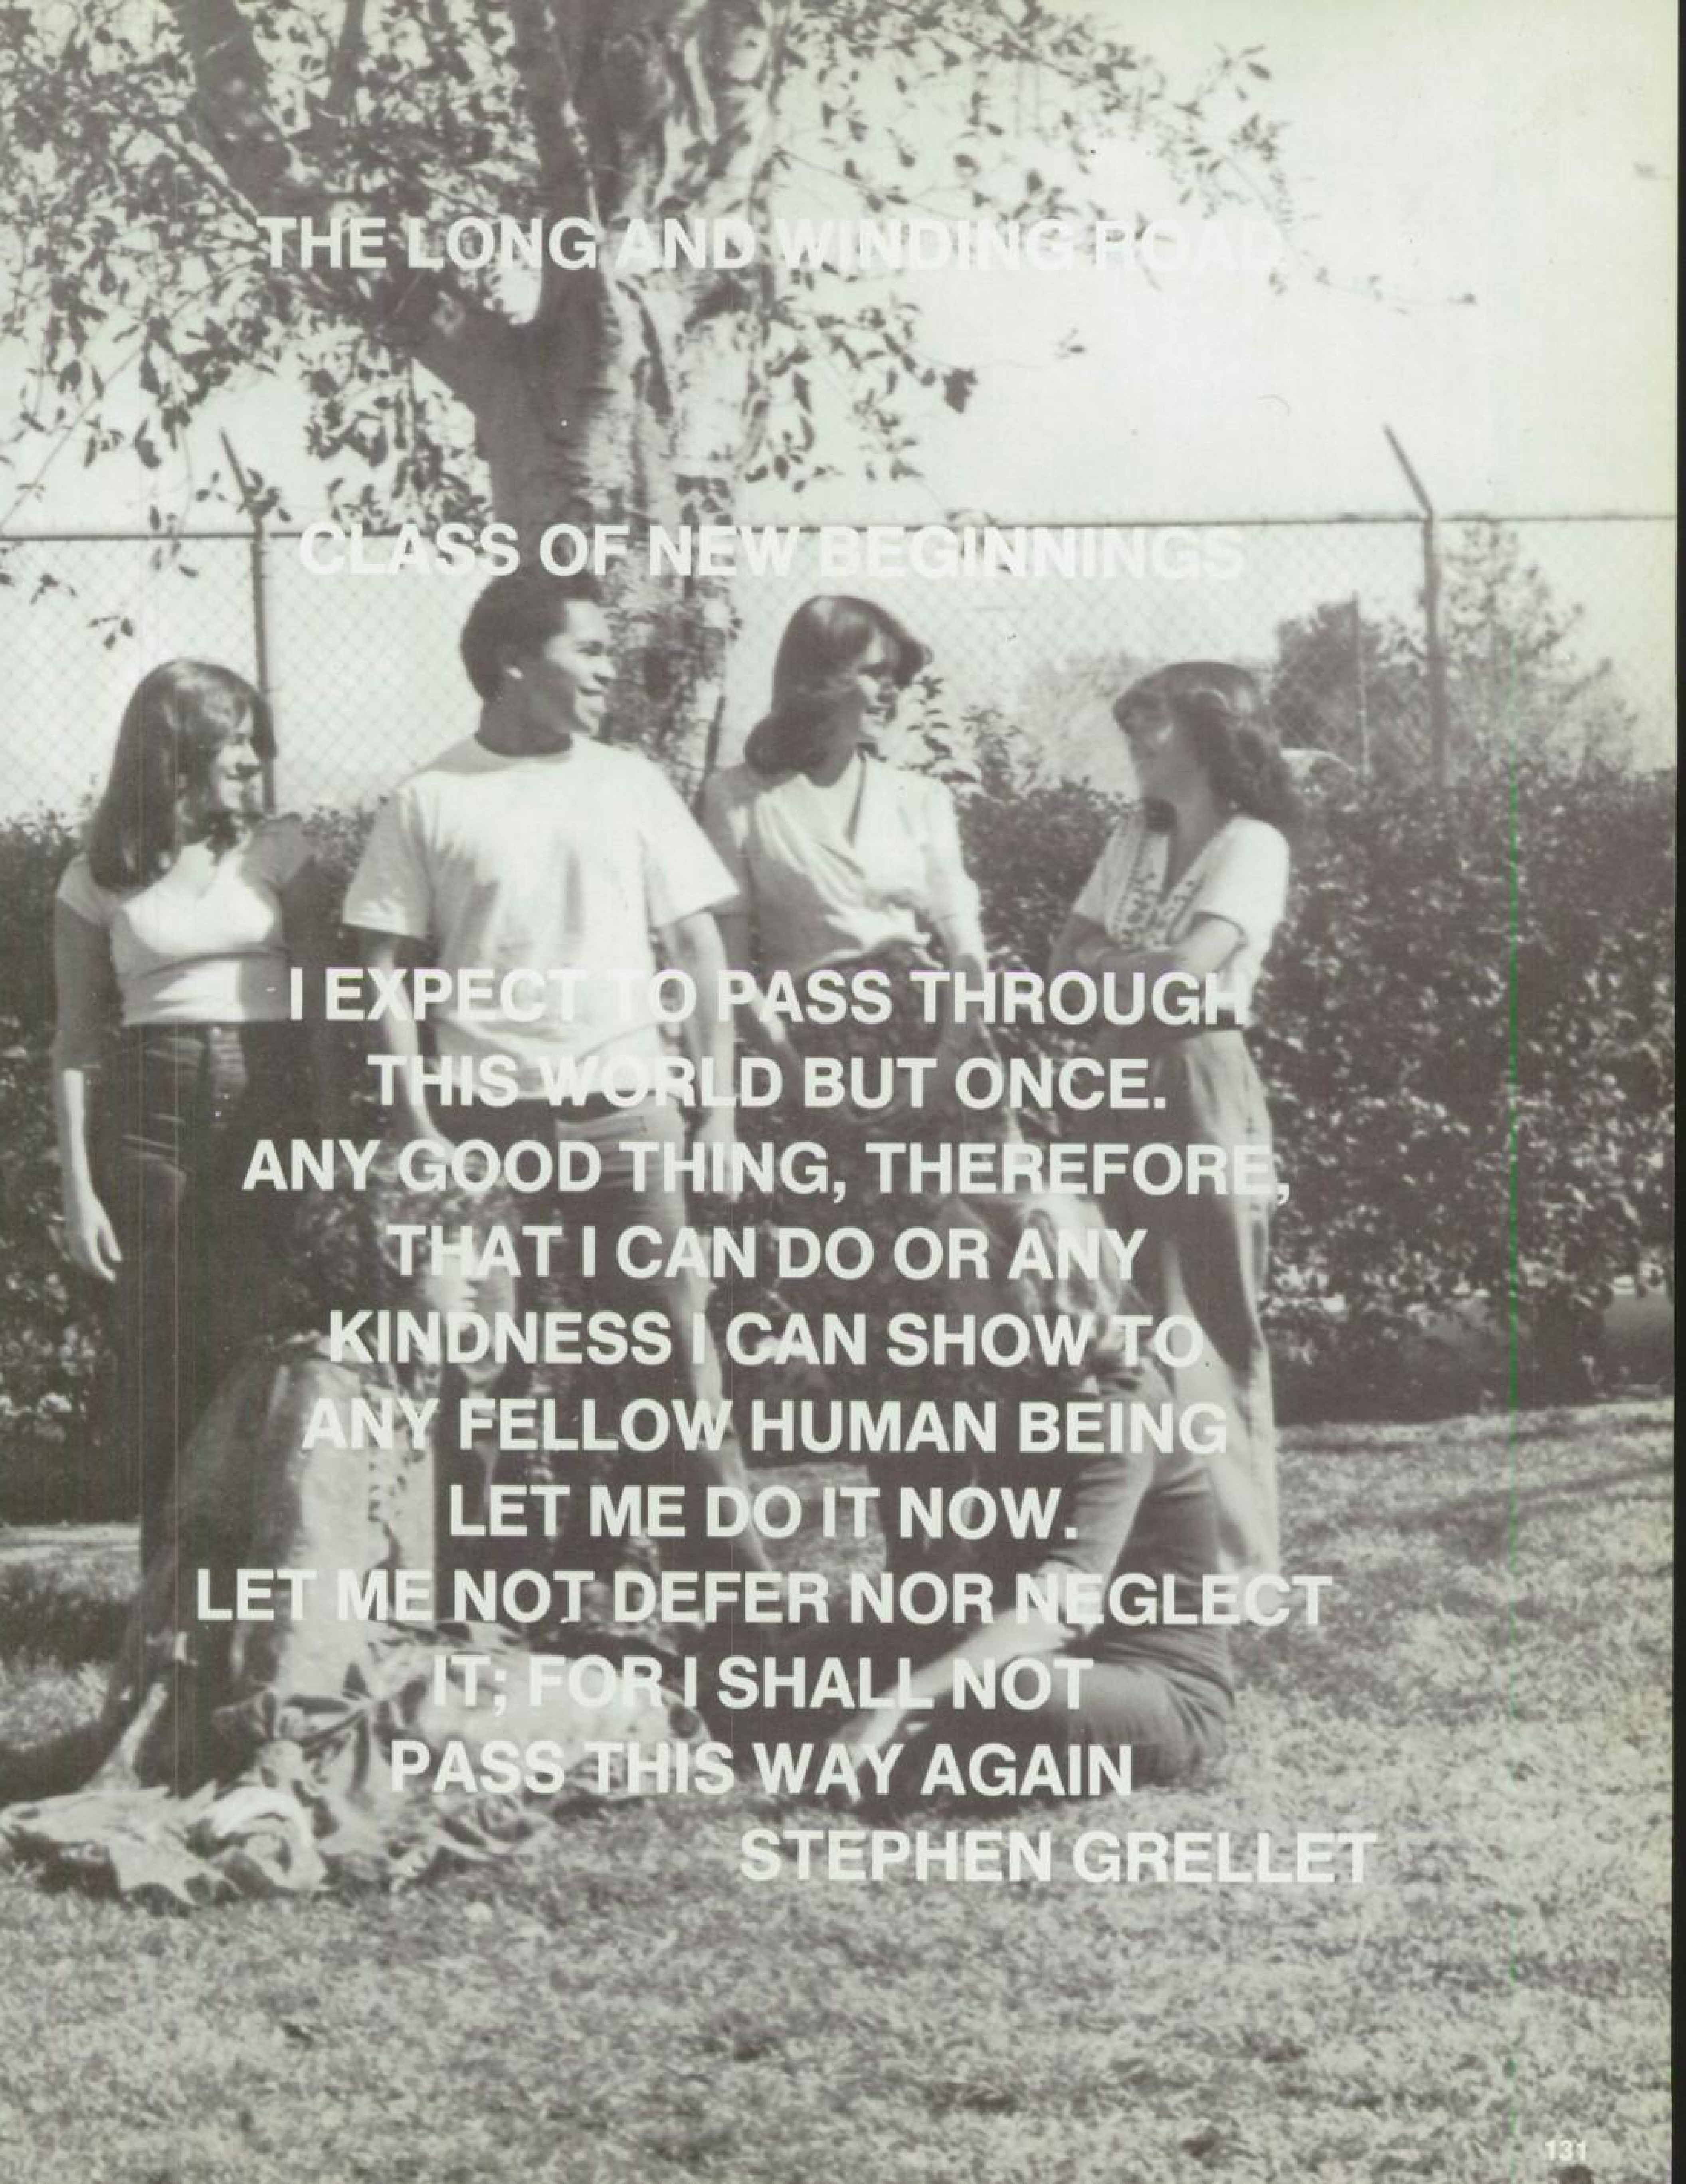
AN AIR OF SOLEMNITY

The Sunday evening preceding graduation, a very special ceremony took place. It was a tradition known as Baccalaureate. The Class of 1979 assembled together in the gym and assumed a certain air of solemnity. Following hymns and speeches, each senior lit a candle from the same flame and the glow which illuminated the gym floor that evening will be remembered by us forever.

YOU'RE PULLING MY LEG — An obstinate Susan Plaut literally had to have her leg pulled by Denise Crowder, while Karen Katz looked on, to attend Baccalaureate.
ON THEIR WAY — Mike Omarzu and Nancy Bargmann stopped for a picture on their way to Baccalaureate.
SENIOR PLAZA — While everyone was participating in Baccalaureate Services, the usually crowded Senior Plaza, was empty.



THE LONG AND WINDING ROAD

CLASS OF NEW BEGINNINGS

I EXPECT TO PASS THROUGH
THIS WORLD BUT ONCE.
ANY GOOD THING, THEREFORE,
THAT I CAN DO OR ANY KINDNESS I CAN SHOW TO ANY FELLOW HUMAN BEING
LET ME DO IT NOW.
LET ME NOT DEFER NOR NEGLECT
IT; FOR I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

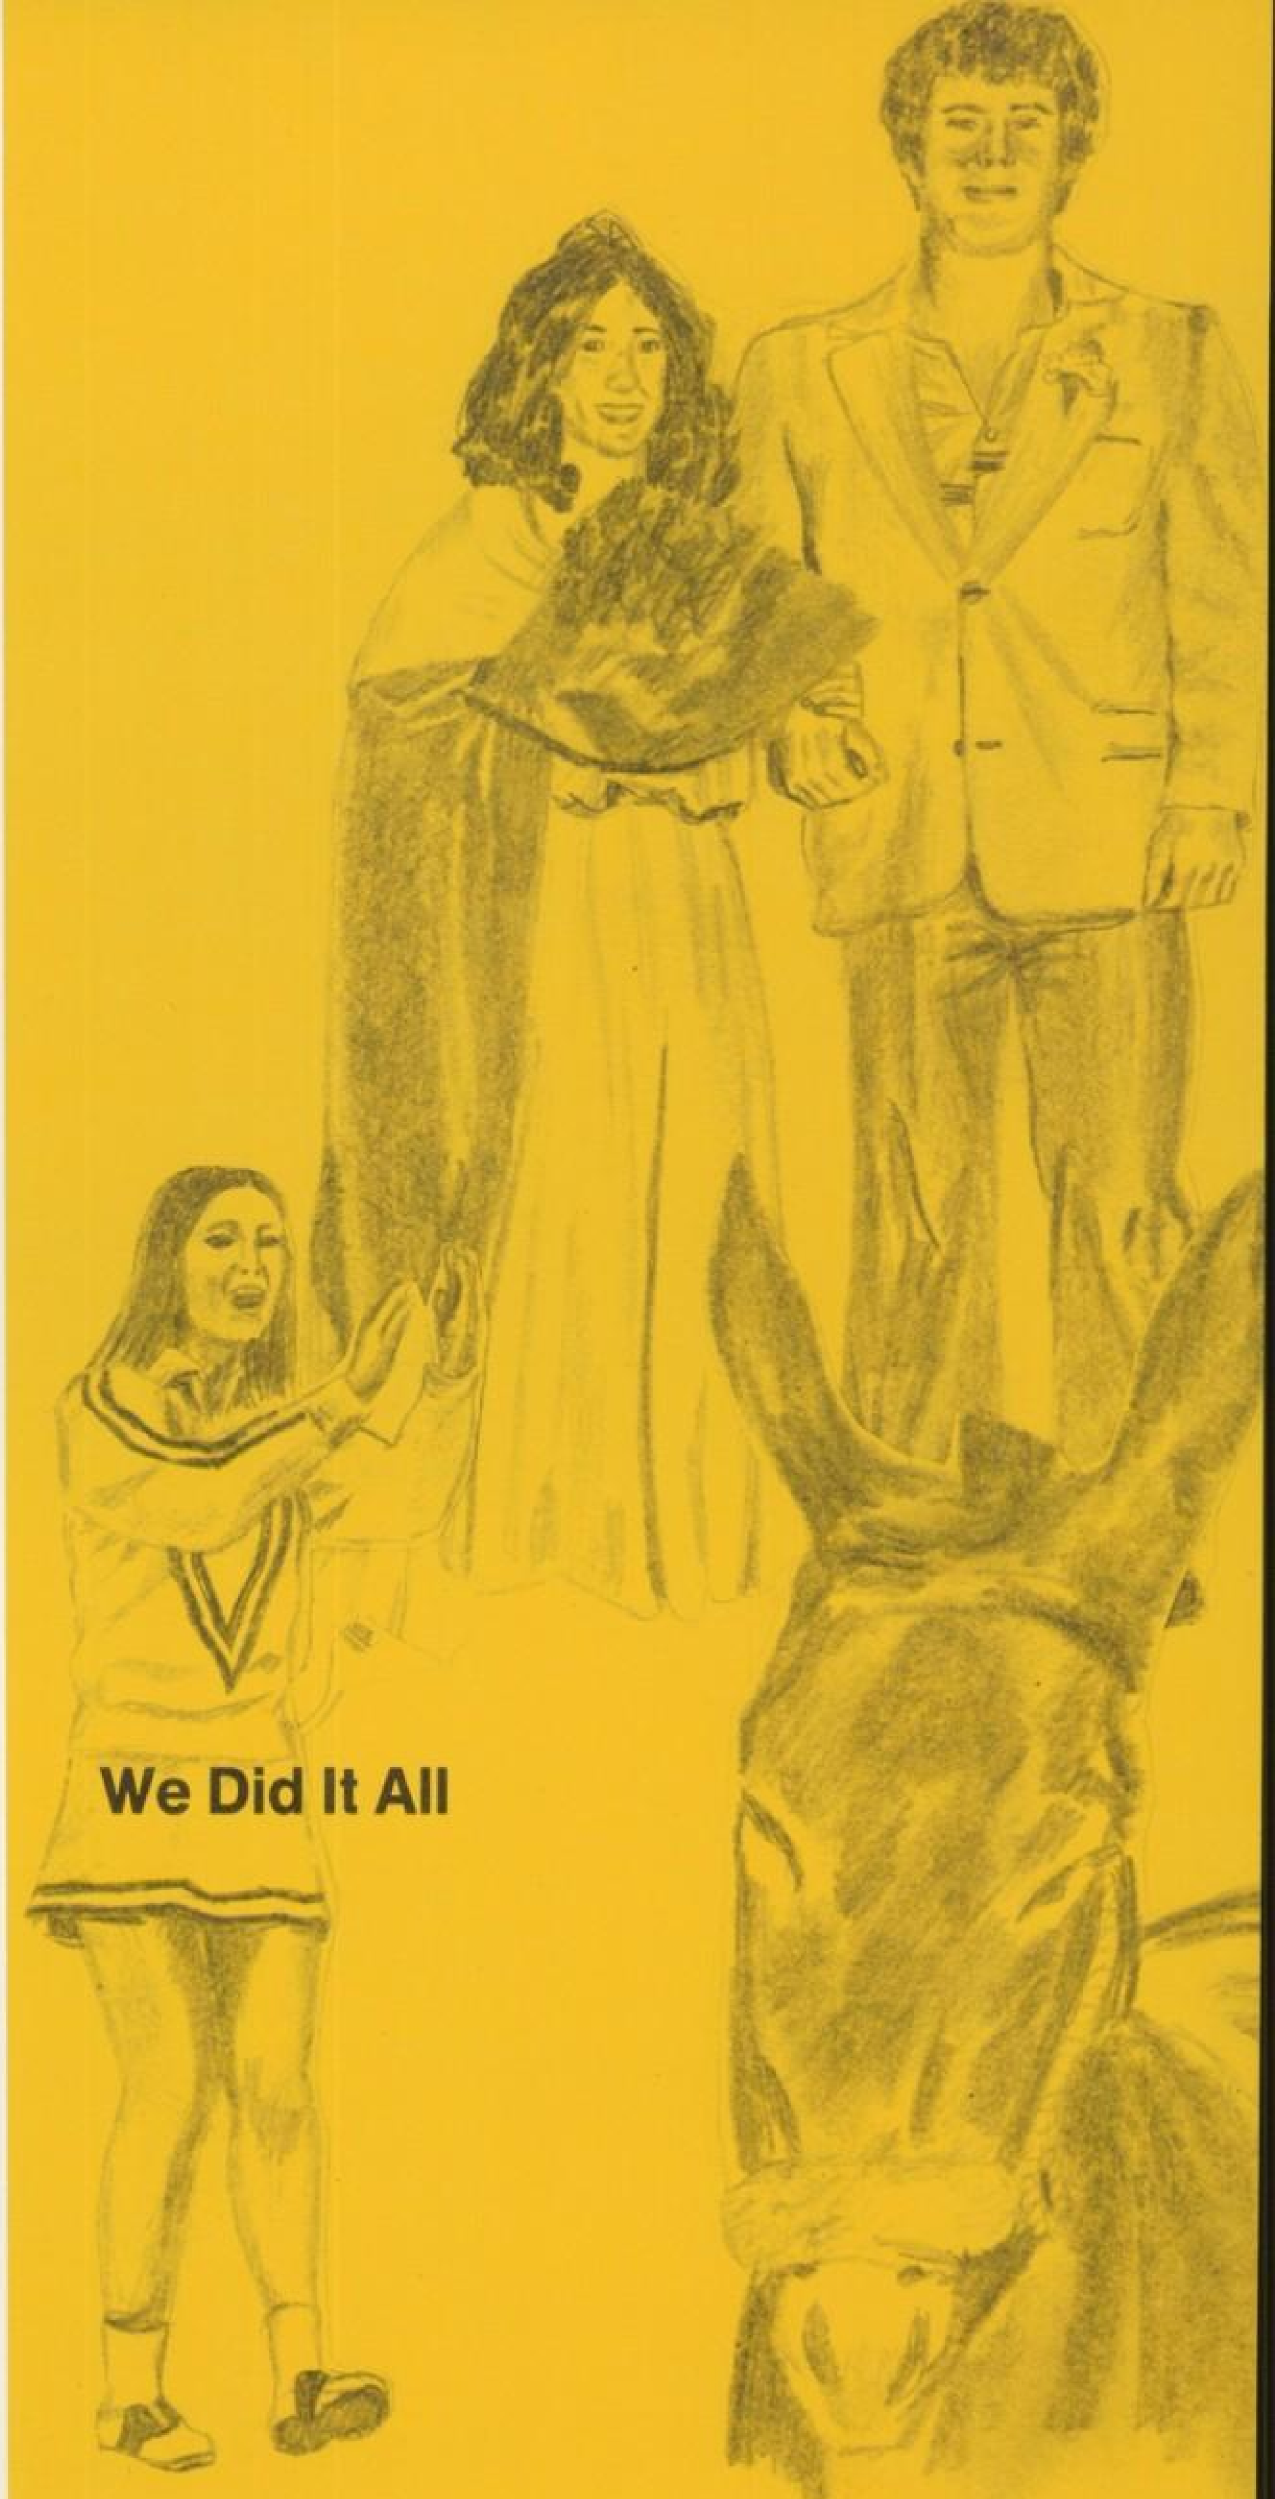
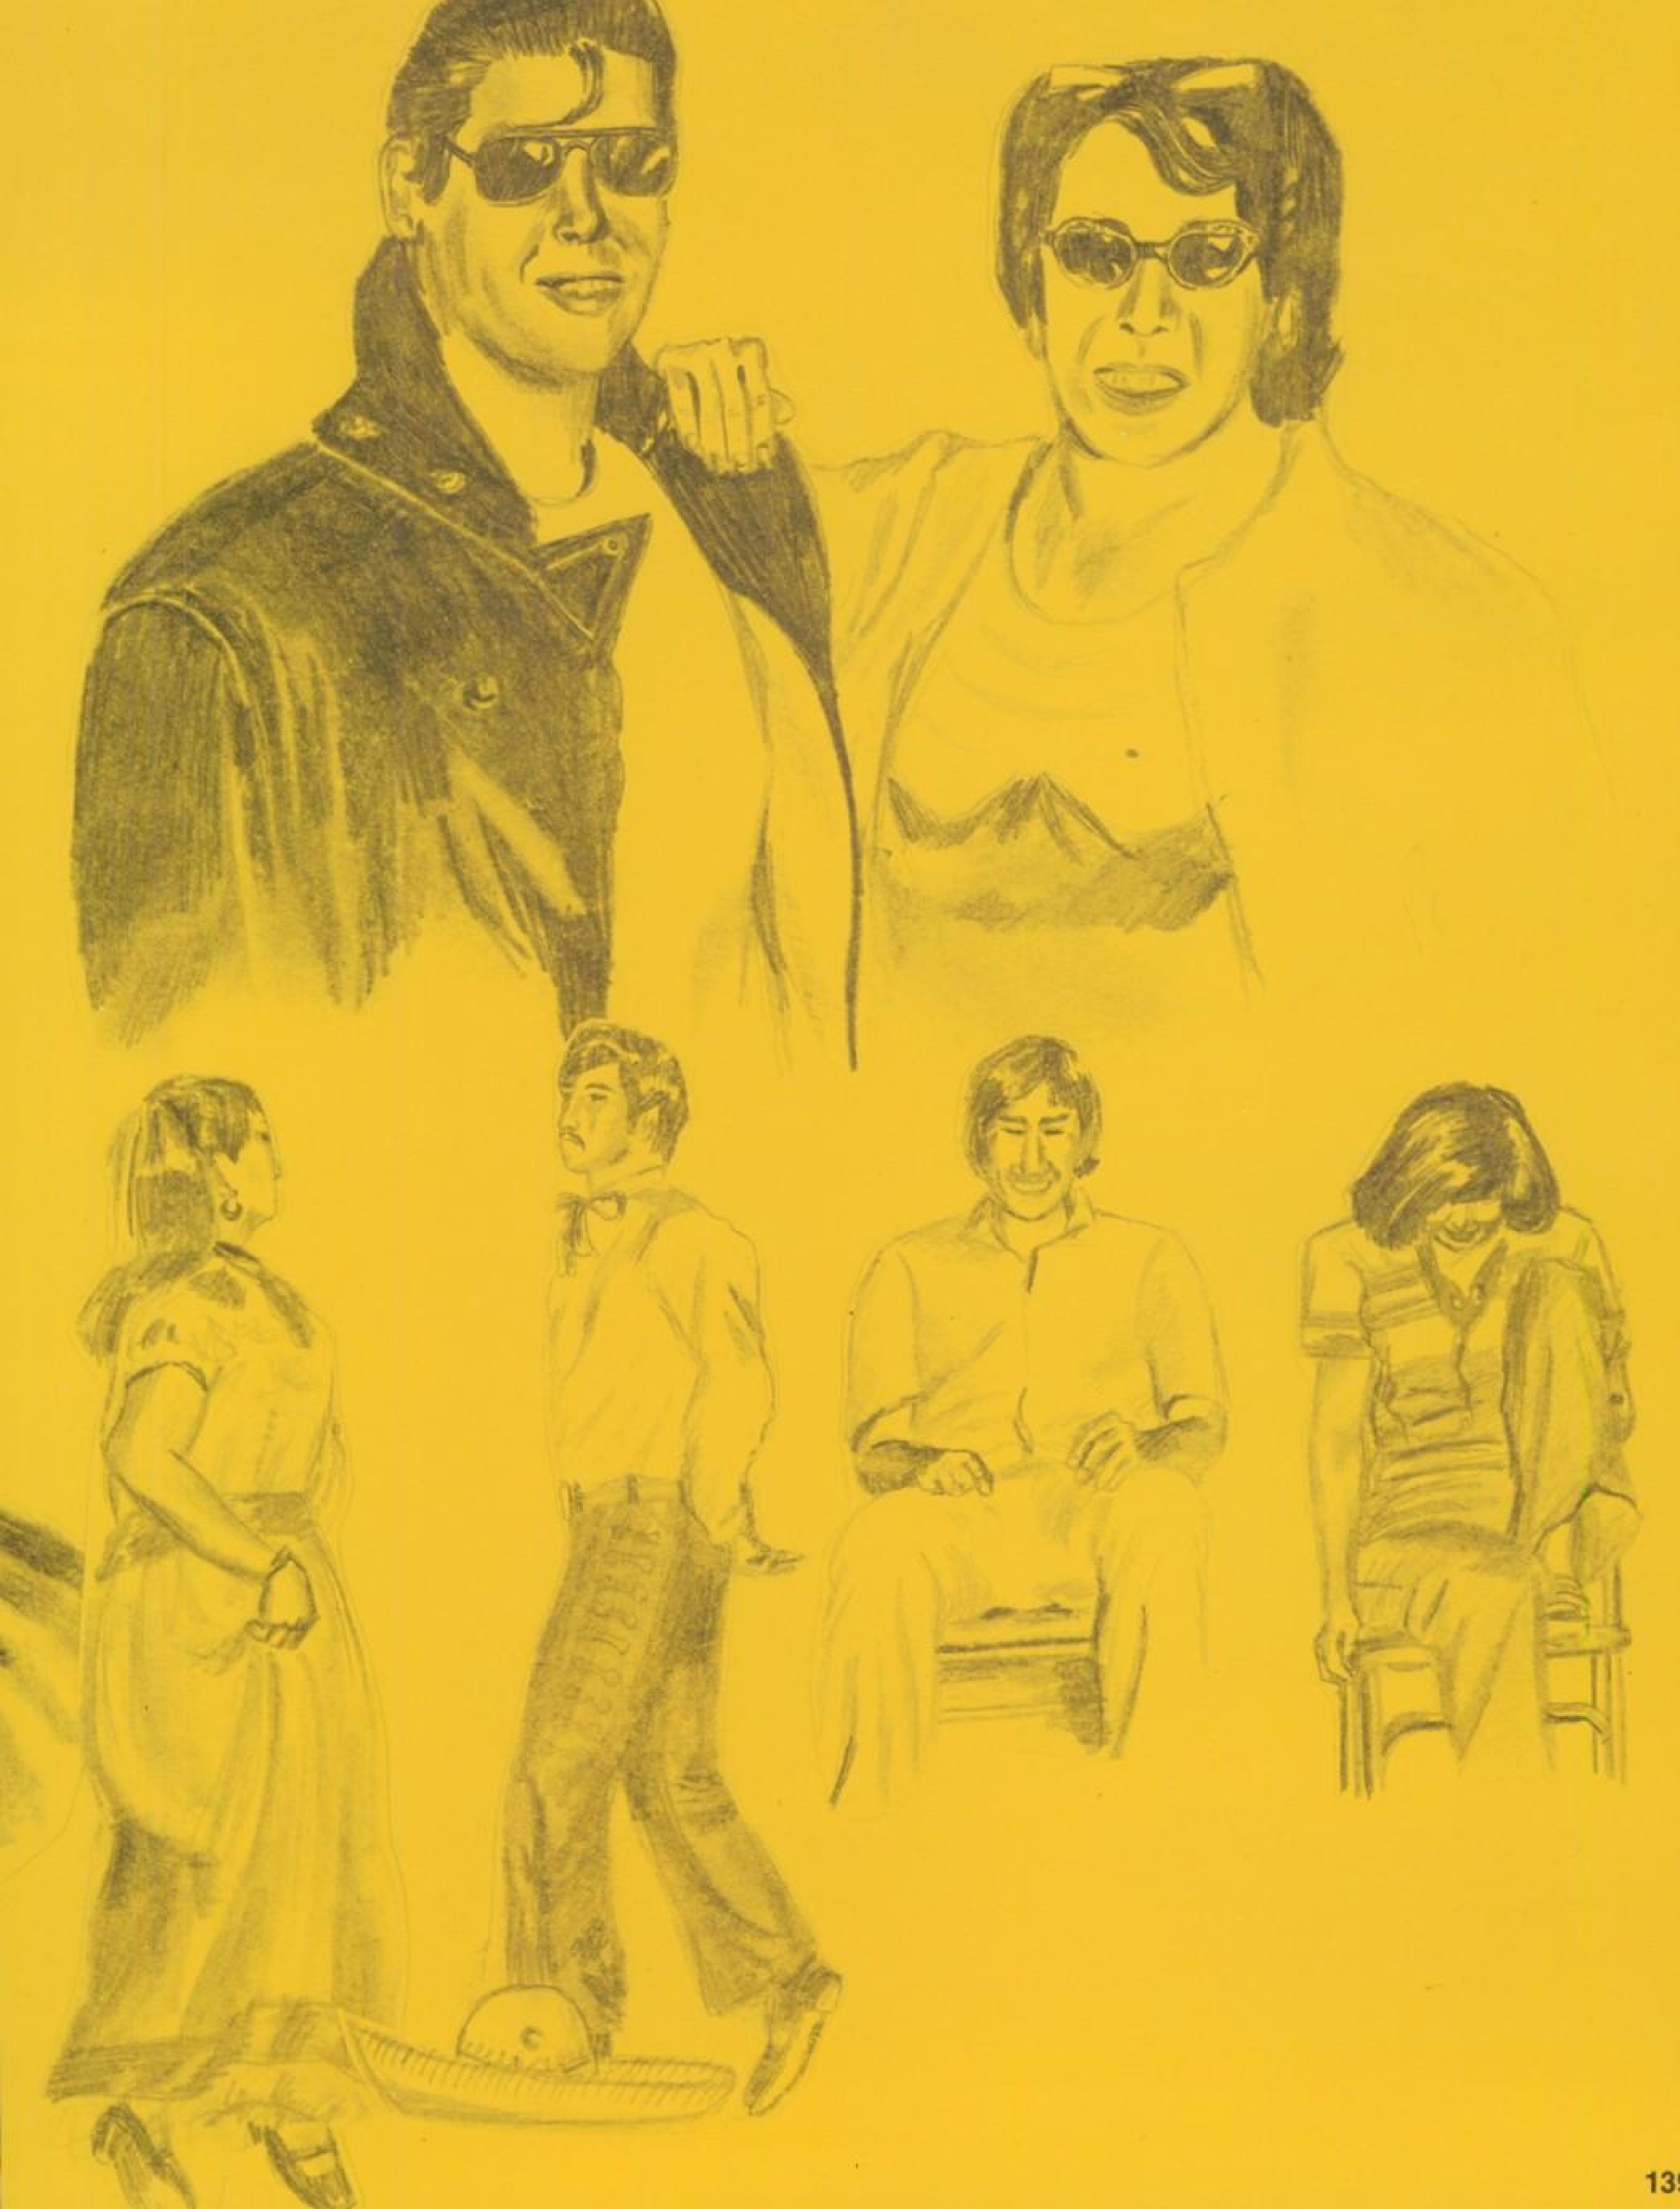
Together . . . We Did It All

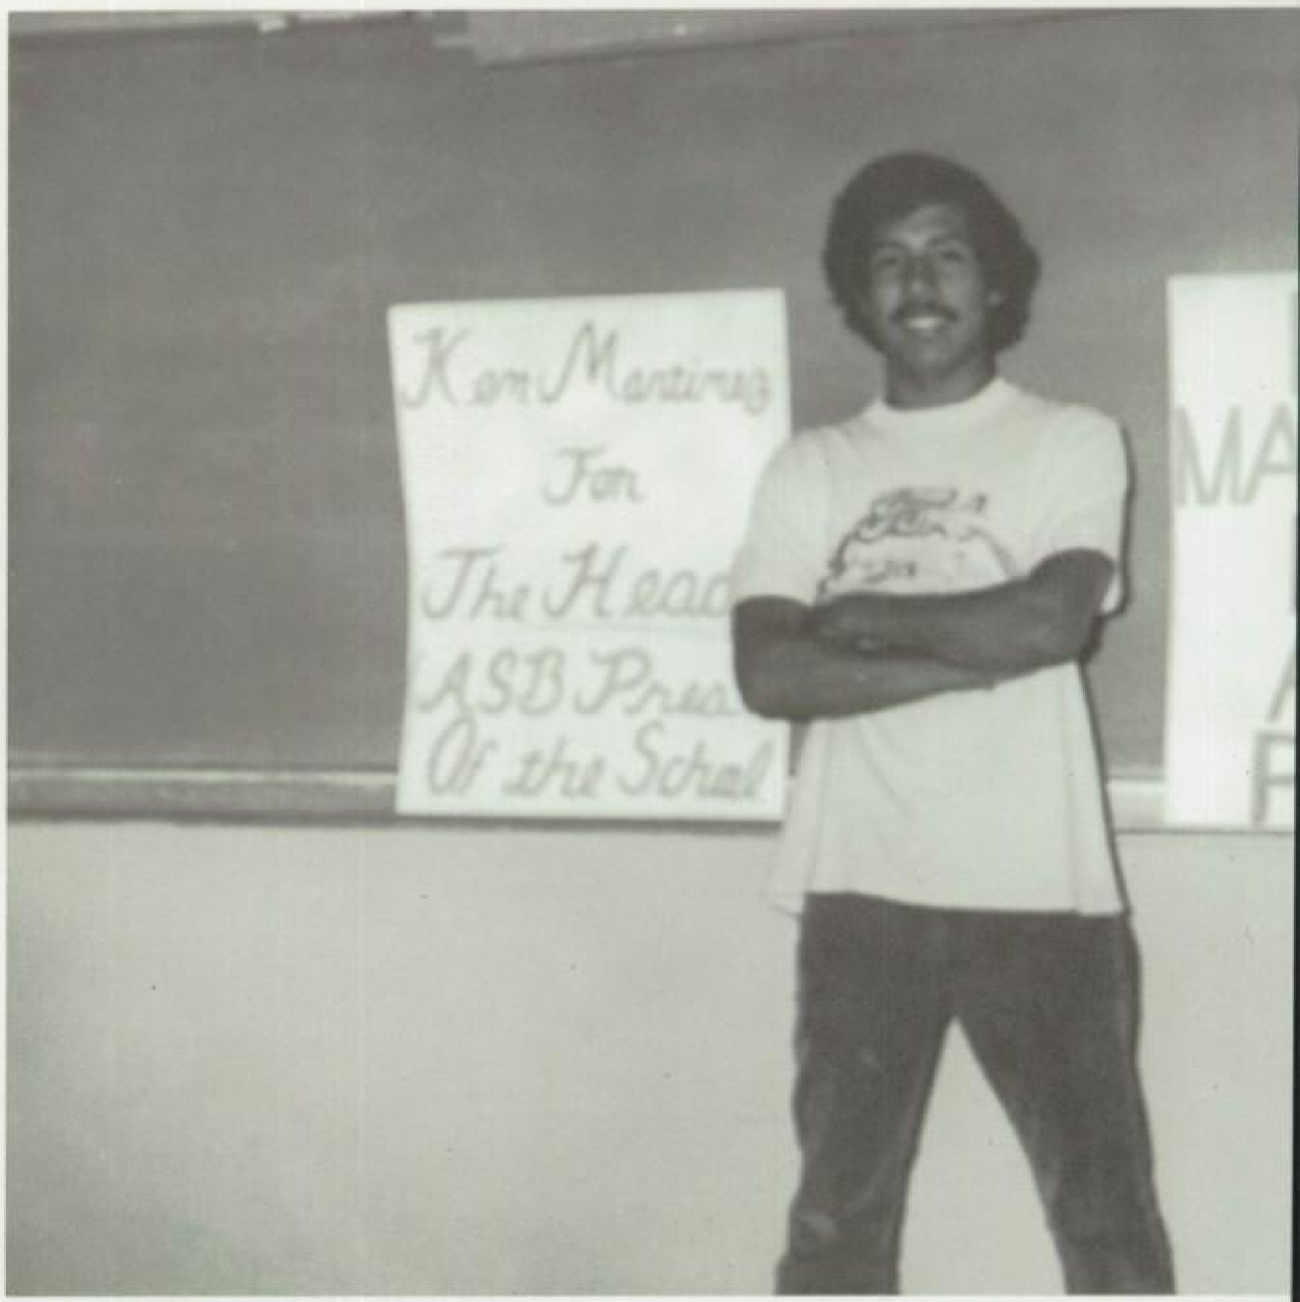
Our years at Pacific were made up of a great variety of experiences — experiences in learning, in relating to others, and in becoming in touch with ourselves as individuals. Although many of these experiences took place in a classroom, a great many were centered around the extra-curricular activities which took place here at Pacific. Rallies, games, dances — these were the activities which broke up the sometimes monotonous academic regimen, and brought us closer to each other as together we did it all.

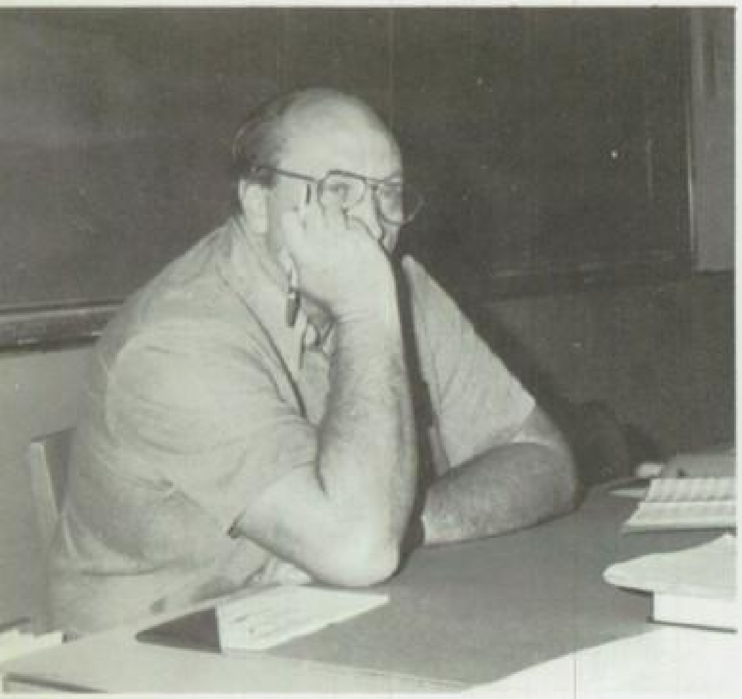


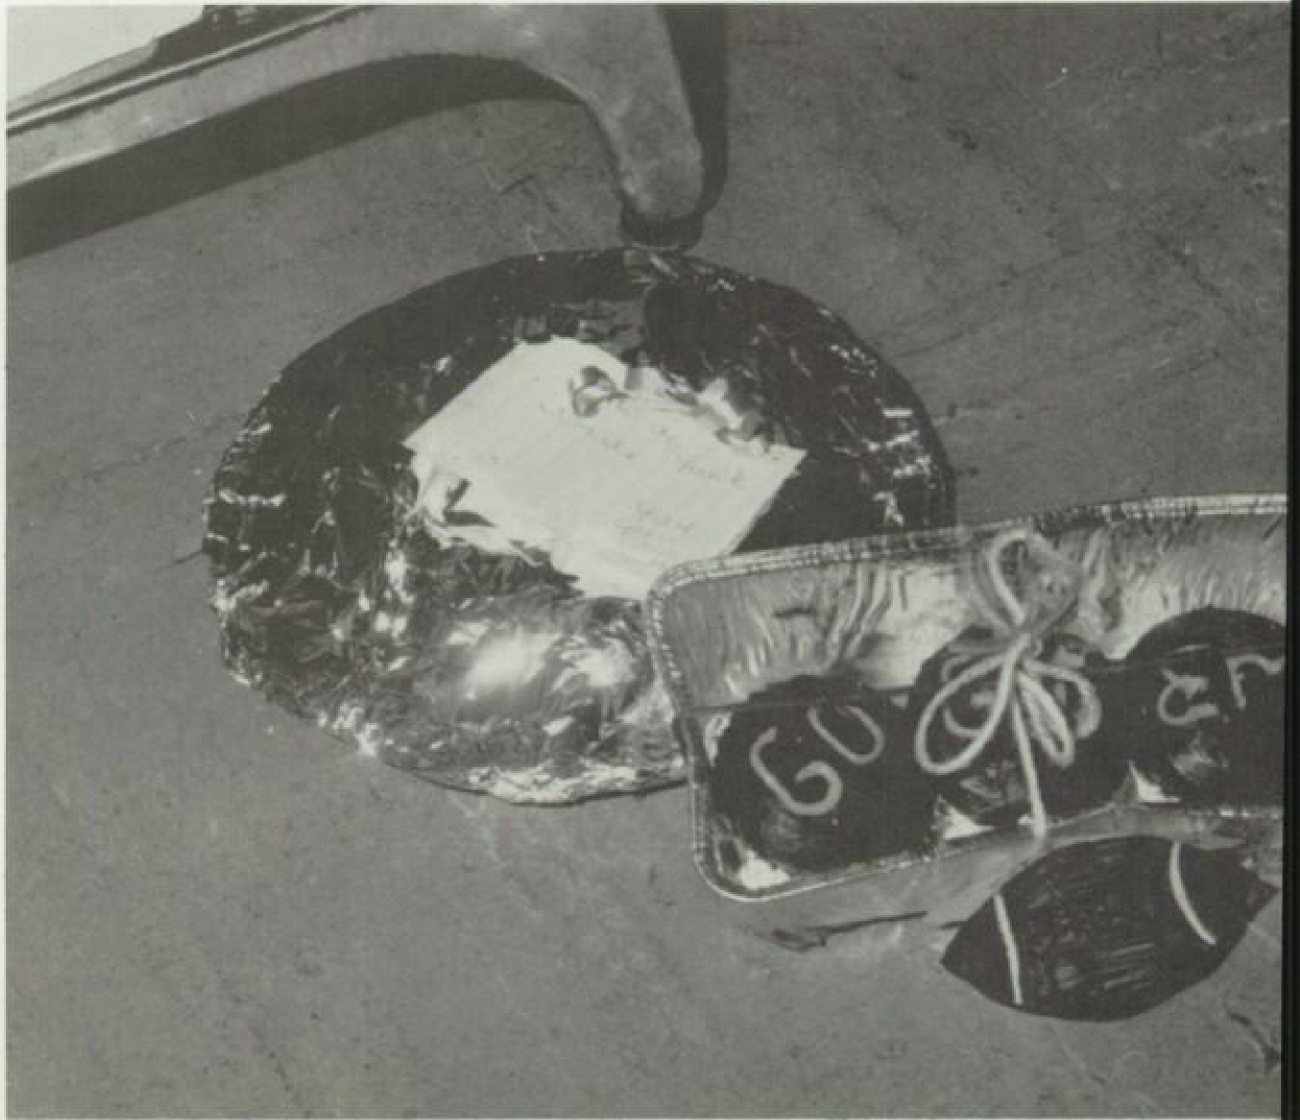


BEING A PART OF IT ALL

There were some students at Pacific who just had to be involved. This bunch of people had no trouble finding ways to keep occupied. There were offices to campaign for, buttons, hats, and pins to sell, and stimulating conversation to have in the quad. These pirates needed to be kept busy, and most certainly were.







THE HEAD — Kenneth Martinez stands by his posters for A.S.B. President.
"SOMEONE WAKE ME WHEN IT'S OVER" — Mr. Elton seems to be thinking at a student council meeting.
"GO GET 'EM" — As a tradition, leadership makes treats for their football players.

Yes Pirates, There Is Life Beyond the Classroom!

BUY YOUR SPIRIT FROM US — Active Council members Rex Winters, Mike Williams, and Rhonda Skipper sell Pirate Paraphernalia.
"WHO'S THAT FOX" — These girls gawk at Jeff McCullough across the quad.
WAITING FOR A PICKUP — Kirby Tyner watches for the boy of her dreams.
"SAVE ONE FOR US" — These students say as they wait to buy their "Pirate Power" buttons.

Fun in Their Own Sort of Way.

AND AWAY WE GO — There goes the rooter bus full of excited fans.
DANGER ON THE WAY — The sexiest candidate for Homecoming Queen was Betty Sue Williams with her escort Mauler McDaniel.
HMMM! BANANA? — It took coach Welch a couple of minutes to decide between vanilla and banana.

Rooter Bus
P.H.S. is No. 1

Pep rallies were an important part of the football and basketball season. At these weekly gatherings an effort was made to show the teams that Pacific's student body was behind them. More often, teachers, students, council members, and a few ucky volunteers were made to look ike fools in a variety of different ways. But, it was all in fun, and actually rallies proved to be an enjoyable way to spend 40 minutes.

A BIT OF HEAVEN FOR ANGEL

Homecoming was a very special night for everyone involved. For Angel and her court, it was, of course, a night they would always remember. But whether she was victorious or not, each young lady honored with a nomination for homecoming queen would always treasure the memory of this time spent at the side of her very proud father.

TAMMY KIRCHER — OUR 1979 BASKETBALL HOMECOMING QUEEN

Pacific's 1979 Basketball homecoming game was a victory as Pacific defeated San Gorgonio 65-60. And the half time activities were an extra bonus. The crowning of the Homecoming Queen, and her court, was awaited with great anticipation. Helena McGhee became the second princess. Sandy Calleros was crowned first Princess. And lovely Tammy Kircher became our Basketball Homecoming Queen.

NXIOUS — As the candidates anxiously waited for the announcement of the new 78-9 Queen all their knees were knocking.
EAUTY AND THE CUTIE — Helena McGee as a beautiful beauty as 1st princess.
ERY HAPPY — Sandy Callerous was very appy to be 2nd princess.
EAUTIFUL — The 78-79 Queen and her escort Steve Collier felt proud sitting with princesses Sandy Caleros and Helena McGhee and their escorts Eddie Lopez and Alvin Demon.
SURPRISE — A very happy Tammy Kircher started to cry when her sister Karen and best friend Susan Wheeler congratulated her.

"COME ON YOU PIRATES," — says Angel Terry, head varsity cheerleader.

"HE'S MINE," — says Rhonda Skipper about one of the football players.

THE MOUTHS THAT ROARED

Pacific's cheerleaders have always been a devoted bunch, especially during the football season. Year after year they have jumped and screamed about a team which many people were ready to throw to the lions. This year it was different. They finally had a team which was worth cheering about. This spirit kept right on going, right up to the end of the year, when their vocal chords finally gave out and they went home for a summer of whispers.

POMS BRIGHTEN THE YEAR WITH THEIR LIVELY WAYS

Pure Spirit

The phrase "pompon girl" carries with it the image of a bouncy, spirited young lady. Our pom squad was a perfect example. These seven cheerful ladies seemed to make every pep rally and every game just a bit more fun. Besides shaking their pompons and yelling cheers, these girls could ACT! Their skits were often the high point of the rallies. They truly enjoyed what they were doing, and they practically bubbled over with enthusiasm.

COORDINATION WAS THE KEY

Our varsity flags were easy to spot n a crowd. They always had these unny looking poles attached to heir arms. "AFTERNOON DELIGHT"

Junior Varsity football and basketball teams played their games before the varsity games. The crowds were smaller, the afternoons were sometimes hotter, but the J.V. and "Bee Cheers" made up for it. Just as the players gave their all for the team, these vibrant young ladies put forth a great deal of effort to put some enthusiasm into the crowd.

DRUM ROLL PLEASE — Pacific High School Bband was pleased to present Buddy Rich.
LISTEN TO THE BAND — Two members of B.R.'s band enjoyed having their picture taken.
SAXOPHONE SOLO — The Sax player impressed the audience with his solo.

On February 26th Pacific had the pleasure of a performance by world famous drummer Buddy Rich and his band, Pacific's own band hosted the concert, attempting to raise money for their trip to Colorado.

Unfortunately, the crowd was rather small, but those who did attend thoroughly enjoyed this evening of professional show biz.

Each year Pacific's Vocal Ensemble musical. Their 1979 production was cruise on a luxury liner in the 930's, a story of love, romance, gangsters and mixed identities. Mr.

graphed the show. Fortunately, it was quite a success.

MERRY CHRISTMAS — Leading one of the best bands around, Mr. Anzelmo cued them into some Christmas music.

Many folks from the East seem to wonder how we, in California, can tell that it is Christmas when we are not buried under six feet of snow. None at Pacific seemed to have any trouble. Teachers went to a great deal of trouble to decorate their classrooms. Mr. Will's choirs put on a lovely concert, LEHIS passed out their Christmas carnations to sweethearts and friends, and a general feeling of joy could be felt throughout the campus.

Junk Food Junkies Find a Cure for the Infamous Munchies

Lunch time at Pacific was a sight to behold. People seemed to appear from nowhere, and every one of them was ravenously hungry. They descended upon the quad, the cafeteria, and the many fast food joints which surround Pacific. This blessed 40 minutes provided a much needed break between a morning of hard work and an afternoon of the same. Then, the bell rang at 12:15, and the multitudes returned to their holes once again to await the final bell at 2:05.

"ANIMAL HOUSE" — Not quite — actually it's the Yogurt House where Mindy Smith and Connie Garot spend their lunch. Day after day it's another food fight.

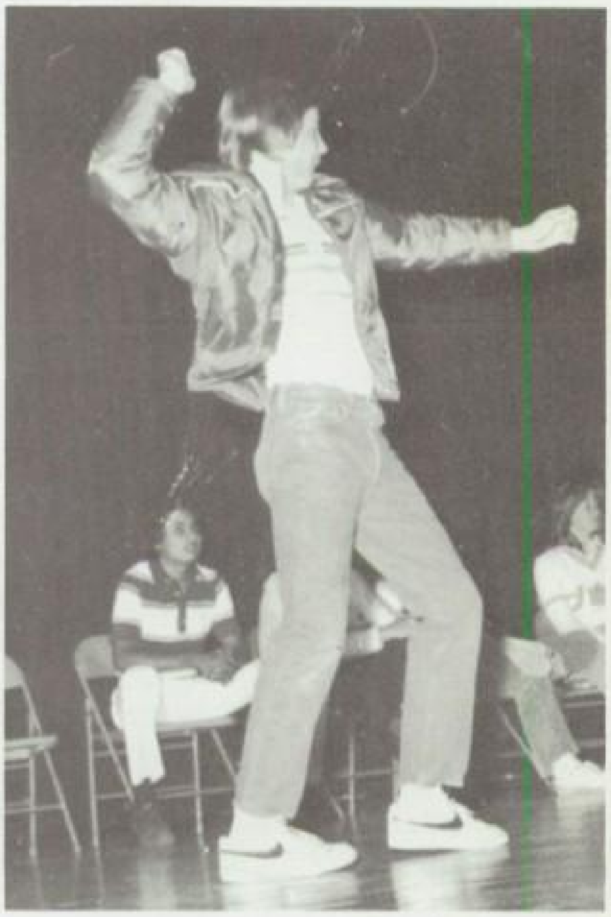
"I RECOMMEND THE FROSTY" — At a recent trip to Wendy's, Denise Crowder points out the Frosty to go with a single with cheese.

A CHANCE TO NOT BE YOURSELF

Whether or not they wish to admit it, everyone has a secret fantasy to be someone, or something, other than themselves, even if only for a day. Pacific's Halloween dress up day gave students the chance. A costume contest, a pumpkin carving contest, and some other activities took place in the quad at lunch. It was a fun day for everyone. But, for Kenneth Martinez it was a day of painful realization, as he was told time and time again that he just didn't have the legs of a cheerleader.

KICKED BACK — On Halloween Rochelle Jordan takes time out of her busy day to take a nap.
A BIT OF HISTORY — Getting together to discuss peace terms were Gary Mitchell, Julie Jaramillo, and Denise Crowder.
CLOWNING AROUND — During lunch this clown was sad because no one would sit with her.
HOW WONDERFUL LIFE IS — This year's Mecha prom couple showed how much they cared for each other.

ONE, TWO, READY, PLAY — At this year's George Sharp Show, Rudy Hoffman tried to conduct the orchestra.
"OUT OF MY WAY" — Throwing a knife at his favorite enemy was Greg Mee.
OH NO, CRAZY GLUE — These participants couldn't walk because they thought their knees were glued together.



A Man Who Had a Strange Effect on People

George Sharp's Show was a Pacific tradition. He came in the morning and performed for a rally. Then he returned for an evening show in Gibb's Auditorium. Students volunteered to be hypnotized by him, and then were made to do embarrasing things, such as act like rock stars. It was a fun show, and the Pacific crowd was glad to have him back on campus.

FORWARD MARCH — Getting ready for a parade, Pacific's award winning band practiced.
ALWAYS IN THE SPOTLIGHT — Drum Major for three consecutive years, Mike Omarzu leads the band at halftime.
WAVING IN THE WIND — An asset to the Pacific band, the tall flags added to the band's originality.
COME BLOW YOUR HORN — Bringing music to the ears of rally goers, Pacific's band played their favorite song, "Rocky."

BOSTON POPS, WATCH OUT!

Toot, Bang, Tweet, Honk . . .
Their Own Kinda Music

Pacific's drill team has had a rocky history. Some years they have flourished, with an enthusiastic captain, and loyal members. The 1978-79 drill team had assets. Lynn Lebernight was their captain, and she knew her stuff. With Mrs. Olsen as their sponsor, they brought home an impressive number of awards, and truly had reasons to be proud of themselves.

JUNIORS

EDITOR

Together . . . We Did it All

Our junior year was a time of challenges. Many of us were faced with the difficult academic schedules which characterize this third year of high school. Our officers and their committee planned and presented the Junior-Senior prom. Certain juniors were valuable players on varsity teams, during a year in which many of these teams enjoyed tremendous success. We eagerly met each of these challenges head on, seeing them as opportunities to prove that as juniors we, most certainly, could do it all.

THROWING A FIRST-CLASS PARTY

If money doesn't make the world go 'round, someone forgot to tell the junior class officers and their prom committee. It sometimes seemed as if they would do ANYTHING to make a buck. Along with the usual assortment of car washes and bake sales, they came up with some really original ideas as well, such as selling confetti at the football games. Somehow the thousands of dollars needed were found, and on that beautiful May night they realized that it was well-worth every bit of hard work.

One of the events which went along with being a junior was the taking the PSAT. This was a chance for the juniors to experience taking a test of such magnitude, in preparation for the time when they would take the SAT, as seniors. On October 24th they gathered in Gibbs Auditorium, and their scores were evidence that they had done well.

COME SAIL AWAY

Prom night was a night set aside for the realization of dreams. Everything seemed to work out perfectly, both for the hardworking juniors who presented it, and for the ecstatic guests. Entering the Grand Ball Room at the Anaheim-Sheraton was like entering another world. The prime rib dinner was excellent. "Giant City" provided the music. It was all in all an evening which will be remembered for all who attended.

Fund-raising, Frustration and Fulfillment

Years ago someone decided that the junior class ought to give the seniors a party — and call it a prom. Well, Pacific heard of the idea and liked it. So a "prom committee" was formed. Seniors have been known to be a picky group of people. They want things done right. Our juniors knew this. So, they made it a committee of hard working, enthusiastic souls to plan the Junior-Senior prom. And, not surprisingly, they did a fantastic job.

Together . . . We Did it All

Sports were a most important part of our lives at Pacific. As competitors we learned the meanings of hard work, success, and defeat. A successful team required the devotion of both coaches and athletes. Friendship and respect which came from working day after day towards the success of a team were feelings which will last forever.

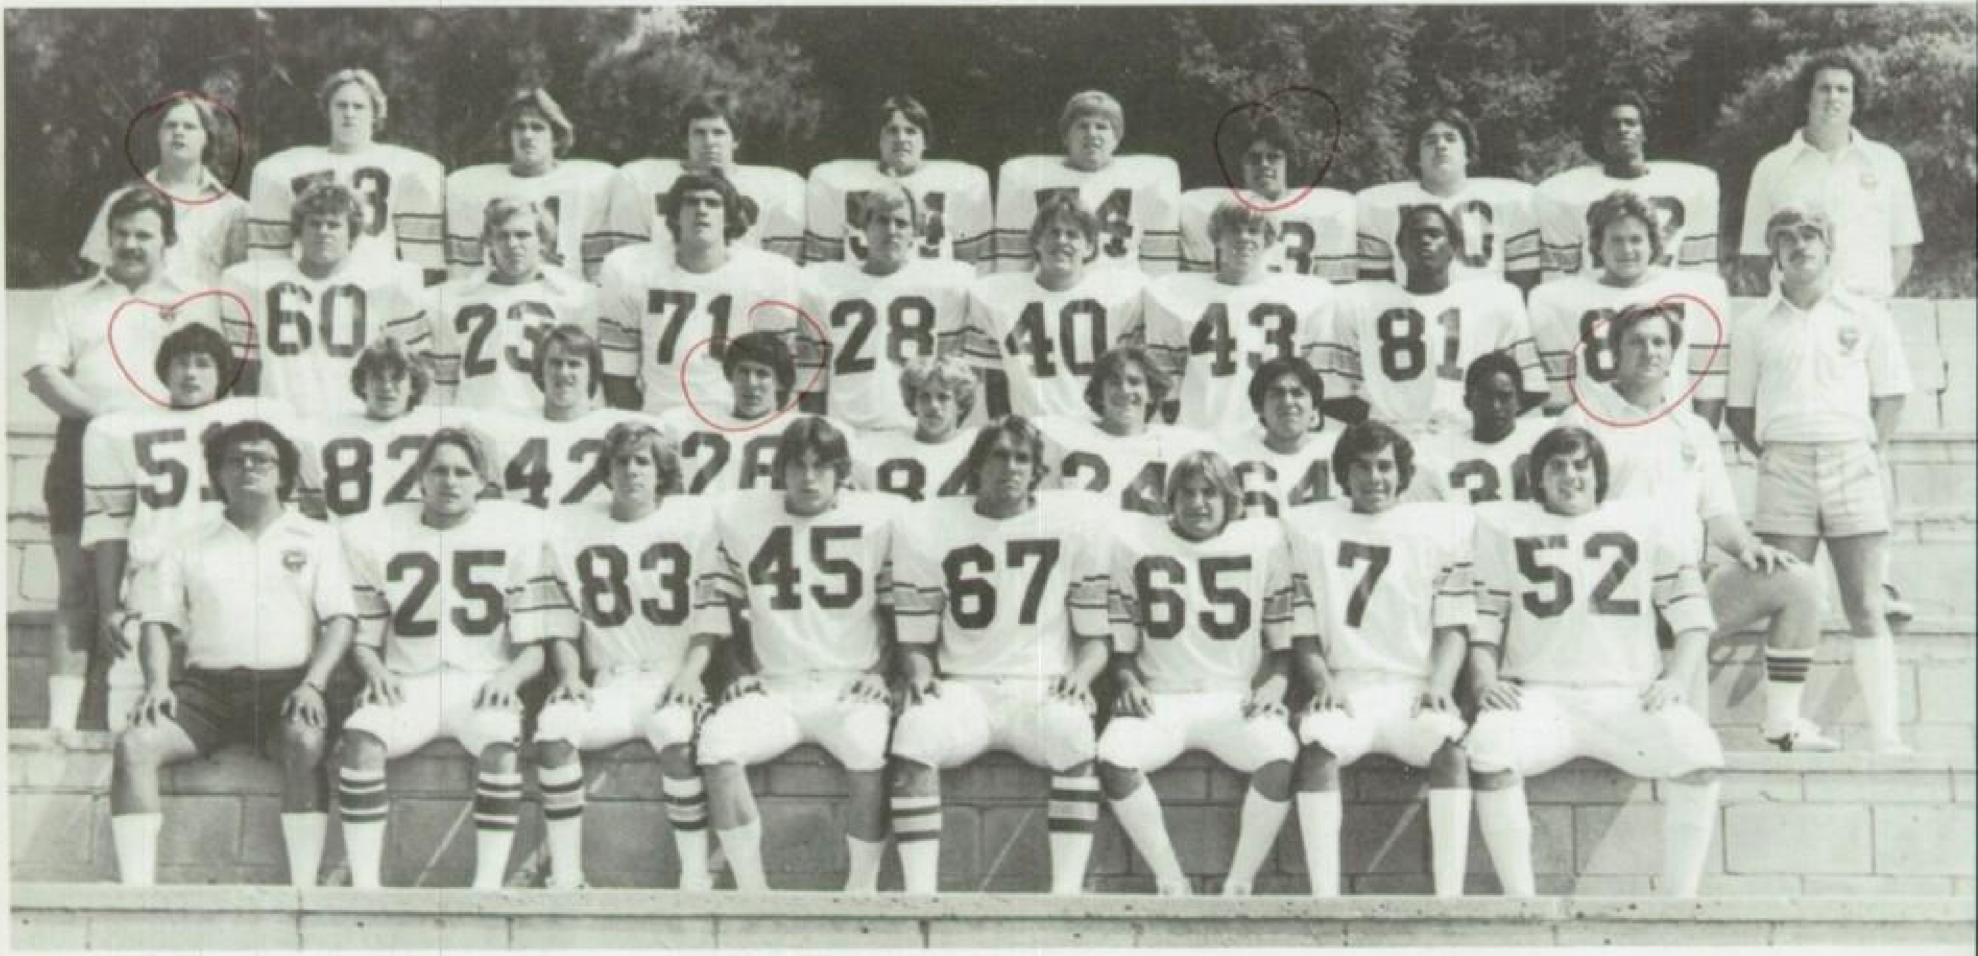
Pacific High — Once Again City Champs

A NEW BEGINNING

Where once there was nothing, suddenly there was a championship football team. The reasons behind this success were many. Our new coach, Tom Hoak, instilled a sense of pride in his players, and this pride was a major factor in the building of a strong team. Winning scores in the games against the three other high schools in our city gave us the position of "cit champs." This was an honor o which Pacific had not even dreamed of for many years. Spirits soared and hopes were high. This feeling o exaltation was to remain with us throughout the season as our team accomplished long dreamed o goals

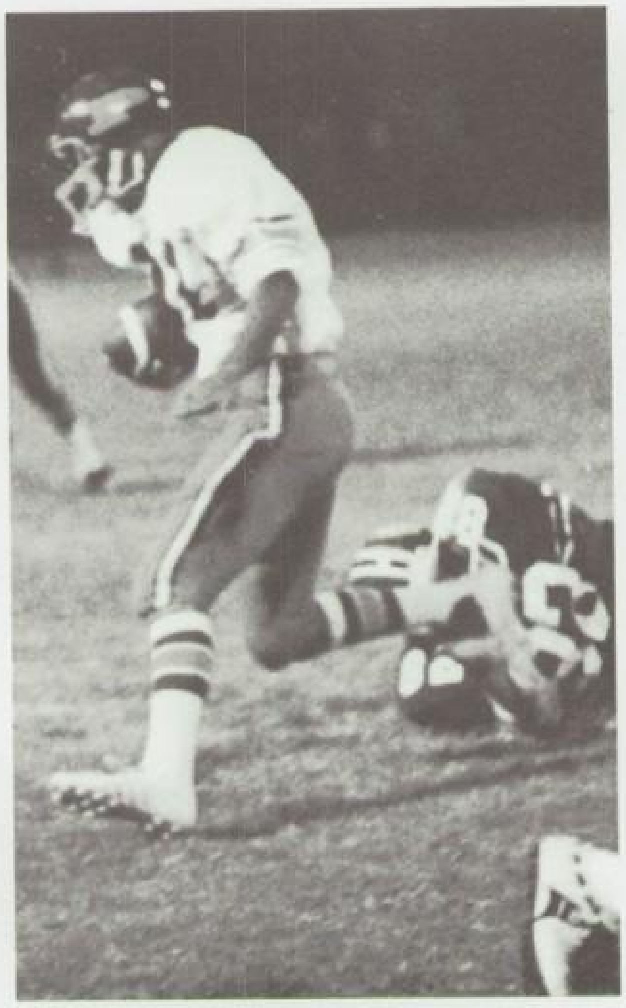
1978 VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM — Row 1, (l to r) — Coach S. Hernandez, R. Warren, G. Kukula, R. Mela, D. Dolan, B. Verdone, D. Ruiz, M. Epstein, Row 2 — K. Otterbein, C. Fosdick, G. Reed, T. Sauceda, K. Bishop, C. Ray, J. Valencia, J. Jackson, Head Coach T. Hoak, Row 3 — Coach T. Strykawski, S. Cottier, J. Beckley, A. Nesbitt, D. Nason, D. Grube, G. Geane, T. McClain, R. Winters, Coach D. Morrell, Row 4 — B. Cottman, C. Munson, T. Riley, B. Latner, E. Fonzi, K. Anderson, A. Aguilar, R. Martinez, S. Parrish, Coach D. Day.

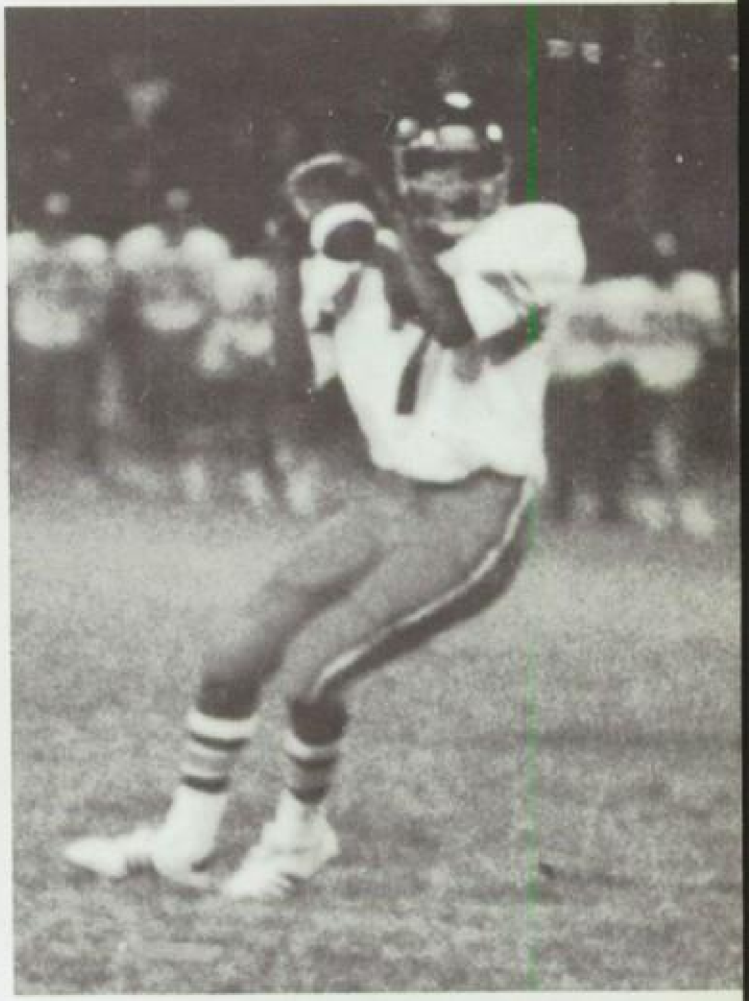
WORKOUT — The varsity squad worked long, hard hours to prepare for the season. After school practices were a vital part of Pacific's success.



THE GAME — Head Varsity Coach Tom Hoak hangs out a sign for his team on the field. Coach Hoak was constantly telling his players what he wanted to do.
TD BOUND — Senior Terry Riley breaks away from the Cardinal defense in a pre-season game.

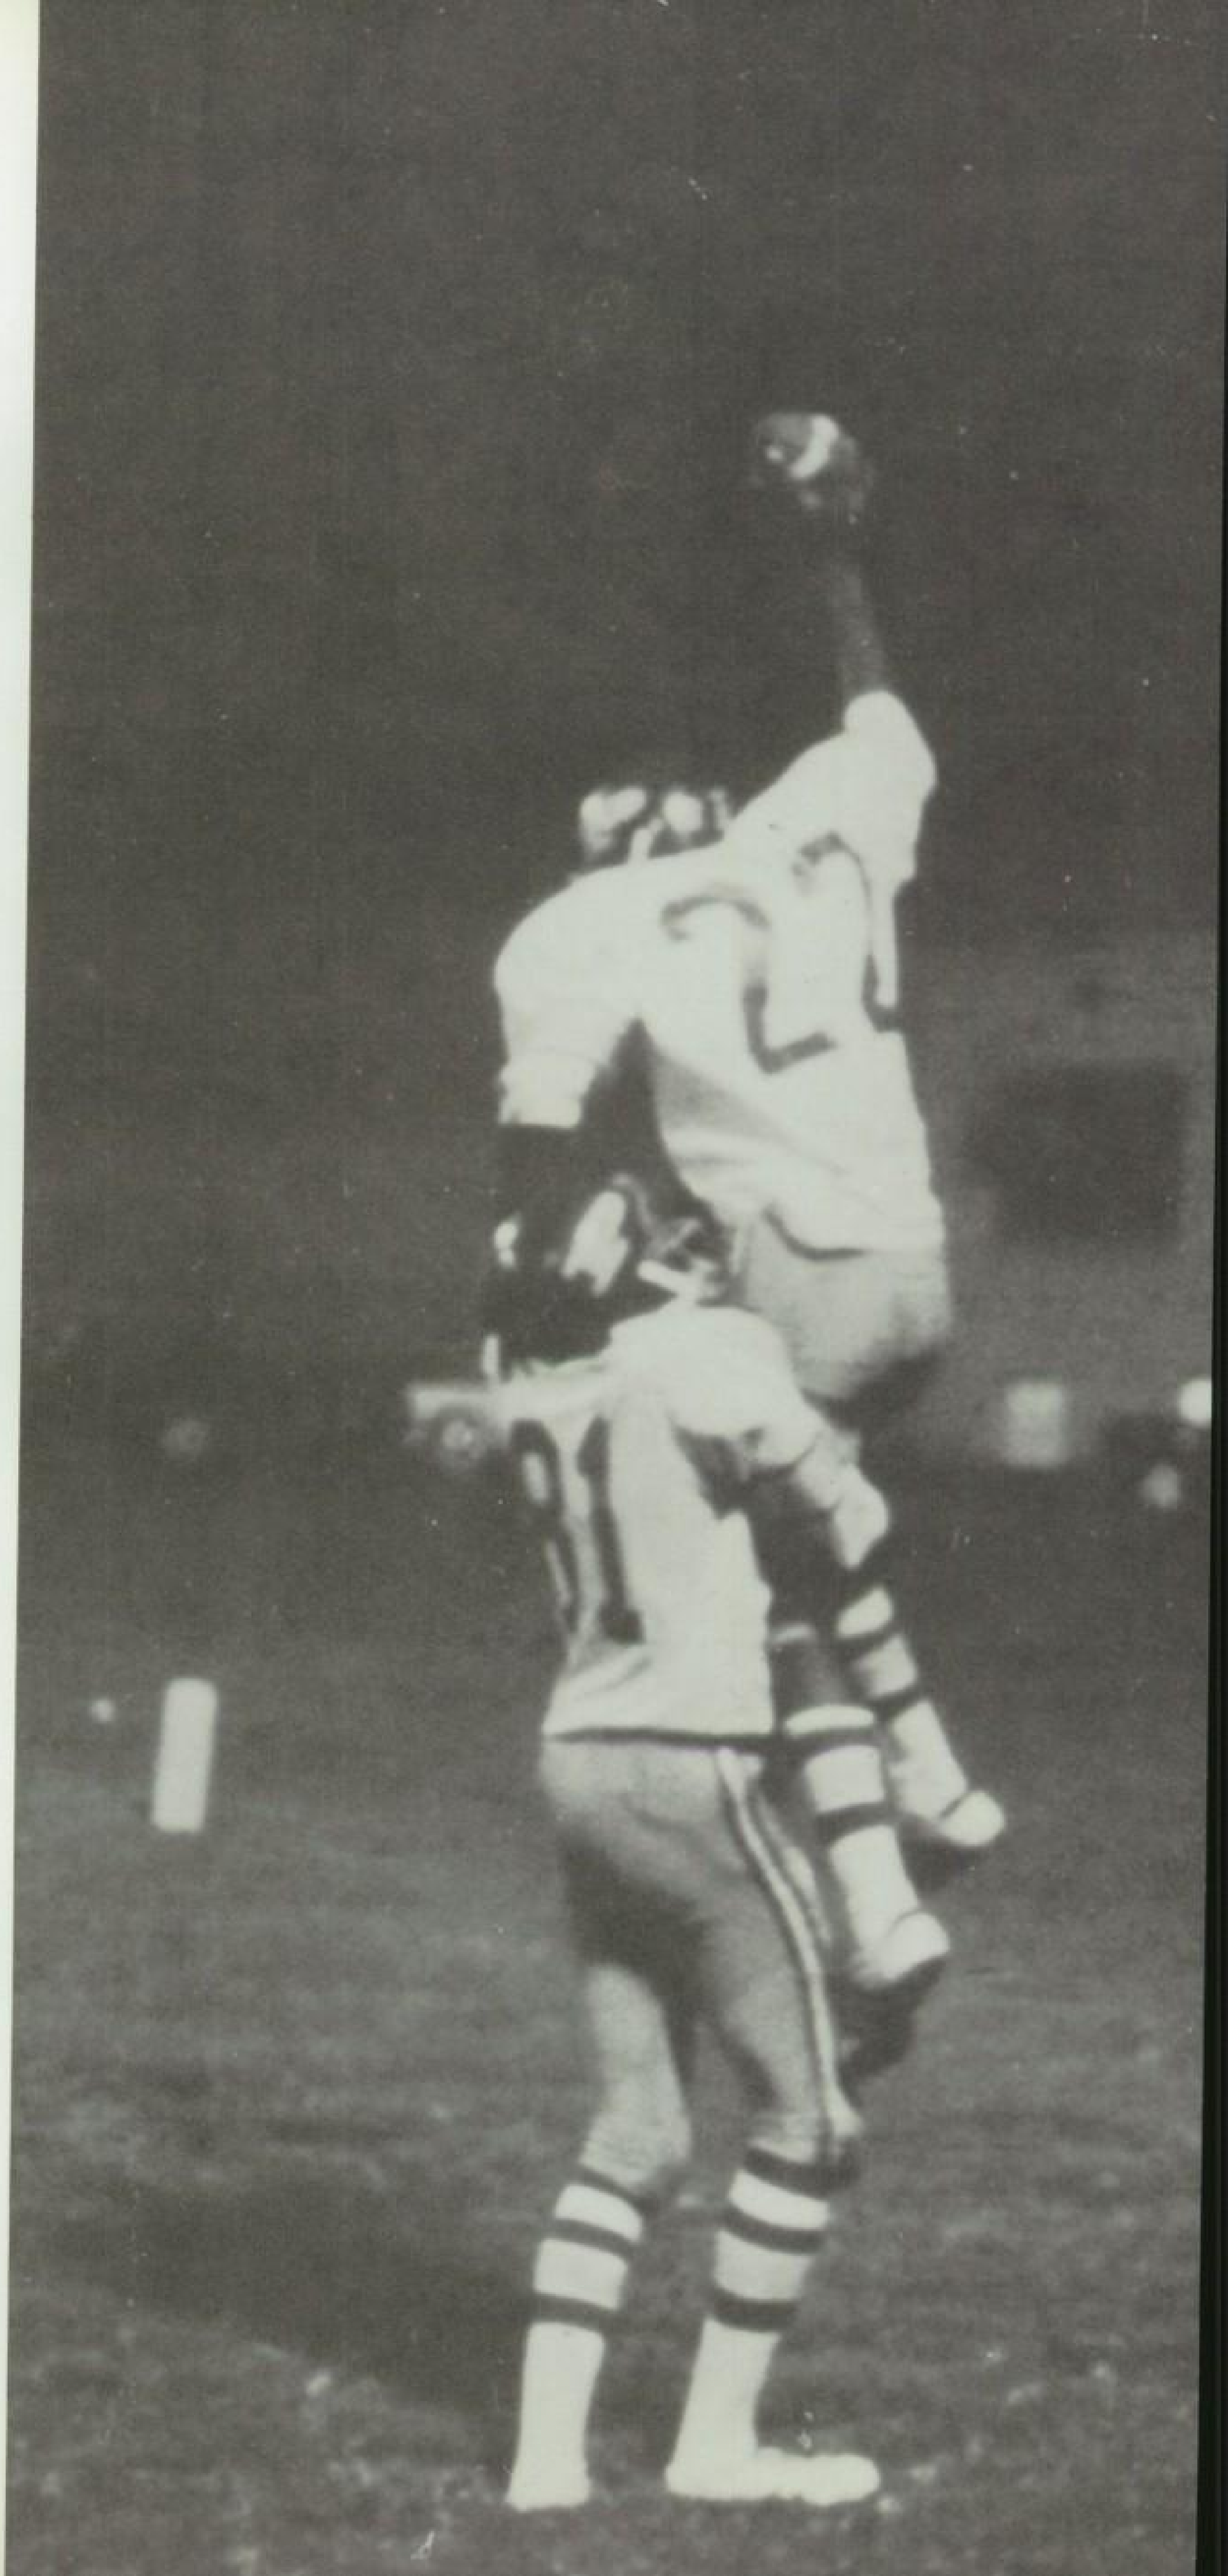
LONG BOMB — Quarterback David Ruiz drops back to throw a big pass in the opening game victory against Berdoo.
YOU DON'T SAY — Head Varsity Coach Hoak talks over the game plan with QB David Ruiz.
SWEEP — Pacific's running back Terry Riley breaks to the outside while being pursued by San Bernardino defensive linemen.



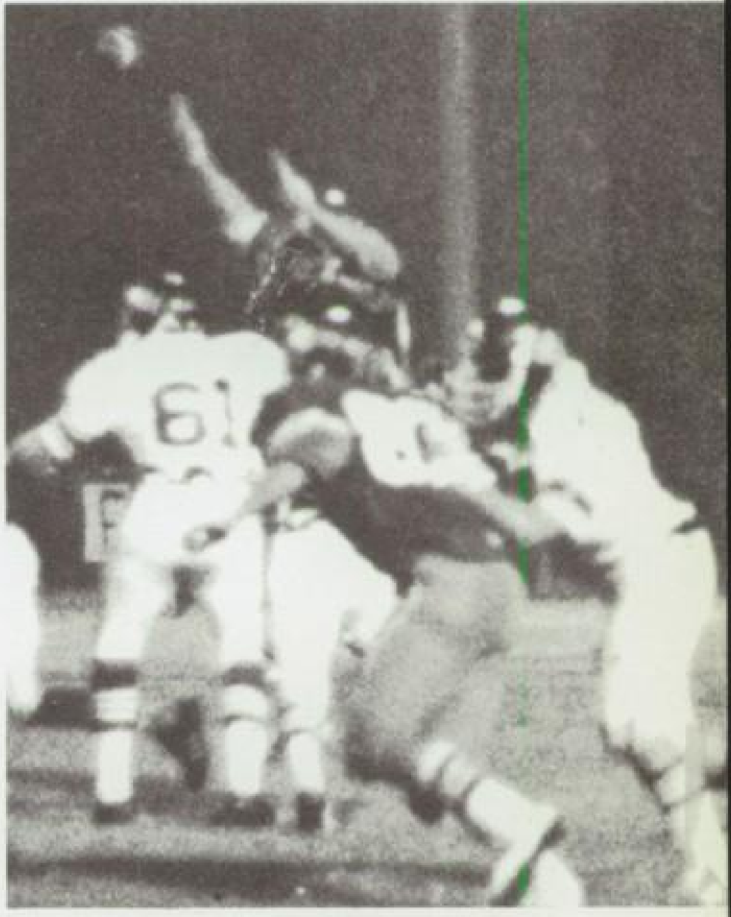


Coach Hoak Renews Pirate Spirit

STUCK — Many opponents found it difficult to move the ball as Terry Riley (21) demonstrates, Greg Geane looks on.
CRUNCH — The Pacific offense gets ready to meet head-on with the Chaffey defensive line.
UP IN THE AIR — Amid Chaffey coverage, Tim McClain (81) and Rex Winters (87) outrun the opponent in order to get the ball.
6 BIG ONES — Half of the Pirates' points in the Chaffey game were scored by senior Sam Parrish (22).



INTERCEPT — When the Steelers went to the air, Pirates Mitch Epstein and Rex Winters (87) strove to foil their plans.

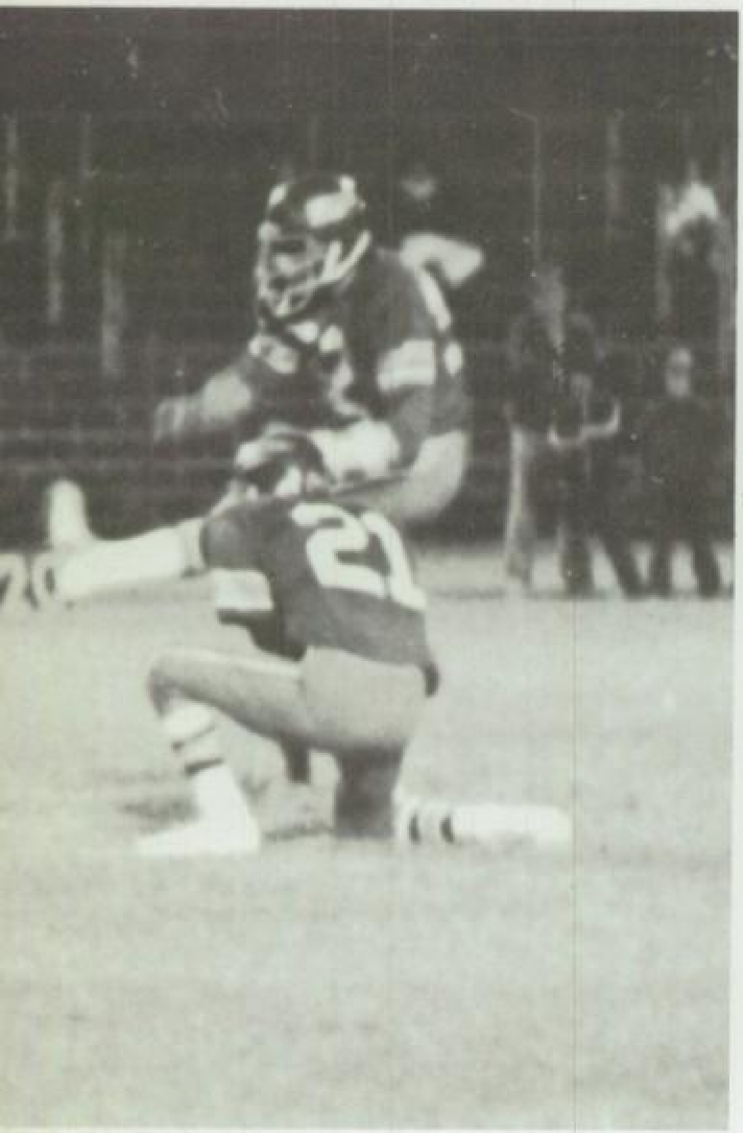


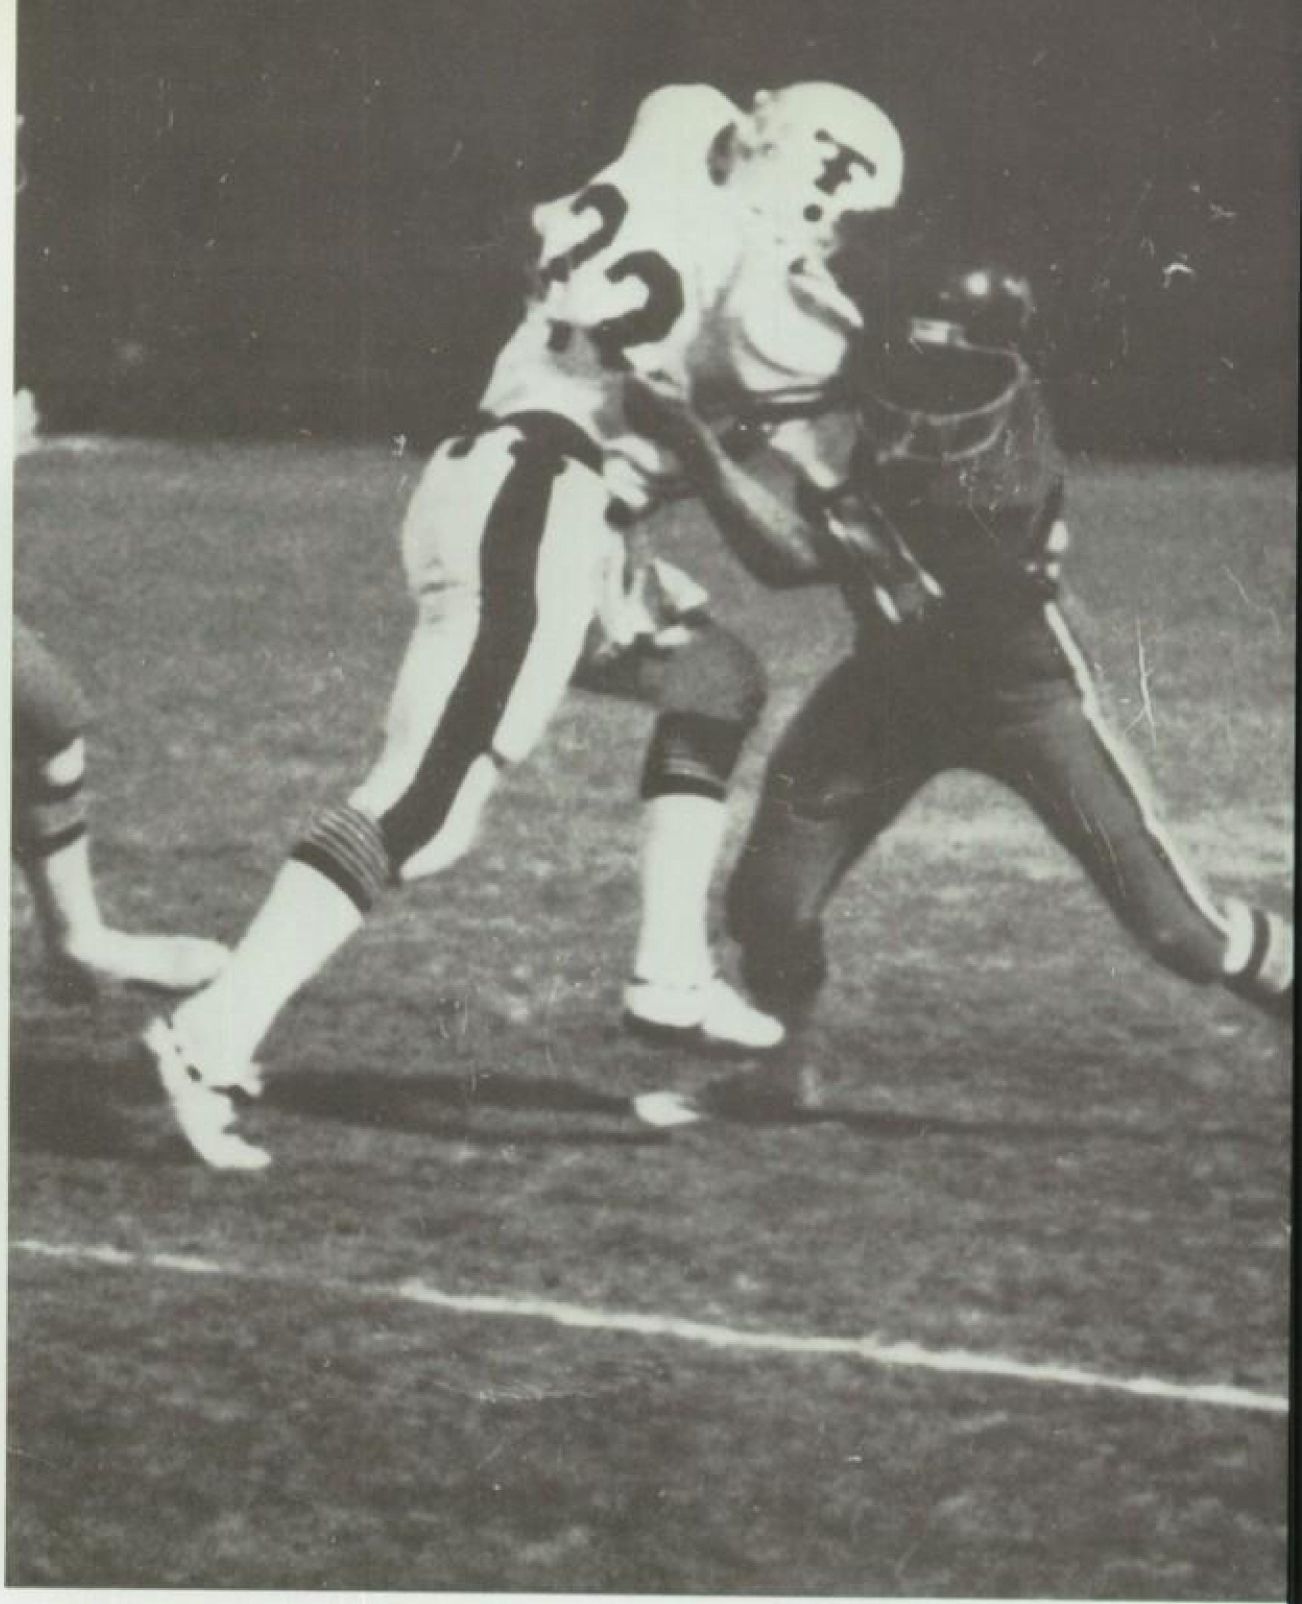
THE LINE — Attempting to break through the Fontana blockers, Steve Cottier (60), and Alex Nesbitt (71) met with equal opposition.

END RUN — As quarterback David Ruiz rolls to his left, the Bucs give him extra time with their blocking excellence.

CAUGHT FROM BEHIND — Safety Grant Reed protects the goal by stopping a Fontana receiver from a quick six points. Being a last line of defense, Reed was successful in holding back many attempts by end zone bound rushers and long range quarterbacks.

JUST FOR KICKS — While Terry Riley holds, Mitch Epstein tries for a field goal, but misses the upright after an unsuccessful attempt to score.





HEAD-ON — Pacific's Greg Geane collides with an Eisenhower running back after breaking through the Pirate defensive line.
BLITZ — Seniors Rex Winters (87), and Steve Cottier (60) make an effort to sack the quarterback after knifing their way through the Terrier offensive line.

After Many Years: A Winning Season

HUDDLE UP — QB Ken Slezak calls the play during a scoring drive at home.
1978 JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM — Row 1, (l to r) — M. Schiwel, M. Williams, M. McOrmand, V. Washington, R. McGhee, R. Prado, M. Espiritu, Row 2 — Coach Nova, J. Sauceda, D. Popadak, M. Ehe, T. Montoya, M. Duggan, G. Moaten, S. Straily, E. Swanson, Row 3 — Coach D. Hoak, S. McDonald, D. Golden, K. Slezak, K. Pete, D. Fraze, B. Raida, M. Gopar, M. Johnson, Row 4 — Coach McKenzie, D. Clayton, G. Ehe, R. Davis, B. Williamson, R. Thomas, S. Hargrove, M. Chism, N. Guerro.
ON THE RUN — The junior varsity team ran well on the ground against many of their CBL opponents.
SNAP — The Pirates offensive line gets ready to hold back the Cajon rush.

With the Future Looking Bright ...

With visions of future glory bright in their minds, the junior varsity football team gave their all. Long, hard hours of practice were logged in preparation for the 1978 season. These efforts paid off, they had a successful season, and moved far in the gradual building of a future varsity team.

GROWING STRONGER EVERY DA

OUR WET HEADS ACHIEVE NEW HEIGHTS

The experience of returning lettermen, and the enthusiasm of first year players, under the guidance of a new coaching staff, combined to give our team its best win-loss record in Pacific's polo playing history. Considering that past teams had never won a C.B.L. game, their record of 5-7, 2 being league games, was truly something which they could be proud of.

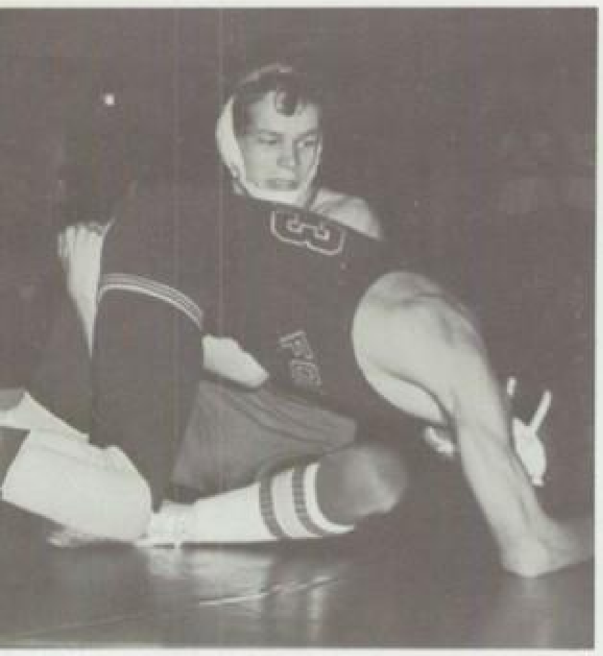
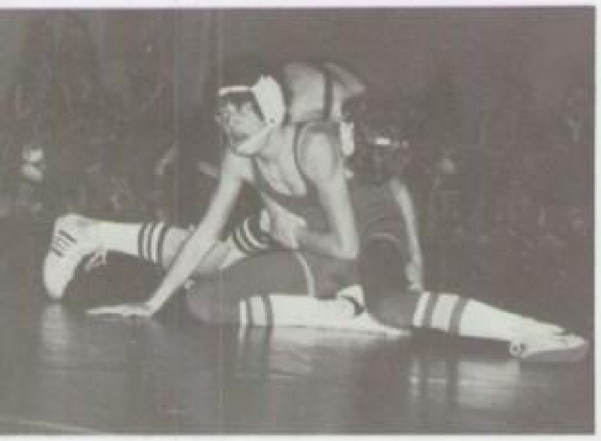
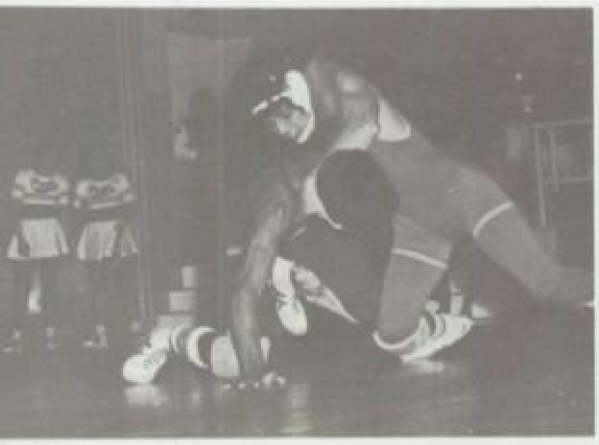
UNDER THE WATCHFUL EYE — One of the reasons for the success of our wrestling team over the past few years is their coach, Tony Finazzo. Coaching his team to CBL championships this year and last, Coach Finazzo gave his all to the team.

The Everlasting Taste of Victory



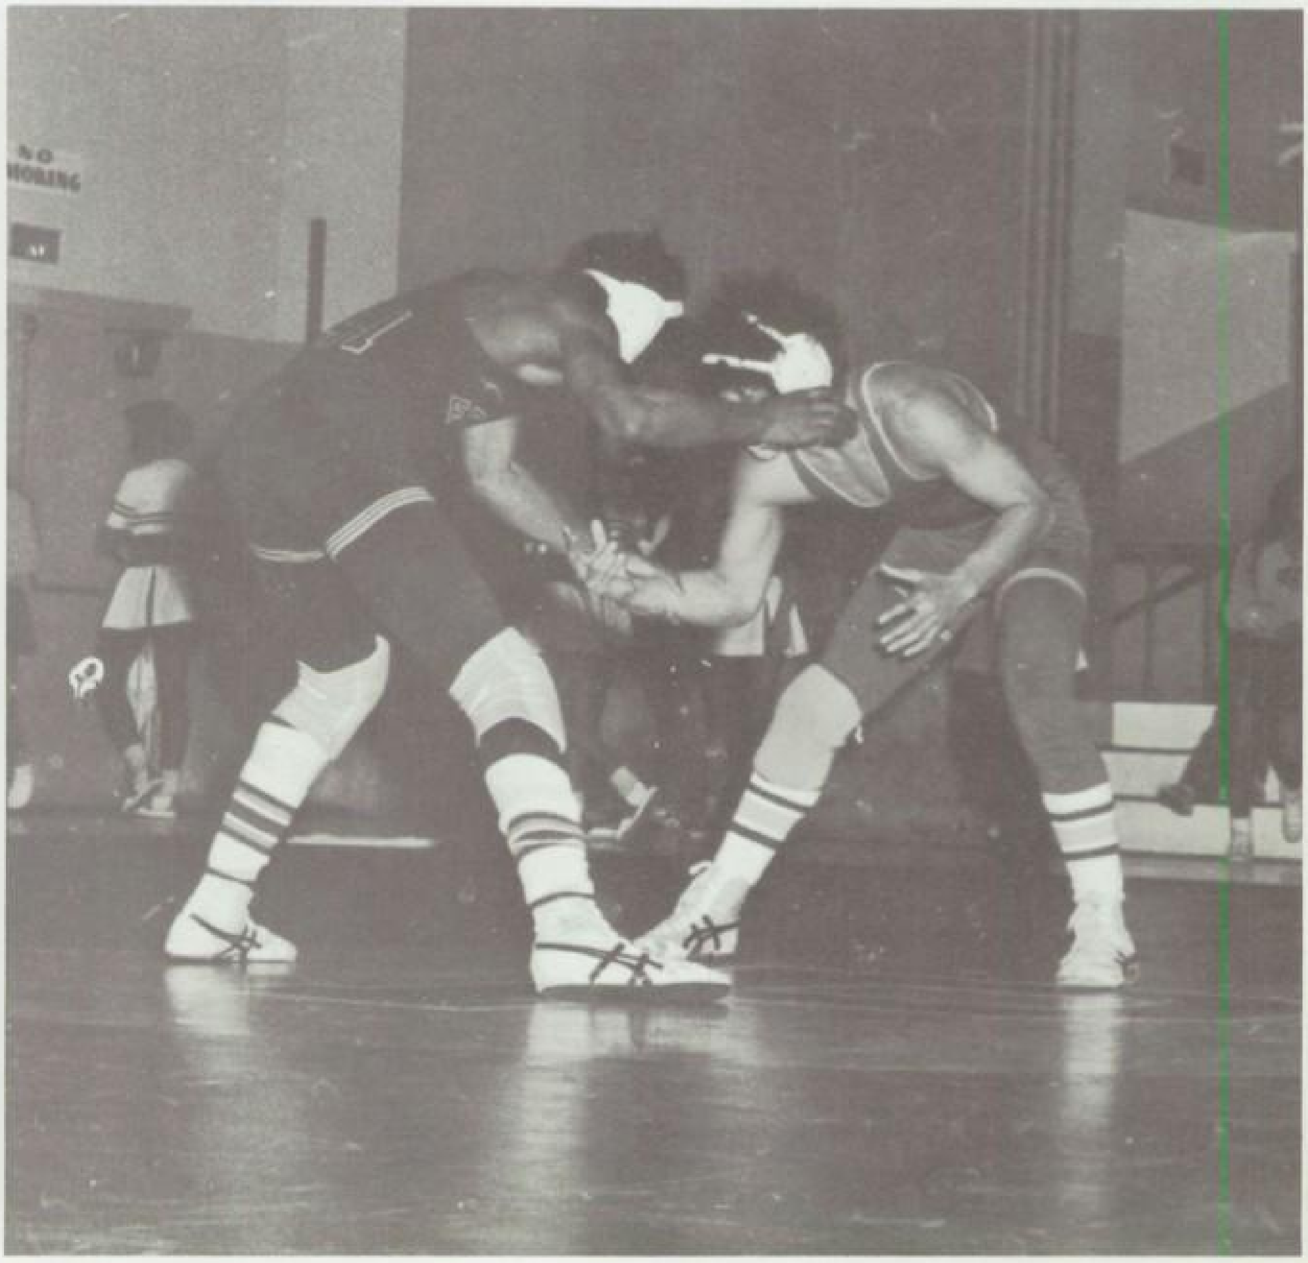




MAXIMUM EFFORT — Senior Pirate, Steve Montano, grimaces as he puts his opponent to the mat.
HOLDING BACK — Freshman Dennis Montano remained firm as he held off the attack of the Steelers.
TAKE DOWN — The pirates rang up the points all season long. All of the pirates contributed, including senior Ralph Vildosola as he takes his match to the mat.
TIME OUT — Pacific's Roger Johnson takes time between periods to rest and think of strategy in order to pin his man.
HUNCH BACK — Senior Ralph Vildosola wrestles for position in one of his successful matches this season.

UPHOLDING AN IMAGE

Even during the years when Pacific's other teams have not had overly abundant victories, the wrestlers have emerged champions. The 1978-79 season saw our varsity wrestling team, once again under the skillful coaching of Tony Finazzo, on the top of the CBL. This sport never did draw capacity crowds, and this was too bad. These pirates who missed seeing, at least once, this championship team in action, were missing an exciting experience.



True Champions Know No Such Things as a Close Match

OH NO! — Being a big wrestler on the Varsity team, Ricky Beers looks to see if his opponent is still alive.

Pacific's Varsity Wrestlers felt that if they were going to be Wrestlers, they might as well be champion wrestlers. The term "undefeated" took on a new meaning when our team came out of matches with scores like 71-0 over Montclair and 58-4 over San Gorgonio.

OUCH!! — When you wrestle Robert Prado finds out that you're always pulled one way or the other, but the splits??

Finazzo's Future Friends

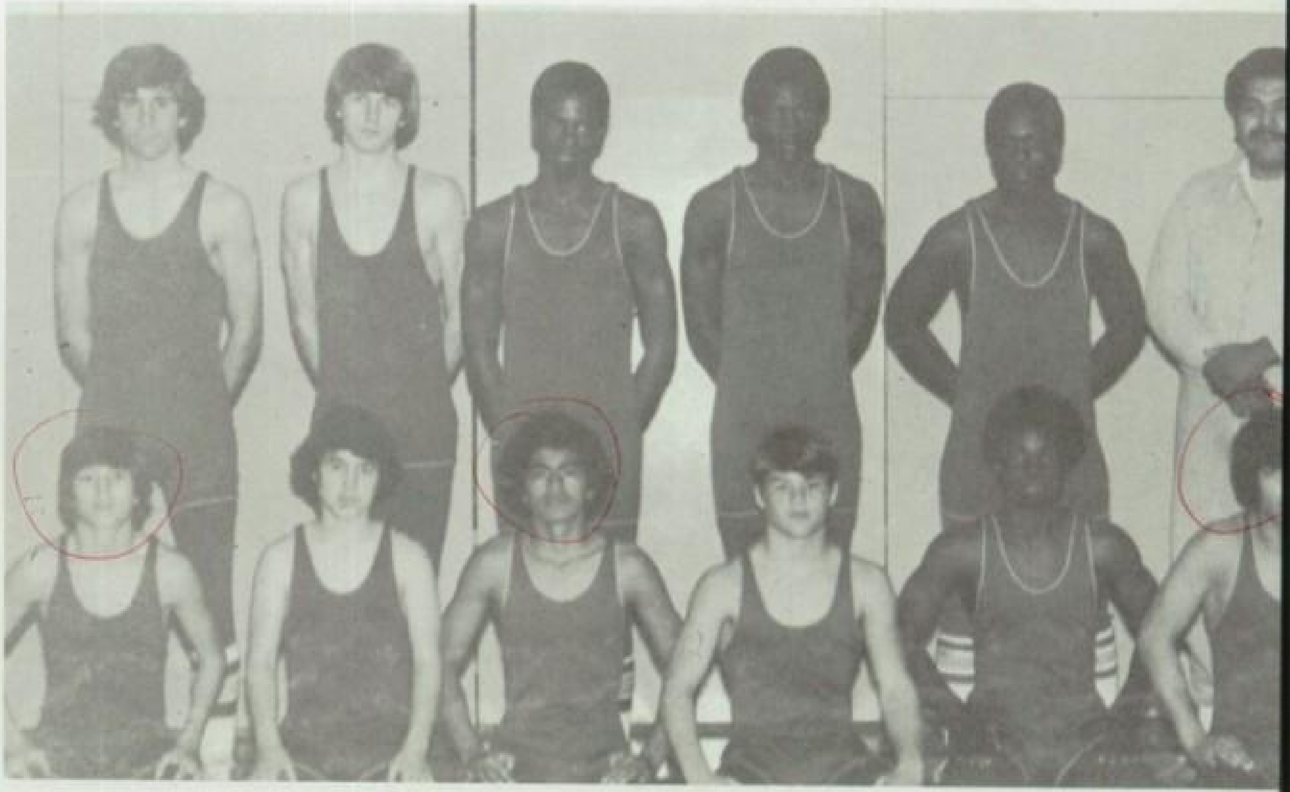
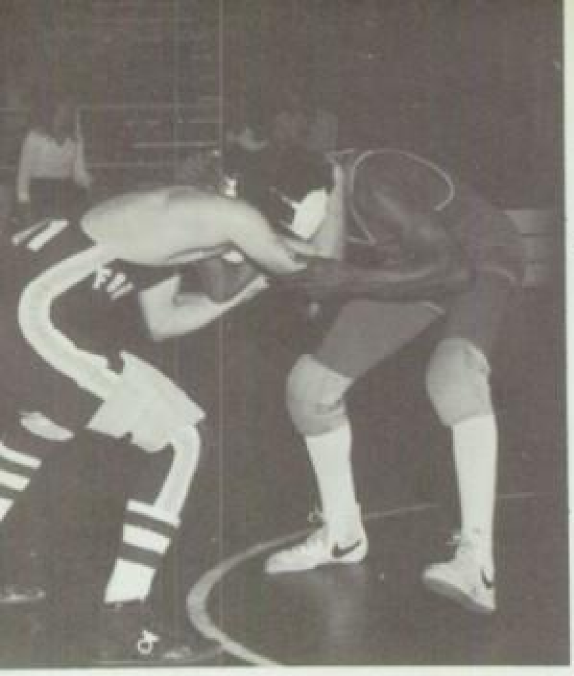
1978-79 JUNIOR VARSITY WRESTLING TEAM — (l to r), Row 1 — C. Gayton, D. Shaffer, M. Arranda, M. Palmer, K. Denmon, R. Prado, Row 2 — G. Kukula, P. Ufkes, G. Thompson, K. McGhee, B. Husband, Coach Steve Nova.
ALMOST PINNED — All C.B.L. wrestler Joe Rodriguez has Fontana under control.

In any sport the success of future varsity teams can be judged by the abilities of the present junior varsity teams. Pacific's junior varsity wrestling team was proof that the future of this sport at Pacific would be a continuation of the successes which had been theirs for many years.





TANGO — J.V. wrestlers took their opponents many times, just as Kevin Demon did in his match.
HANDS AND KNEES — Junior Pirate, Chuck Morrison, struggles for position in his match against the Steelers.

KICKING AROUND A NEW IDEA

Soccer is a sport relatively new to Pacific, and to the entire United States. In the countries from which it originated, soccer is as much as tradition as football is in the U.S. Pacific began building a soccer team only a few years back. Mr. Hernandez has shown himself to be a fine coach, and has coached some promising players during his short career. We have only to wait and see, but the odds are good that soccer will soon become a much more important sport at Pacific, and throughout our country.

USING YOUR HEAD — You can't use your hands in soccer, so Fernando Herrera (17) bounces one off his head, to put the pirates back in offense.
ON THE BALL — Pacific's Juan Garcia brings the ball down field in hopes of putting one in the net.
OFFENSIVE DRIVE — The pirate attack often put the opposition against the wall with plays like this one executed by Pablo Arechavaleta (front) and Fransico Garcia.

Pushing to the Limit . . . and Then Some

During the 1970's many people became very health conscious. Health spas flourished. Books on running, hit the Best Seller's list. Pacific's cross country runners didn't need to read a book to know what a sense of accomplishment and well-being running could bring. They experienced these feelings. These young men were fine athletes, pushing their bodies as far as they would go, and then, somehow, going just a bit farther.

Vhat Coach Dough Wealch's Varsity eam lacked in height, the made p for in speed and talent. They ook a top spot, 3rd place, in oth pre-season tournaments, utting Pacific back into a osition which we had not reached ince 1975. Opening the CBL eason with two 1 point wins, the eam raised the Pirate spirit, nd continued to "strut their stuff" hroughout a winning season.

WEALCH'S SHOOTING STARS

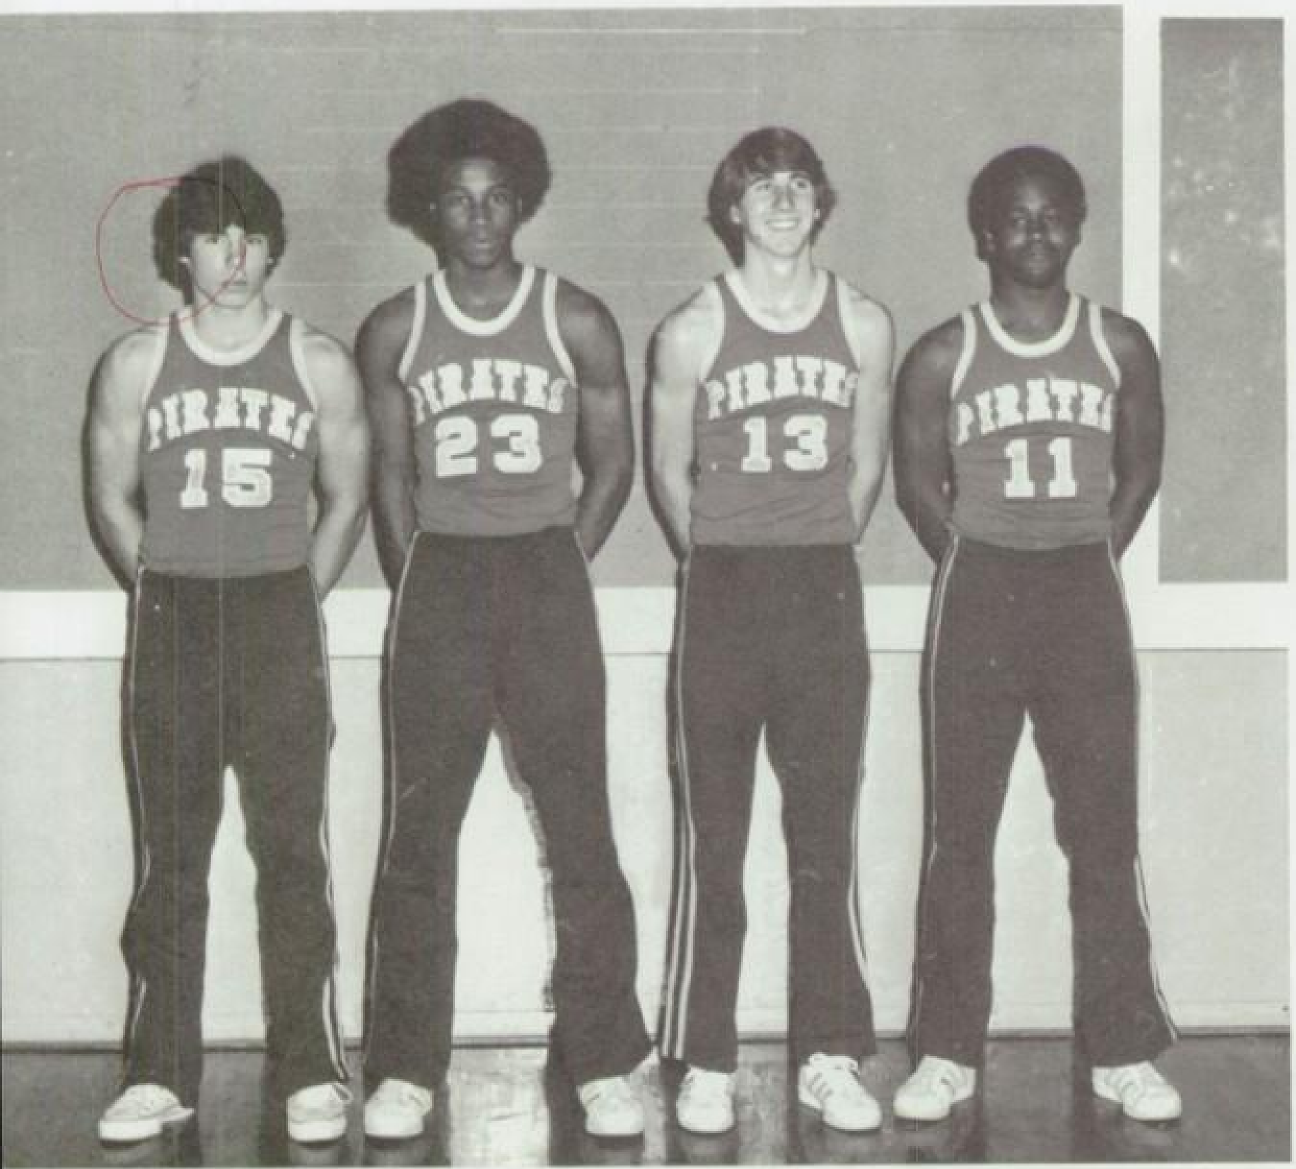
THE GUARDS — C. Sauceda, E. Martin, L. Hairgrove, H. Marshall.

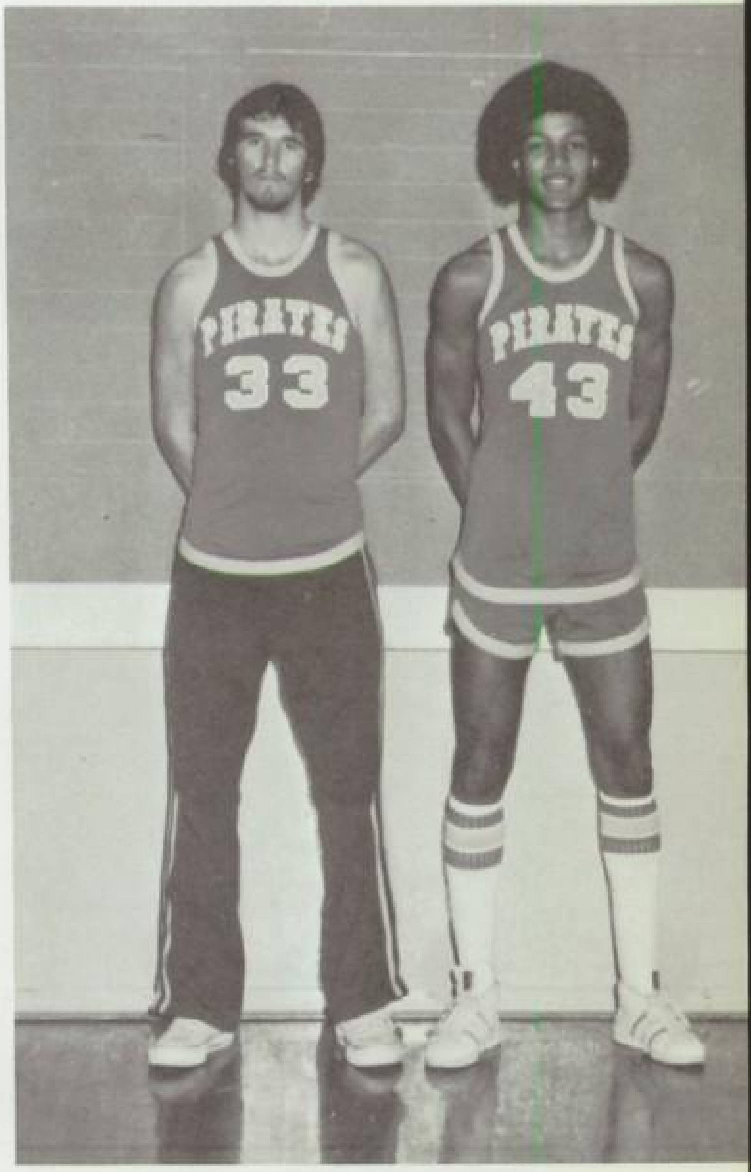
BREAKING THE PRESS — Junior Elijah Martin eluded many opponents, including these Spartan defenders with his skillful ball handling.

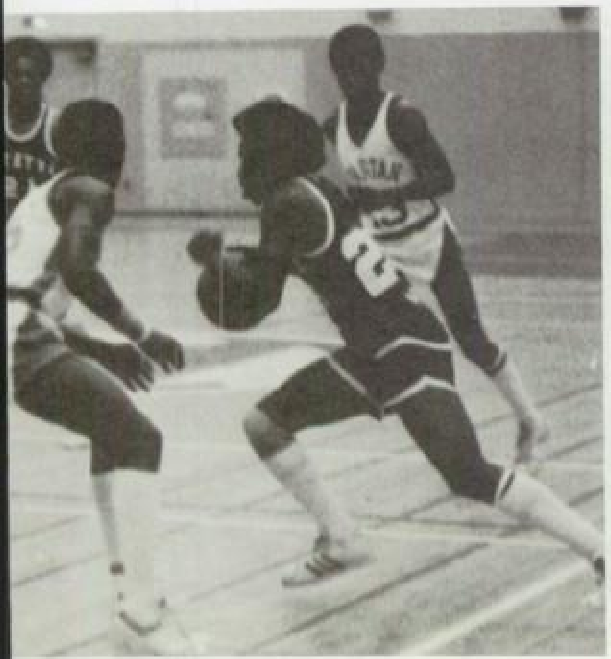
UNDER PRESSURE — Going through the zone was a difficult way to score, but Steve Wilson made it look easy.

THE CENTERS — J. Denton, S. Wilson.

THE BENCH — The key to any successful basketball team was in its bench; players who could come into the game and fulfill their roles. Seated from left to right are Charles Sauceda, Chuckie Carter, Rudy Hoffman, John Denton, and Greg Geane.







TWO FROM UNDERNEATH — One of Anthony Davis' favorite shots was the lay-up. Davis puts one in as a perfect finish to a Pirate fast break.
BENT BACKWARDS — Junior Adam Riley often rose to the occasion in order to pick up a rebound in the Pirate-Spartan game. Riley led all scorers in the game with 20 points.

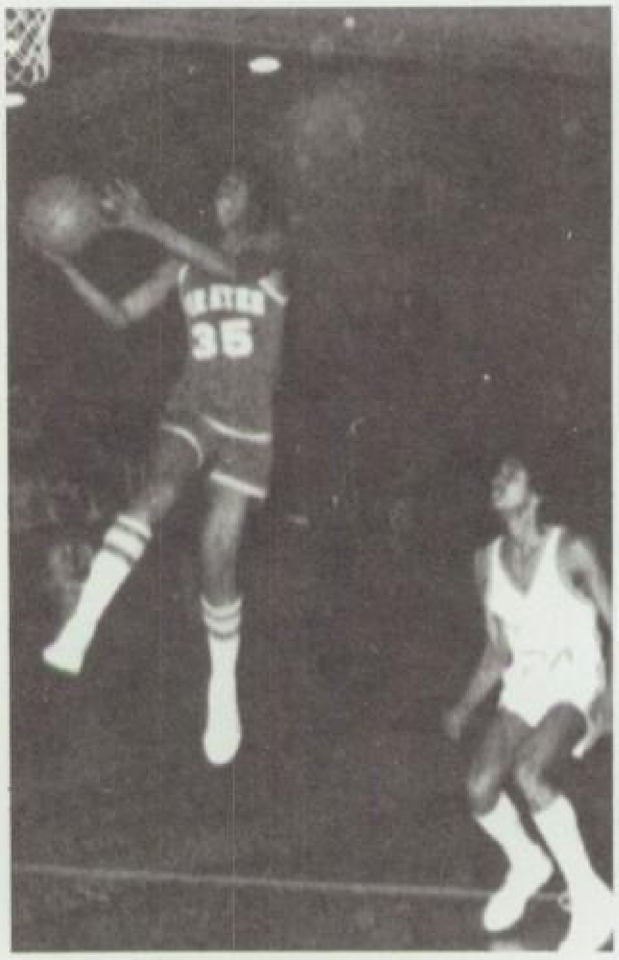
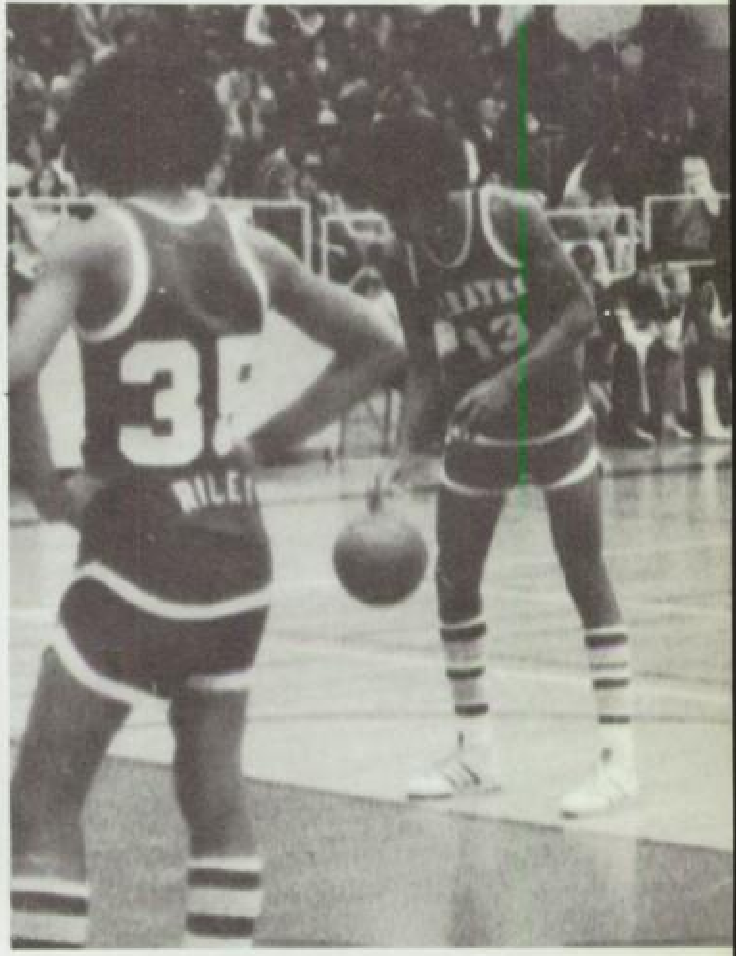
MANY GOOD THINGS COME IN SMALL PACKAGES

Our varsity basketball team was not known for its height. In fact, our tallest player was 6'4". But Coach Doug Wealch instilled a sense of team pride in his players, and the rewards were many. Old-time rival, San G, was beaten all 3 times we played them. And, when our team finally played on their home court after 16 games on the road, Pacific had every reason to be proud.

EASY DOES IT — A lot of finesse is needed to be a good free-throw shooter. Greg Geane puts his touch on the ball in the one-and-one.
DR. J. JR — Watching a pirate basketball game was often very entertaining. Here Adam Riley gets ready to "rattle the rim."
BEHIND THE LINE — Center Steve Wilson, one of the tallest pirates at 6'3", was fouled many times, and turned in many three point plays.
PUSHING OFF — Junior Lance Hairgrove battles underneath in an effort to gain possession of the ball after a missed basket.
TIPPED OFF — Pacific's Rudy Hoffman jumps with a Redlands player for possession of the ball. Waiting below for the tip are Hoyt Marshall (11), and John Denton (33).





GRAND SLAM — The single most aggressive act in basketball today is the slam dunk. It can be done in many ways: one-handed, two-handed, behind the back, and others that need to be seen to be appreciated.

DRIBBLE DRIBBLE — Forward Anthony Davis proved that he was not only a fine shooter, but also a very capable ball handler.

MACHO MAN — Pacific's Adam Riley often found it necessary to match his muscle against his opponent. The team as a whole frequently needed to connect under the gun.

VERTICAL CLIMB — Junior Dan Williams powers himself towards the basket. A fine ball player, Dan played much taller than his actual height of 5'11".

DRIBBLE DRIVE — Aggressive play was a trademark of the junior varsity team, and Pat Pruitt, like many JV players lived up to that.

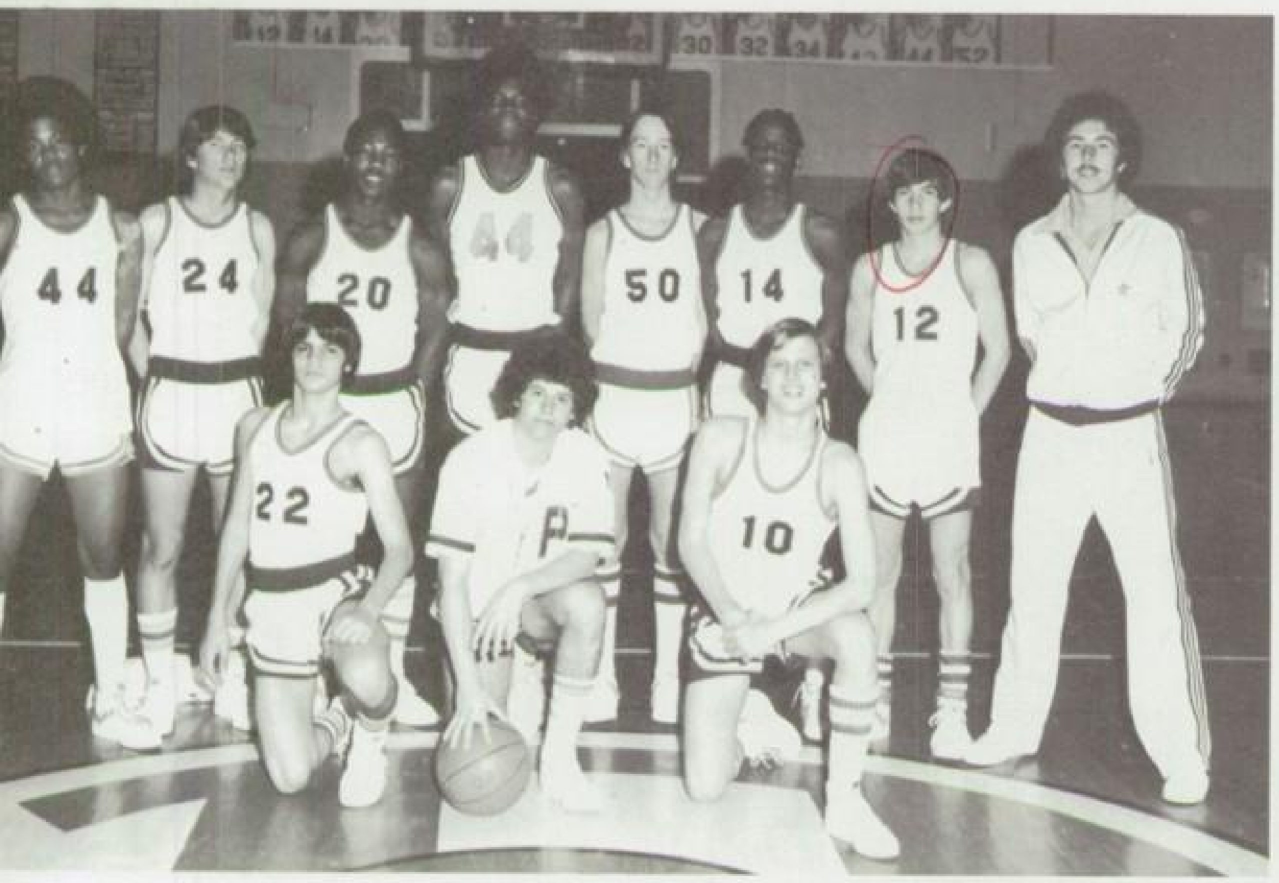
INGERTIP CONTROL — Freshman Darryl Carter (31) rose above the crowd many times this season. As Carter prepares for the basket, Pirates Dennis Brown, Howard Davis (25), Pat Pruitt (33), and Cliff Mills (55) wait below for the possible, but improbable, rebound.

KEEPING ON HIS TOES — A versatile player who could play guard or forward, Curtis Peete had excellent control of his game.



Baby Bucs Dribble Their Way up the Road to Fame

he junior varsity basketball team ras faced with quite a challenge uring the 1978-79 season, They ad to prepare themselves to arry on the standards set by oach Wealch in previous years. Vith Todd Visbal as coach, they eld their own against some xcellent teams. There was vidence of much talent among nese underclassmen, and they ave just cause to the visions of uture glory which filled the eads of many Pirates.

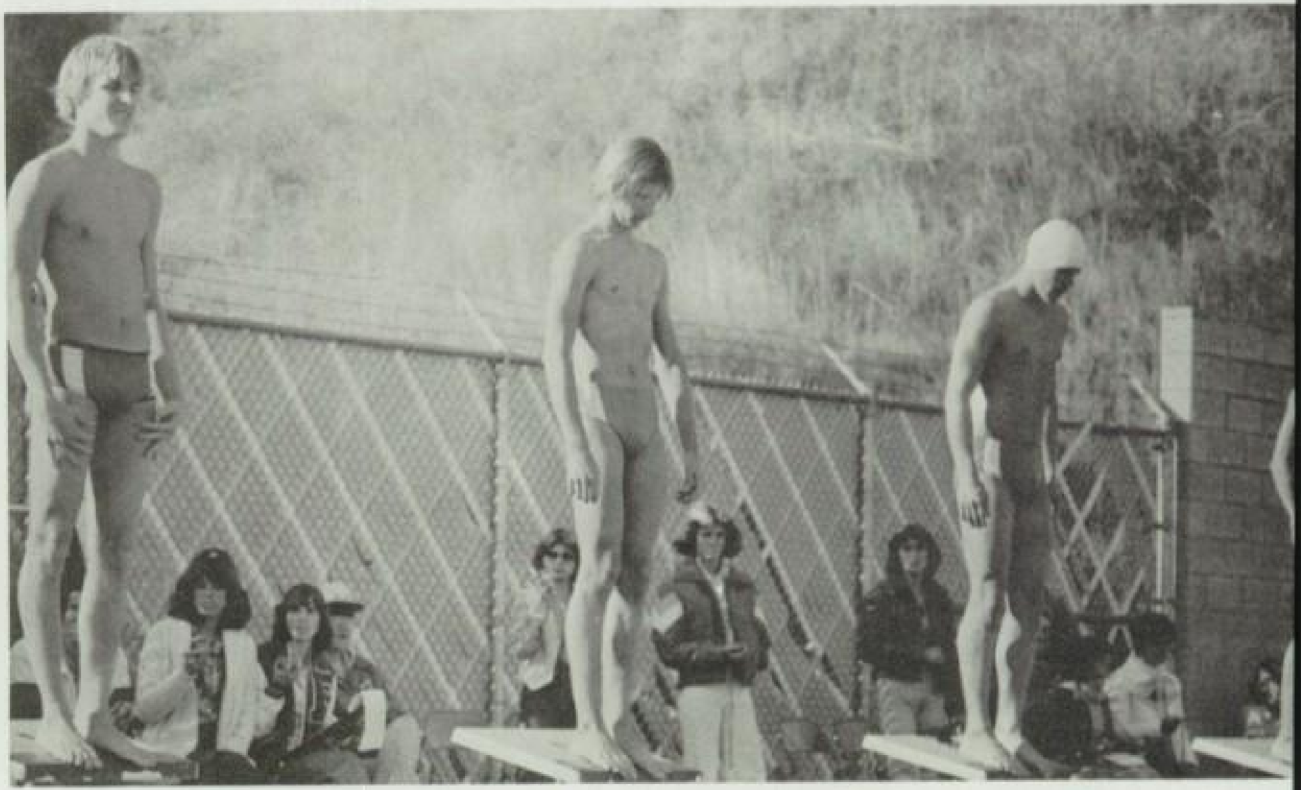
.001 SECONDS TO GLORY

Pooling Their Efforts Swimmers Reach Victory

Swimming is a sport which requires an amazing sort of dedication. Long hours must be logged in the pool, swimmers between two walls, working to cut seconds off of a swimmer's time. Pacific had a few athletes who possessed this dedication. Ray Kalinich coached the boys varsity swimming team, urging each member to give his best at every practice and at every meet. Their hard work paid off in the end, as records, both personal and team, were broken, and each swimmer was filled with a special sense of pride in knowing that he had done the best he possibly could.



SWIMMERS TAKE YOUR MARKS — At Pacific, Pat Tanner, Eugene Conley and Richard Wiggins started out the All City Meet. 1978-79 BOYS' SWIM TEAM — Row 1 (l to r) — T. Ramirez, T. Whitner, B. Kalinich, R. Agular, G. Thompson. S. Hall, M. Fike, B. Corral, M. Silva.

DIFFERENT STROKES FOR DIFFERENT FOLKS — The breast stroke was the stroke that Dennis Holdgrafer competed in.
WATER WIGGY BREAKS RECORD — Pirate Richard Wiggins smashed the record for the butterfly stroke with powerful strokes.
SUPER MEX — Junior Tony Ramirez swam the back stroke in most of Pacific's swim meets.
IT'S A BIRD IT'S A PLANE — No, It's just Rob Kerbey leaping up in the air to make one of his great dives.
OUTSTANDING DIVER — Rob Kerbey was one of our three divers that qualified for C.I.F.

A Bit of Love in the Afternoon

No doubt about it. The coming of spring put love in the air. Pacific's Boys' Varsity Tennis team quickly began to renew relationships . . . with their rackets. They spent hours each day perfecting their serves and volleys. Overjoyed that the long-rain-soaked courts were finally dry, they often practiced as long as the sunlight lasted. Their reward? Ah — the thrill of victory.

NEAR MISS — Senior tennis pro Mike Sanchez, missed the fence but didn't miss the ball.
ANXIOUS AND STRIVING — Freshman star Dexter Habeck waits anxiously for a tennis serve to return with power.

COORDINATION — Skill was the name of the game when David DeLeon tried to do the bunny hop and play tennis at the same time.
POWER — That is what James Plunk used to return his opponent's serve.

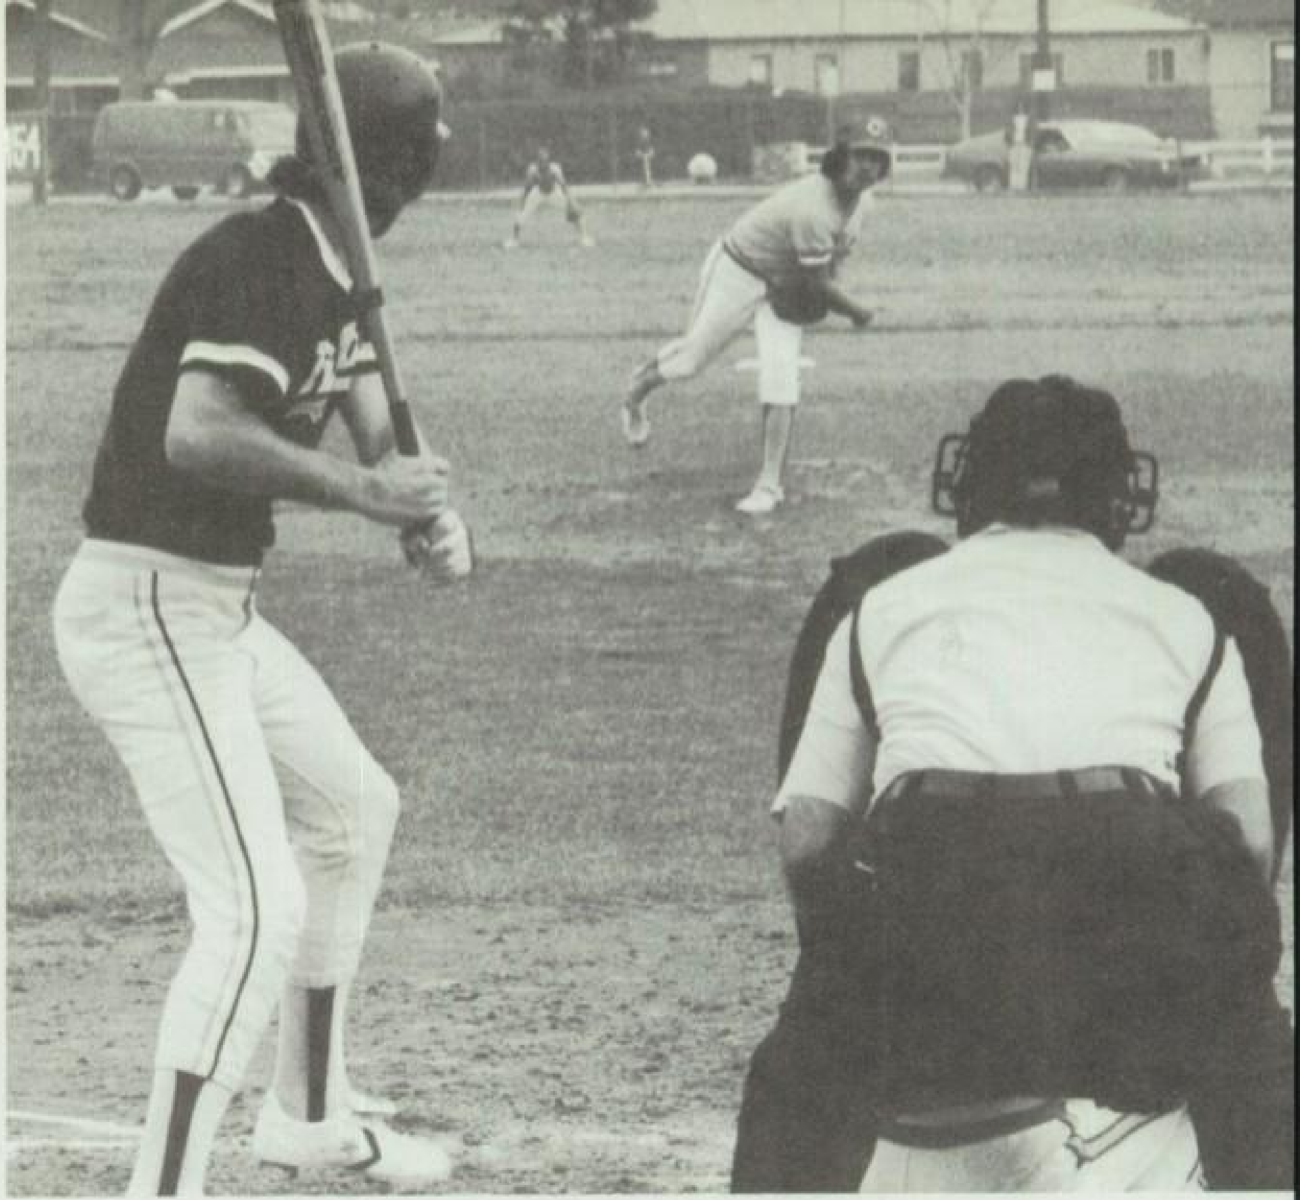
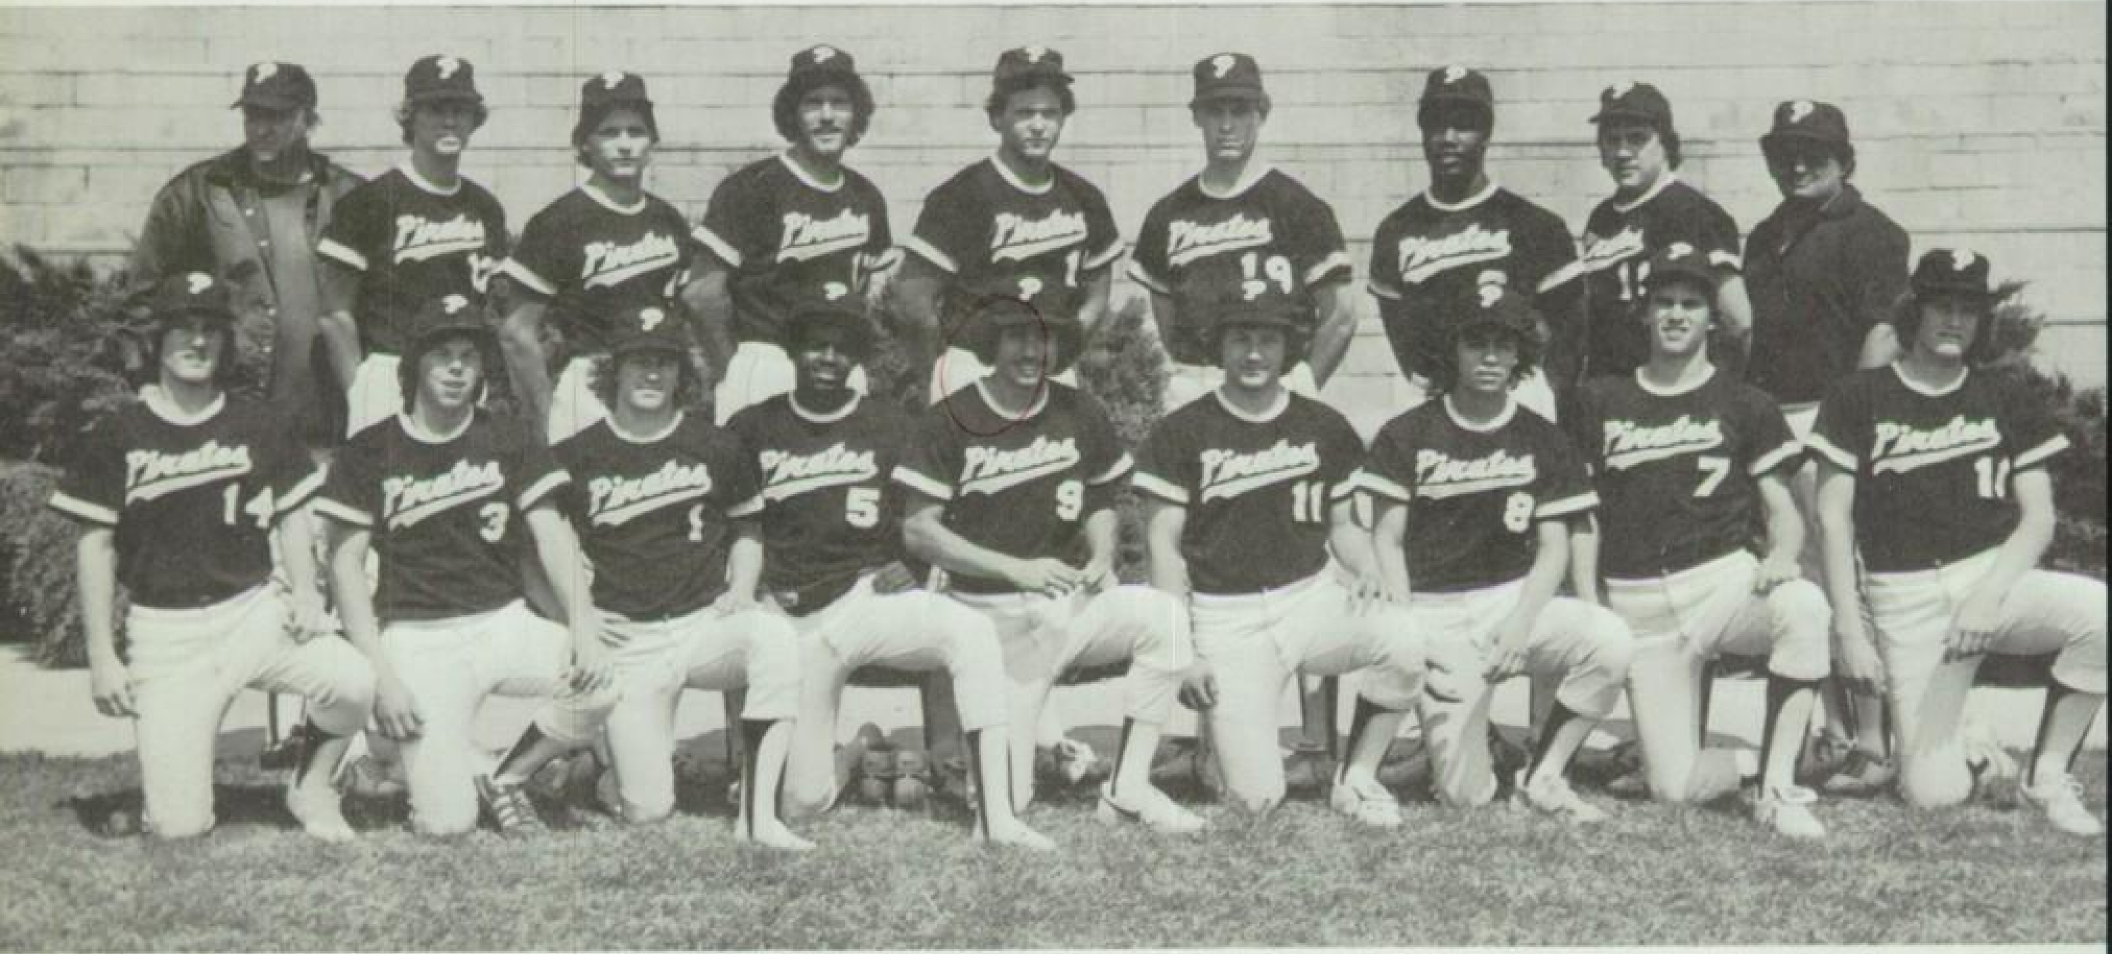
Varsity Baseball: The Big League

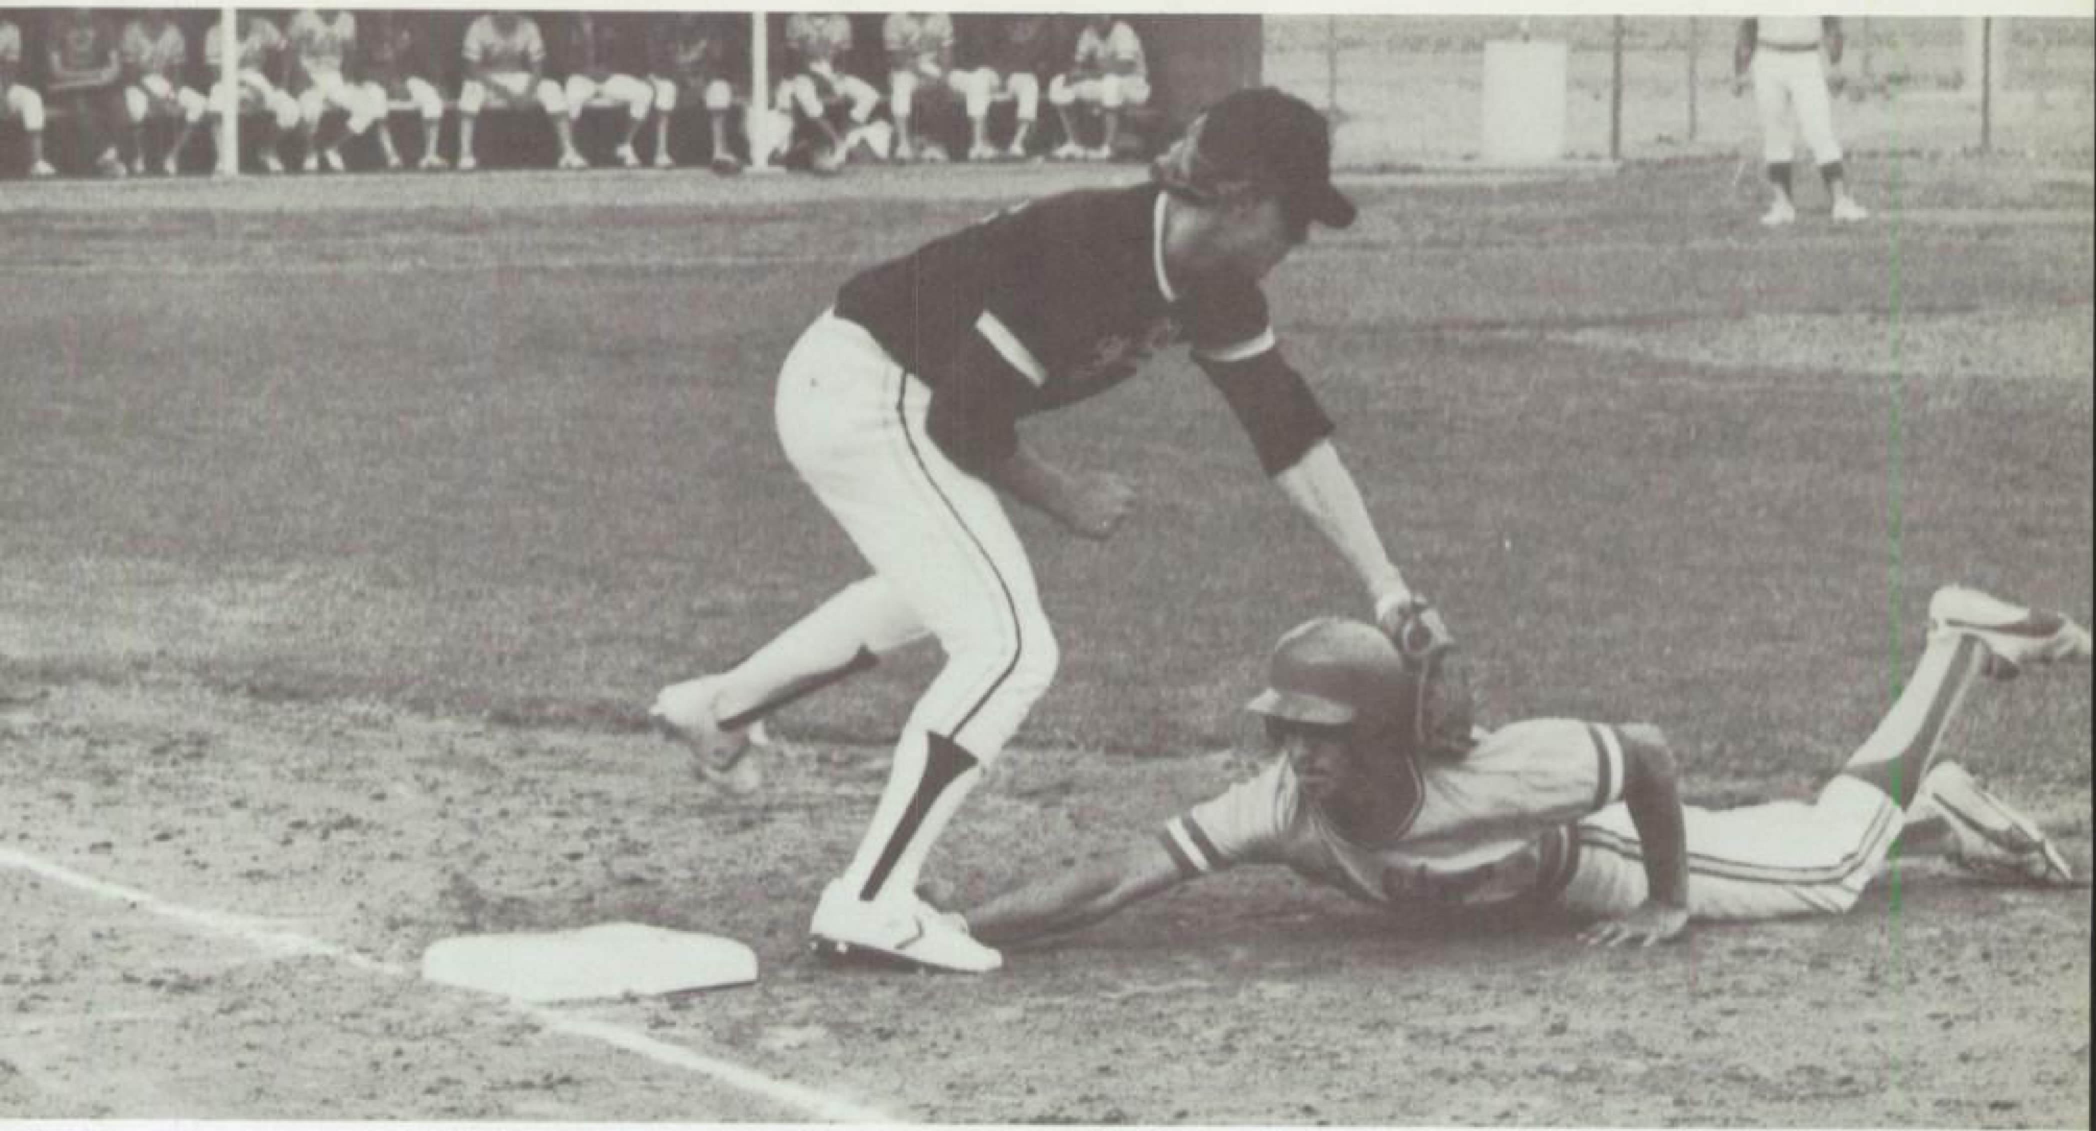
Baseball is a favorite American pasttime, and Pacific's athletes were as patriotic as the next bunch. Spring time brought the scent of blossoms, the warmth of sunshine, and the sound of cracking bats. With Mr. Elton as coach, Pacific's varsity Baseball team managed to score some decisive victories as they completed the season of a sport which had been a part of their lives since their Little League days.

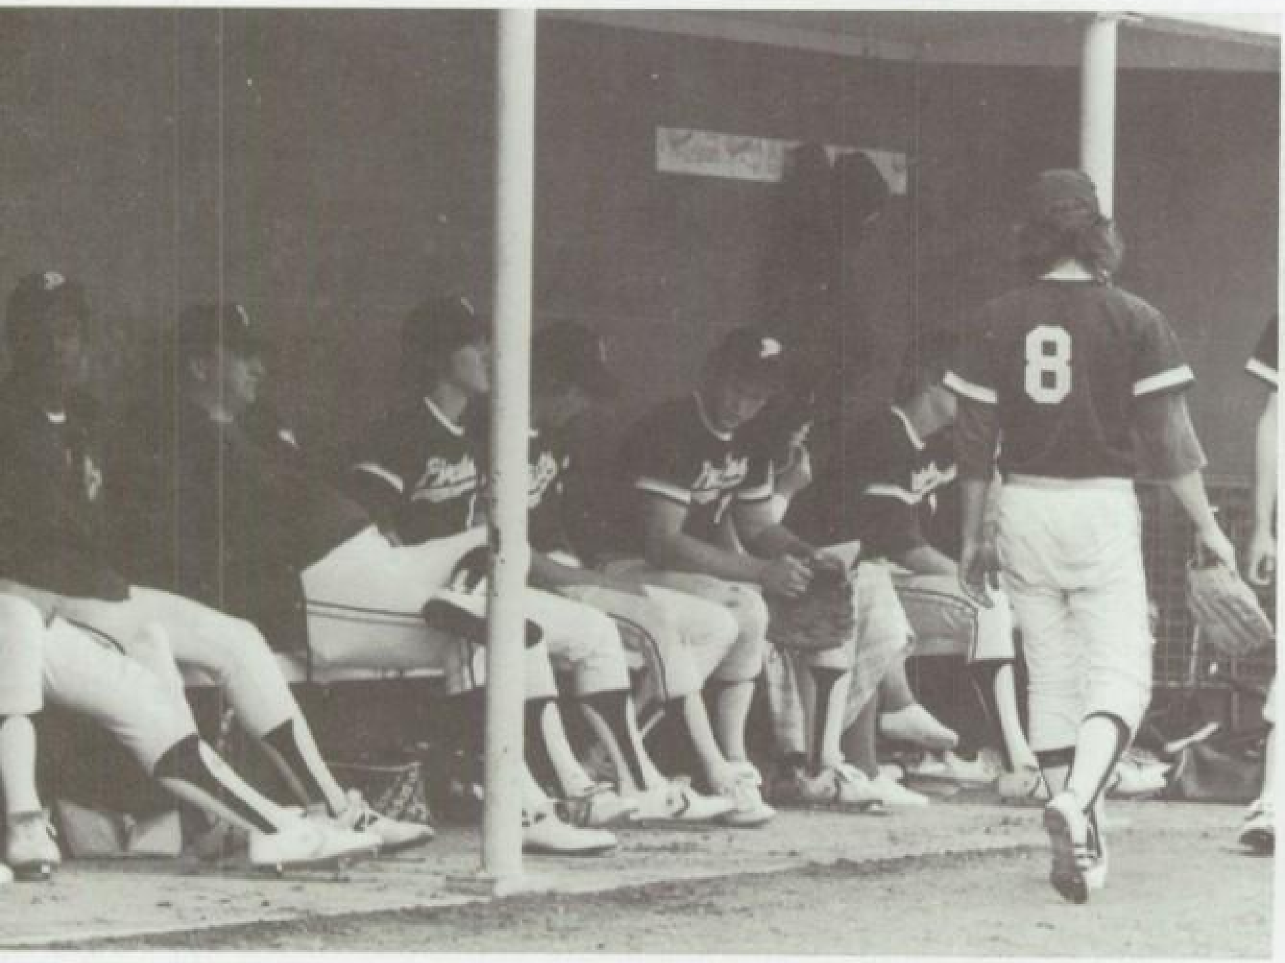


ANTICIPATION — With the pitch on the way, John Perkins waits for the ball to come within range of his bat.



1979 BOYS' VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM — Row 1 (l to r) — E. Anderson, B. Johnson, C Ray, V. Washington, G. Cordero, J. Deetz, M Negrete, J. Teel, T. Thomas. Row 2 — Heac Coach W. Elton, G. Geane, R. Warren, J. Perkins, R. Winters, J. Beckley, C. Peete, M Epstein, Coach S. Hernandez.





OT IN TIME — Senior first baseman, Jim eckley, hammers a tag after a throw from e mound.

HOLDING COURT — After the Pirates stopped the opposition with three quick outs, they eagerly wait their turn to rip at the horsehide.

FOLLOWING FLIGHT — Patience paid off as Cliff Ray gets a hold of one he likes.

Pacific Powerhouse: Buc Basebal

CRUNCH — One of the best hitters on the varsity team, George Cordero connected with the ball almost every time he swung.
SWING — Senior Jim Teel waits his turn to bat.

CONFERENCE — Varsity Coach Elton talks things over with his pitcher, John Perkins. Inffielders, Rex Winters and Greg Geane, listen in.

BEHIND THE MASK — Sophomore Joh Deetz caught on the varsity for the first tim this year, giving the pitchers signs, throwin out runners, and carrying the load that a catchers are required.

aseball is a sport in which ractice can greatly improve a eam. Of course, natural talent oes count for something, but hat is missing in innate ability an be developed by practice. So, ur junior varsity team practiced. nd practiced. For their turn was oming to belong to that elite roup, the Pac High Sluggers, lias, the varsity baseball team.

Upcoming Sluggers

SAFE — JV captain Greg Kaseno successfully steals second by getting a terrific lead on the Colton pitcher and executing a perfect hook slide.
NO CHANCE — Sophomore Danny Boslough applies a tag after a rifled shot from the pirate catcher.
FOLLOWING THROUGH — Pitcher David Linski tries his arm in a pre-season rout.

PAC HIGH'S BOGEY MEN

Playing golf — what a nice way to spend an afternoon. The varsity golf season came during the springtime, when San Bernardino was blessed with many weeks of beautiful weather. The sun and blue sky brought out the best in our team. Under the expert coaching of veteran golfer, Dan Young, they easily swung their way to victory.

T THE WIRE — Pacific edges out the oppo-ition as Willie Husband finishes in front in he 100-Yard Dash.
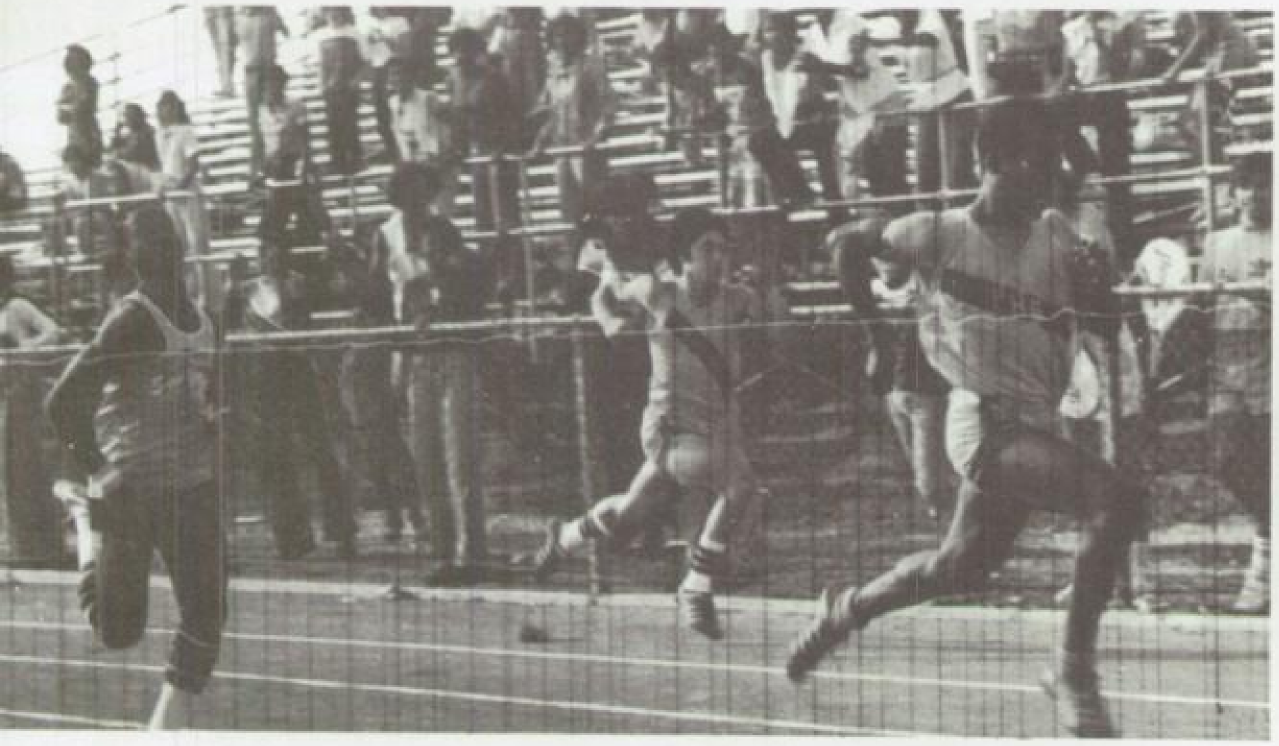
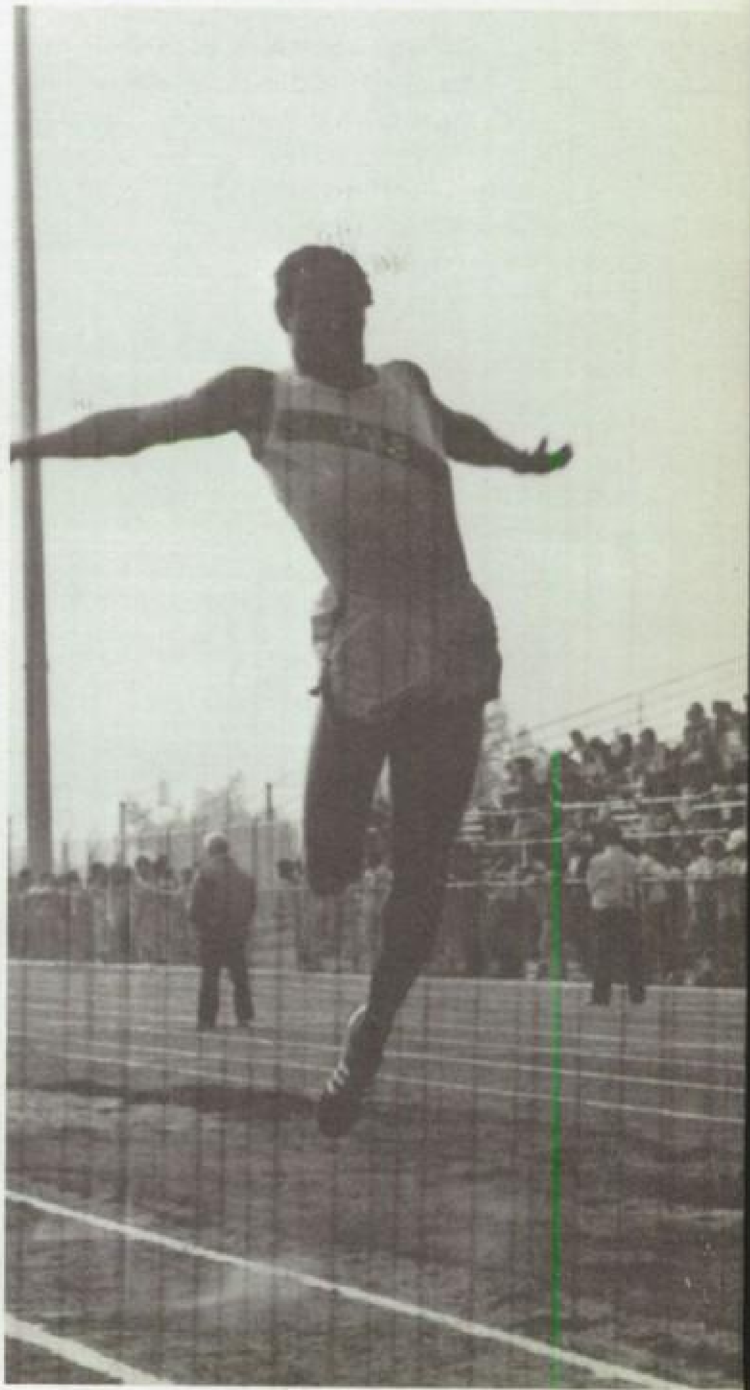
OING THE DISTANCE — Pacific's Alvin enmon pushes himself in order to give acific extra points against San Gorgonio.

BIRD MAN — Senior Tim McClain flies through the air in the relatively new event of the Triple Jump.



Breaking the Sound Barrier

A track meet was a strange event to watch. So many different things happen in one afternoon. Races of every length, hurdles, jumps, and even shot-put. The competition was stiff in each event, but Pacific was always in there. It was a constant struggle to push a little harder, jump a bit farther, each second and every inch mattered. But our team was kept in top shape by Coach Day, and always brought home their share of victories.



1979 BOYS' VARSITY TRACK TEAM — Row 1 (l to r) — R. Schaft, J. Jackson, S. Wilson, S. Montgomery, R. Castillo, A. Denmon, S. Parrish, A. Harris, S. Straily, D. Ortiz, P. deDianous, Row 2 — T. IN THE FAST LANE — Relay runner, Tim McClain, gets the baton from Jeffrey Musgray, enroute to a first in the 440 Relay.

UP AND OVER — A lot of finesse is needed to high jump. Pacific's Willie Husband clears the bar on his first attempt.

979 GIRLS' VARSITY TRACK TEAM — Row (l to r) T. DeBow, N. Brown, J. Martinez, V. McClain, R. Matley, A. Johnson, S. Smith, M. Saiche, A. Billings, J. Poirier, S. Garrity, Row 3 — P. Cobb, C. CHIN MUSIC — Varsity shot putter, Steve Cottier, gets ready to launch the shot into orbit.

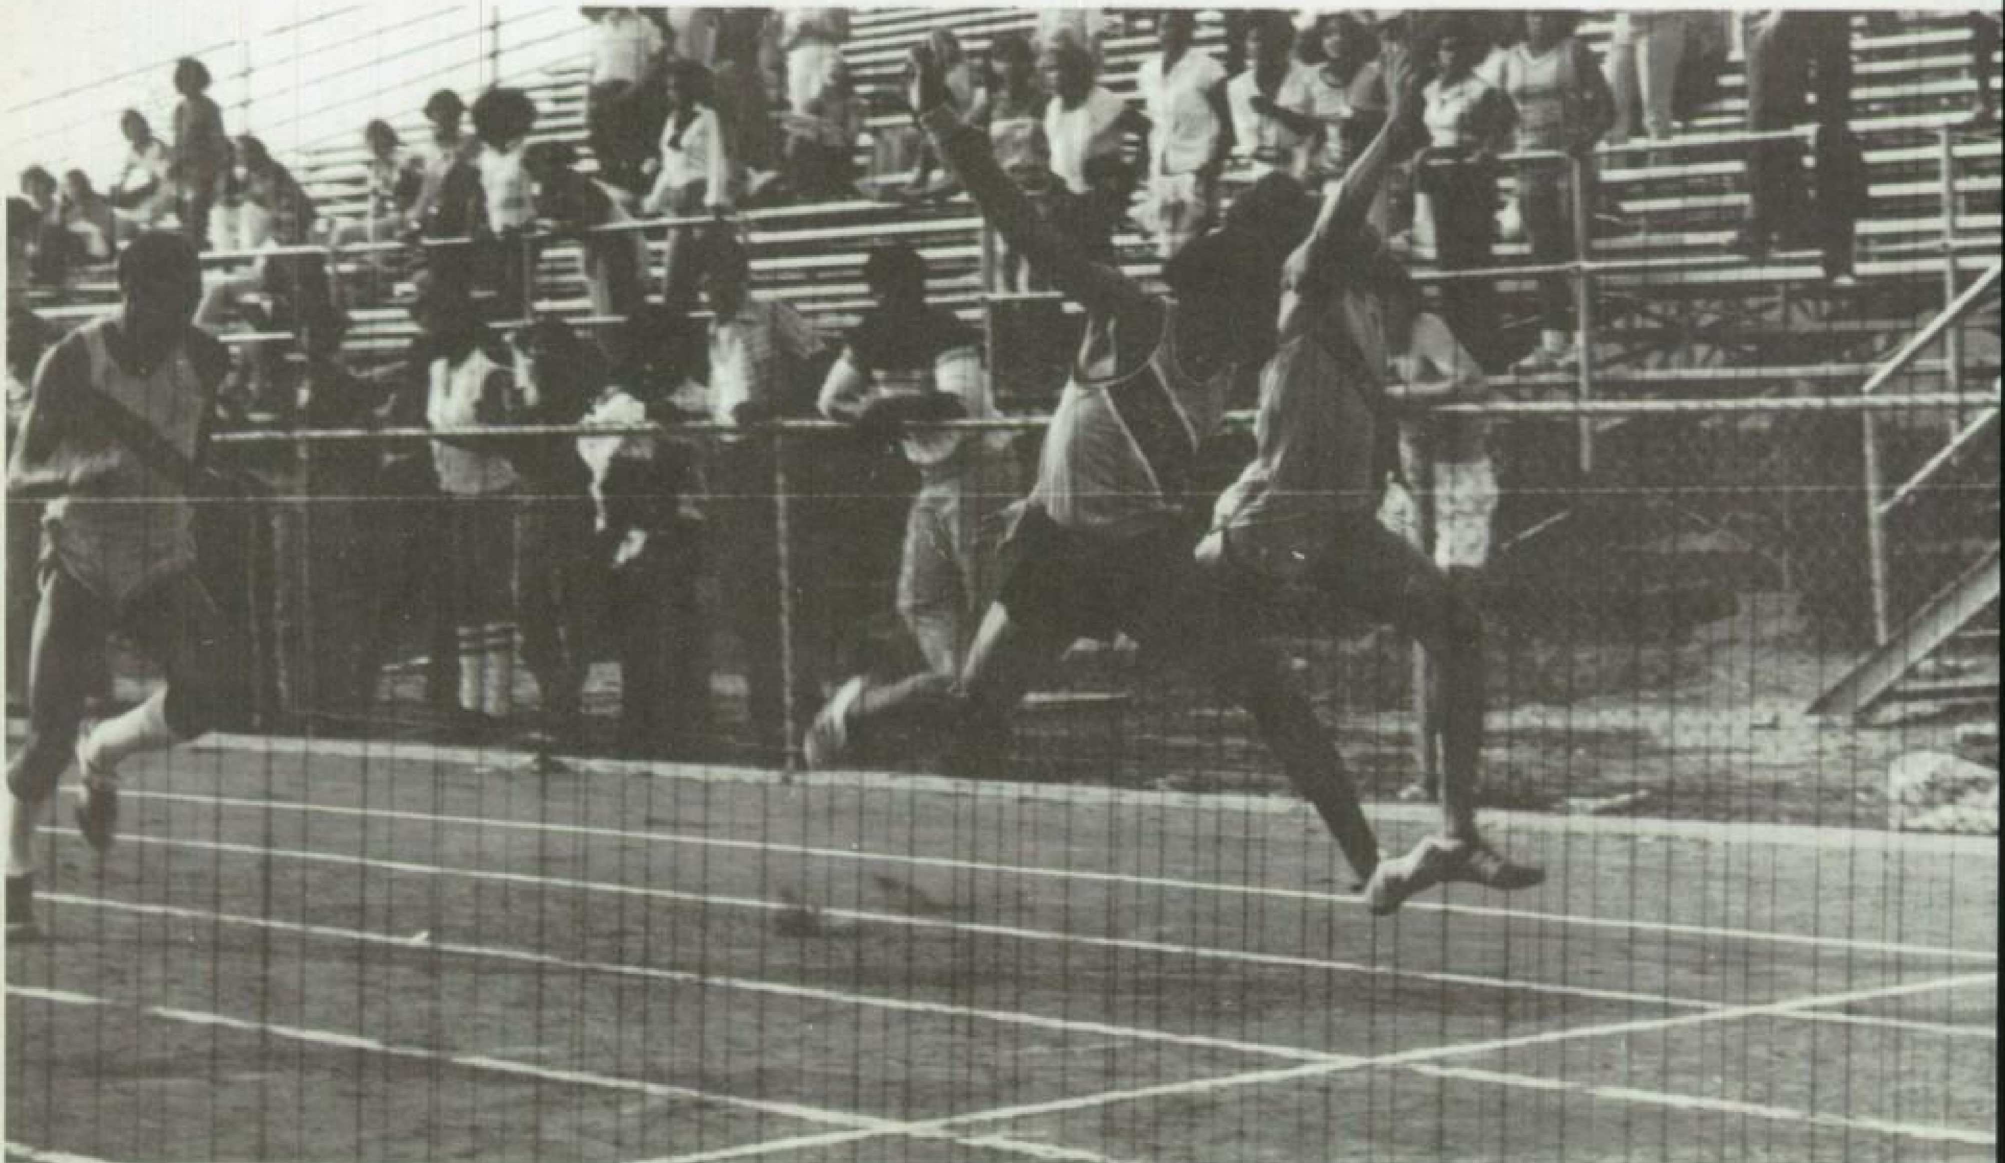
BACK FLIP — Girl's High Jump hopeful, Julie Barth, lifts herself over the horizontal obstacle.

LEAP FROG — Long jumper, Velma McClain, launches through the air toward a record-breaking jump.

Nice Guys Finish Last

AT THE MEET — There was always a lot going on at the track meets that you could not see everything that was happening.
STRONG FINISH — Pacific girls, Velma McClain, T. Debow and Pat Collins, finish strong in the girls' 100-Yard Dash.
WALKING IT OFF — In the longer runs, a staggered start was necessary to make the race even.
EVERY BIT HELPS — Senior Chuckie Carter attempts to edge out the San G star in the varsity 100-Yard Dash.



79 GIRLS' VARSITY BADMINTON TEAM
Row 1, (l to r) — A. Antillon, L. Merrill, K.

RVICE — Pacific's V. Collins serves one against her opponent in a crucial match.
E GOT IT — Hitting the shuttlecock wasn't easy as it seems, but A. Pompa drills one er the net.

The badminton team at Pacific had a rather hard time of it this year. They just could not seem to get enough players together to be a team. Those who did come out had a great time — as badminton truly is a fun sport. And that, after all, is what sports are meant to be.

Hard work and dedication are the traits which distinguish a championship team from all of the rest. Pacific's girls' tennis team had both of these, plus an added bonus: talent. This has always been a strong sport for Pacific, and the 78-79 season was no exception. Carol Christian was an asset to the team remaining undefeated in every league game. And Mrs. Dominguez unselfishly gave of her time and talent to once again coach her team through a winning season

FOREHAND SMASH — Pacific often had to battle back from the baseline, as does Marlaigne Hudnall in a match in the CBL.
ONCE AGAIN — Soph. Terry Robinson knocks one back to her opponent in a home game this season.

SERVICE — Number 1 player, Carol Christian, serves up another ace.
CONCENTRATION — Although she was number 2, Sherry Shellhammer tried harder, and often won.
WHAT FORM — Sandy Siperstein admires one of her shots during a match at Pacific.
PERFECTION — The girls on the tennis team were taught the essentials of the game. They put it to good use as they won many matches.

COACH FOX'S FOXES

Basketball is a sport which requires physical stamina, as well as natural talent and height. Pacific's girls' varsity team was not lacking in any of these areas. These ladies were in top shape, and it showed on the court. They had an excellent coach, Mr. Fox, and plenty of enthusiasm, all of which combined to make this a winning team.

DRIBBLE DIVE — Pacific's star guard Lori Thompson drives toward the basket while being defended by two Steeler players.
HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE THE CROWD — Pacific's standout center Lisa Ulmer leaps high in the air for one of the many rebounds that she gathered in during the season.
AT THE LINE — Pacific's Angie Hammer attempts a free throw in an important league game against Fontana.
JUMPBALL — Junior Lisa Ulmer out jumps the opposing center on the opening tip-off of a game played this season while Lori Thompson awaits the tip.
BOMBS AWAY — Pirate guard Vanessa Brown unloads an outside jump shot from the top of the key with an opposing player's hand in her face.
UNDER PRESSURE — While being guarded by a Redlands player, Lori Thompson looks for an open teammate to throw the ball to.

RUBBER LADIES??

The performance of gymnastics takes a very special kind of person — someone with no bones. At least that's how it seemed to the casual observer. Pacific's gymnastics team was made up of seven totally limber young ladies. With Mr. Bigham as their coach their talent was fully developed, and they easily "tricked" their way to success.

I DID IT! — After months of hard work ar determination, Renee Dooley was finally ab to do the splits.

GHT AS A FEATHER — Gymnastics is a ort to show one's creative nature. Robin oller gives us a sample of some of her own t.

ELP I'M FALLING — While Karen Ross flew f the vault, we all wondered if she would ake a perfect landing.

ABOUT FACE — As Debbie Glaser was doing a dismount from the uneven parallel bars, she just missed the lower bar.

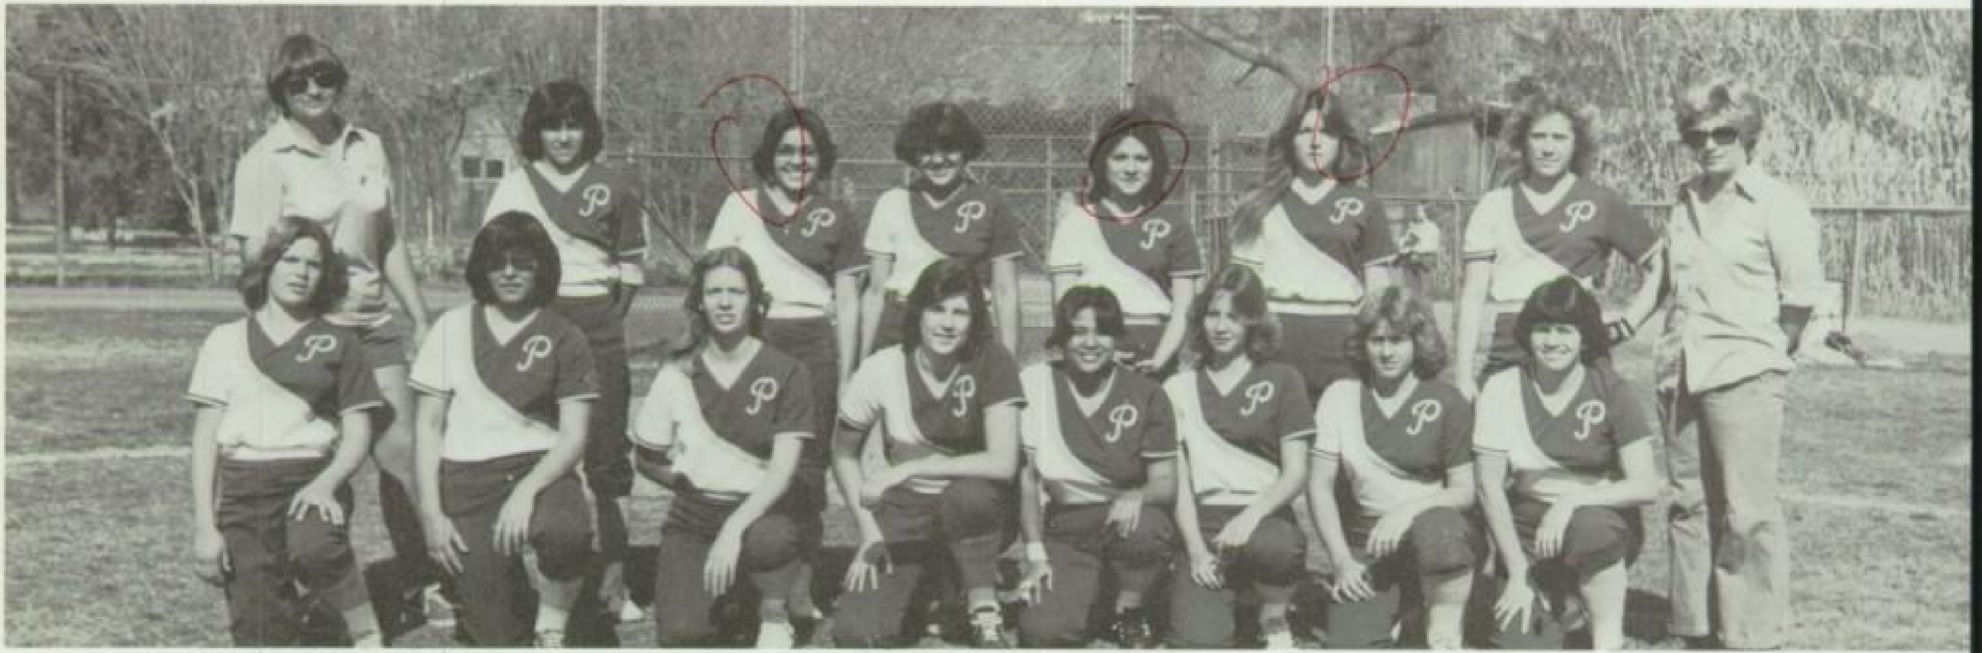
UPCOMING SLUGGERS

Softball is really nothing more than a wiser game of baseball. After all, the ball was bigger and much easier to hit. And the bases were placed closer together, which greatly conserved the energy of the players. Mrs. Cooper coached this group of energetic females, which made for a rather successful, and extremely enjoyable, season.



A DAY AT THE PLATE — It takes a good eye to be a successful hitter. D. Boyles lets one go by.

SCOOP — Pirates T. Ortiz fields a blazing grounder, saving her team from a possible double.

BODY ENGLISH — Pacific took care of its opponents with pitching from D. Montes.

1979 VARSITY SOFTBALL TEAM — Row 1, to r) — D. Raynor, C. Montes, D. Boyd, L Ulmer, J. Arce, S. Stuck, C. Raynor, B. Johnson. Row 2 — Coach L. Cooper, T. Ortiz, T Montes, D. Montes, T. Ramos, L. Chandler, S Rowndy, Coach Chandler.

LADY LAP LOGGERS

LOOKS COLD — Senior Bev Clayton anticipates her dive as she gets ready to swim her race.

ON THE TURN — A swimmer can make-up for a lot of time on the turns, as does Mitzi Toler in a pre-season meet.

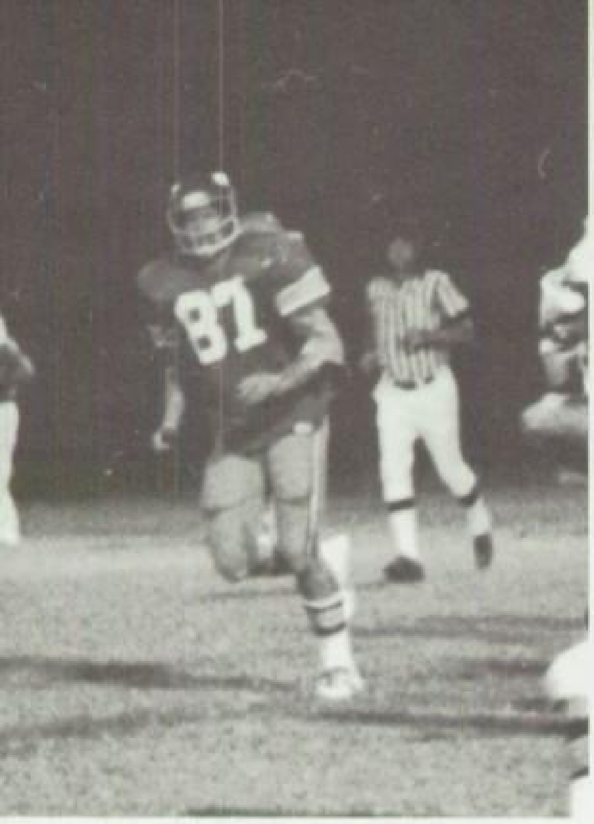
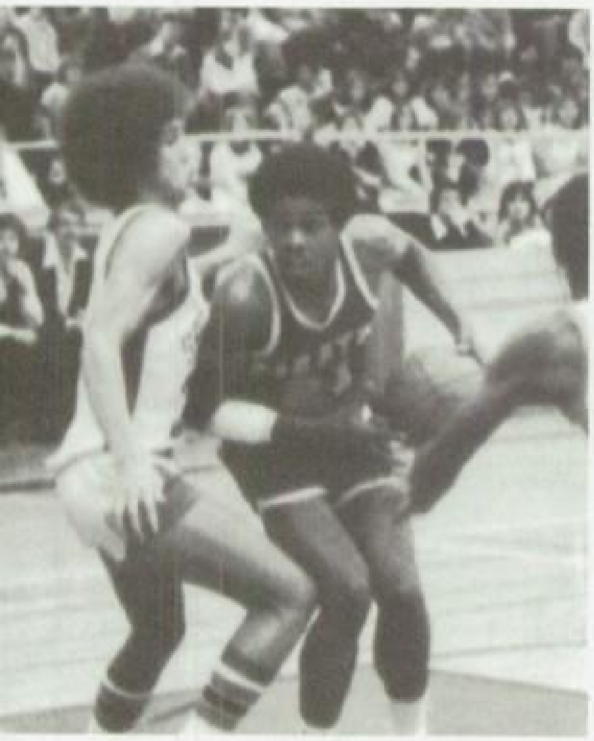
NEW BEGINNING: GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY



REX WINTERS

FOOTBALL

Wearing number 87, Rex played three years on the varsity football team. As a senior, Rex played on both defense and offense. Playing Tight-End he had over 30 receptions and scored three touchdowns. All CBL as a junior and senior, Rex was co-captain on the '78 squad.



Leading his team on the basketball court, Anthony did everything: scored baskets, grabbed rebounds, and handled the ball like a pro. Playing on varsity for two years, Ray leaves the Bucs with a career that will long be remembered.

ANTHONY DAVIS

BASKETBALL

Wrestling at 154 lbs., Sammy went all the way in the CIF playoffs this year. With a high winning record this year, he inspired his team to yet another CBL championship season.

Together . . . We Did It All

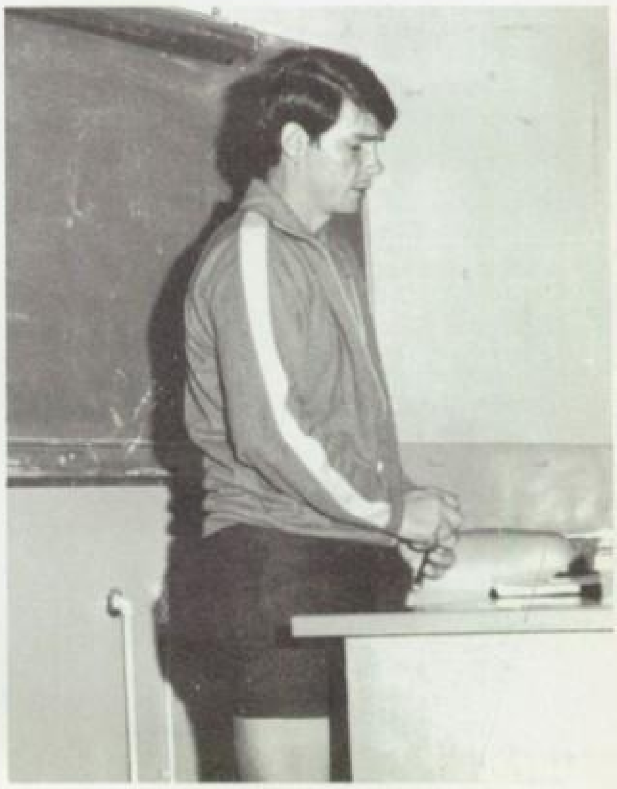
Our sophomore year was the second year we spent at Pacific — but for many of us it seemed like the beginning. As freshmen we were a bit unsure of ourselves, and could not become fully involved in our school's activities. As sophomores we had a strong foothold — and were ready to become active members of Pacific's clubs, musical groups, pep squads, and sports. Those activities which we did not participate in first-hand, we were always willing to support — by attending games, joining committees, and just letting our voices be heard. Yes, it was a busy year, but we would not have had it any other way.

THE SOPH'S COURAGEOUS LEADERS

The sophomore class officers were a multi-talented bunch. Between the seven of them, they covered just about every aspect of school life: athletics, fine arts, and academics. But, in between all of these other activities, they also found time to meet as class representatives. In fact, quite often the question was asked as to why they met so often. Of course they wanted to get a head start on prom fund raising and their sponsor, Mr. Wealch, needed to be kept up on all the latest happenings. But, somehow, when the male to female ratio was considered, the true reason behind why so many meetings were called by Mike and Mr. Wealch became obvious. Pretty good odds, right guys?

Mr. Mike and His Harem

FRIENDS — Terri Robinson and Cheryl Beeman not only worked together as class officers, but also played tennis as Pacific's number two varsity doubles team.
CHAMPIONSHIP SWIMMER — Chris Clayton, who loves to swim, is also proud to be a sophomore representative.
SINGING LIKE A BIRD — Jolene Barlow helped keep harmony in the sophomore class.
KEEPING BUSY — Helping to build the prize-winning sophomore float was Richarda Wallace.
SETTING THE BALL — Volleyball was one of sophomore treasurer's, Theresa Ramos, favorite sports. She practiced every day after school for the junior varsity girls' team.
COACHING A CLASS — The sophomore class sponsor was Coach Welch. He was involved in many other things around campus too. He taught General Science and coached many sports, notably basketball. The sophomore class was happy to get Mr. Welch as their class sponsor.



The sophomores joined together and came up with the 1978 Homecoming Sweepstakes award-winning float, depicting five enchanting leprechauns building a rainbow. Though it was an unexpected victory to many, the adaptation to the theme, "Once Upon A Dream," and the many hours of hard work, proved the honor was well deserved.

LUCK O' THE IRISH RUBS OFF ON SOPHS

BUILDING A FLOAT — Three of the sophomore class members, Phyliss Liebrum, Heather Seyden, and Mary Krache, helped to build their "Once Upon A Dream."
ROCK-A-BYE BABY — Wendy Mee cuddled her little leprechaun.
"I DON'T KNOW" — This was Nancy Blechinger's reply when asked why she helped to build the sophomore float.
THE WINNER — A partial view of the sophomore float is shown.

Leading the Pack . . .

As a whole, our sophomores were an admirable class. They had spirit, talent, and beauty. But, certain individuals stood out. These were those sophomores who were the best in what they did. One was an outstanding student. Another was a fantastic football player. Three young gentlemen were singers, and one young lady was an expert in print shop. Being excellent in their chosen fields was something these sophomores strove for and accomplished.

FOOTBALL TALENT — Kurt Otterbien had fun playing on the varsity football team. However, at times it was tough being the only sophomore on the varsity team.
PRINTING RIGHT — Although it was unusual for a girl to be in print shop, Beth Albers adeptly used one of the many printing machines.
TALENTED SINGERS — Three sophomore boys, Dirk Isaacs, Daniel Santana, and Mel Newton under the direction of Mr. Will. Not only were they the only sophomore boys in Choir they were also some of the most outstanding.
HITTING THE BOOKS — Marlaigne Hudnall had an outstanding G.P.A. of 4.0. She was in many hard classes including Chemistry with Mr. Ketcham.

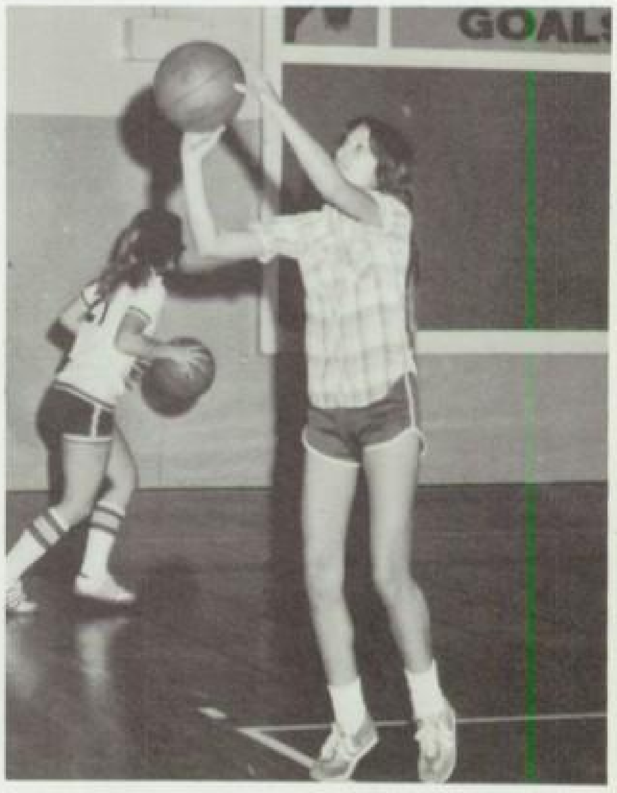
Boundless Energy Flows From Sophs

Sports at Pacific consisted of much more than the big spectator sports, varsity football and baketball. There were many other ways in which active Pirates could exert themselves, and our sophomores were some of the most avid participators on the tennis, wrestling, girls' basketball, swimming, and various other teams.



POWER MAKES IT ALL — Sophomore George Schnarre reaches up for one of his powerful serves while playing tennis for Pacific's team.

IN THE SHADOWS — Girls' sports had very few spectators, yet they played to bring pride to Pacific. One sophomore, Anna Garriby, with her great expertise, helped to make our girls' basketball team a winning one.

IT'S A FIGHT, IT'S A FIGHT — No, it's just one of the most successful of all Pacific sports — wrestling. It was an all-C.B.L. sport, yet very few people came out to watch our championship team. They did work hard though, as Pat Majors and Joe Botello demonstrated through their hard work-out.

Afternoons Were Made to Be Enjoye

TAKIN' IT EASY — Some sophomores weren't quite as energetic as others. They enjoyed spending quiet afternoons with their televisions, visiting with stars from Monty Hall to Mary Tyler Moore. Julie Shvemar was one of those who rushed home, kicked off her shoes, and sat back in her favorite chair for an afternoon of leisure.

STAND UP — Many sophomores enjoyed spending their free time practicing for drill team. They won many trophies this year and helped to make Pacific proud.

GIVE A CHEER — Danysa Nickell was one of the sophomores who put in lots of extra after-school hours to help cheer for Pacific's teams.

OUR PIRATES ARE HERE — Many people thought that being a letter carrier was easy, but Cindy Straw, Merrie Jo Beth, and Desira Royse knew better. They had to practice after school so that they could have perfect timing in their march.

Each day, Pacific's sophomor were faced with an enormo decision — how to spend t afternoon. The bell at 2:

Darling Kim Bain — a Very Special Sophomore

Each year at Basketball Homecoming the sophomore class chose their own queen, known as the Sophomore Darling. The Sophomores of the 1978-79 school year chose, from among 5 candidates, Kim Bain. An extraordinarily beautiful young lady, Kim added a very special touch to our halftime activities.

STILL HAPPY — Jim Teel and Kim Bain waited patiently to hear who would be crowned next!

"SOPHOMORE DARLING INDEED!" — A very happy Kim looked on to the surprises ahead to come but never forgetful of the special moments of the past such as being crowned Sophomore Darling.

TWO OF A KIND!! — Last year's sophomore darling Stephanie Davis proudly crowned Kim Bain, the New Sophomore Darling.

"CONGRATULATIONS!!" — Stephanie hugged Kim while remembering her exciting big night, one year ago.

TAKE A HIKE — Many sophomores enjoyed the outdoor living class, including Brad Mays, Steve Robinson, and Mike DeMarco, who were preparing to go on an overnight backpack trip.

WARMING UP — With her beautiful voice, Mona Sutton sang very intently during her third period Chorus class.

I BEFORE E, EXCEPT AFTER C — One of the toughest classes for sophomores was Mr. Taylor's 2C English class. Not only did he prepare them for college, but he also helped them to become great authors.

WORKING HARD — All sophomores studied diligently. However, Sandi Souder put in even more effort to be an informed student.

HOLIDAY CHEER — One of the most important aspects of the winter season was getting into the holiday spirit. This was achieved in many ways, one of which was through artwork. Mr. Taylor's room always sported a bulletin board for some special occasion.
WHO DUNIT? — Valentine's Day was for sweethearts, but Ronna Epstein had a problem — She had received her carnation from a secret admirer!
CLOWNING AROUND — For Nancy Blechinger, Halloween was a time for having fun and taking it easy.

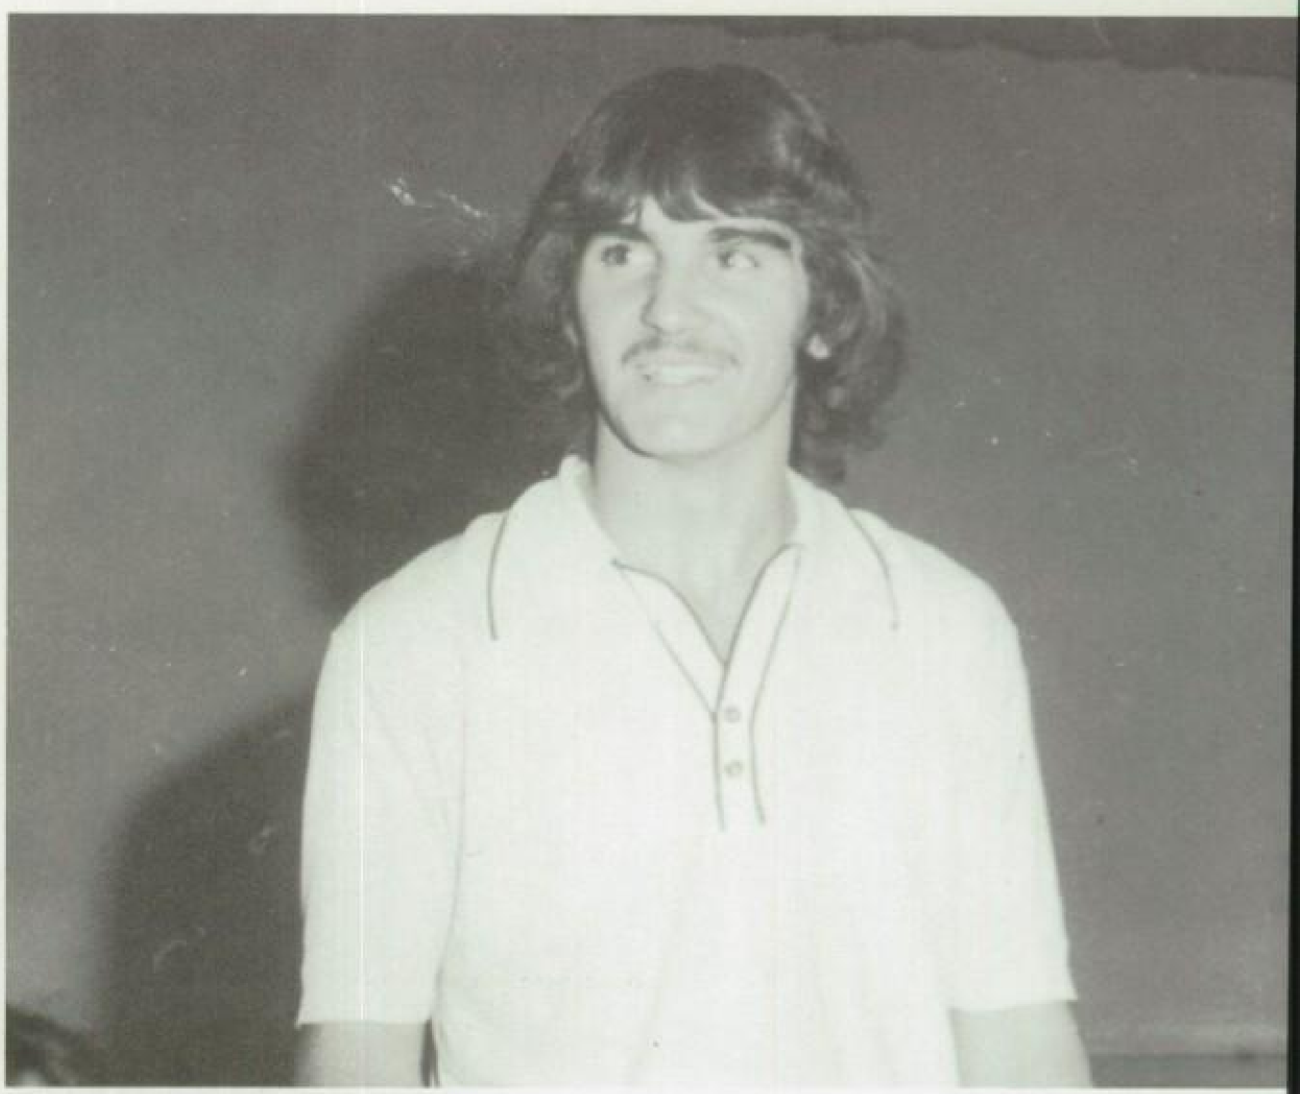
Together . . . We Did It All

In a school with so many different types of people, clubs played an important role. They gave us a place to belong. For the brief period of time we spent at our club meetings and activities, we could enjoy the company of people with interests, backgrounds, and talents similar to ours. And, the wide variety of clubs here at Pacific was assurance that each one of us could find a place where we felt at ease.

A CHANCE TO ORGANIZE CHAOS

With so many different clubs on campus, some sort of organization was needed. For this purpose I.C.C., Inter Club Council, was established. With Robert Reed as the President, and Mr. Regalado as the faculty advisor, they tried to keep the infamous patents straightened out, and settled fueds between clubs. Considering that there were 32 clubs represented here, they did an excellent job of maintaining order.



IMPEACHMENT — The thought of impeaching the I.C.C. President often crossed some of the representatives' minds during the year, but Robert Reed took it all in stride.
"NOW IN THE MATTER OF . . ." — Having to clear up a matter of controversy, Mr. Regalado had to be on his toes.
HOME-WORK? — Students often found time to do homework in other places than home, and I.C.C. meetings were great times for it as Lydia Ferraris learned.
REPS — If you got to be a Representative you were lucky. It not only meant first hand knowledge of what was going on but you also got out of class.

ONCE UPON A DREAM

Five Fine Floats; One Winner

Homecoming floats have been a part of Pacific's halftime activities for many, many years. This year was no different. Although only five floats were entered in the competition, they were evidence that it was quality, not quantity that mattered. The sweepstakes award was taken by the Sophomore's portrayal of frolicking leprechauns, the senior-junior float took 1st place, with scenes from many different fairy tales finding a place on it. The three other floats were entered by Band, Stieners, and Dantes, and each had its own adaption to the theme of the evening: Once Upon A Dream.

HEY THERE! — This year, Stieners did the float building at John Session's house and he didn't mind one bit.
SMILE FOR ME PLEASE — No need to coax Andrea Davis on that one as she helped put the Stieners float together.
STIENERS — The sunny Tropics and a lovely she bunny . . . what more could Bugs Bunny want?
BAA BAA BLACK SHEEP — hasn't any wool, but Melissa Johnson got him ready for his debut on the Jr. and Sr. float.

FLOAT AWARDS —

Sophomores	Sweepstakes
Jr. & Sr. (alias Lehis)	1st place
Band	2nd place
Stieners	3rd place
Dantes	4th place

ALRIGHT DANTES! — Dantes aren't conceited, they just believe that they are the best.
DANTES PETITIONING — It is well known that Dantes will make you do crazy things if you petition for their club. Tracy Kriso and Joanie Chapman danced their way to being a Dante.
FUNCTION — Besides having "socials," they gave to a heart fund and had outings.

AN EVENING AT THE FAIR

Carnivals always seem to leave us with happy memories: Carmel apples and cotton candy, freak shows and ferris wheels. For this reason, I.C.C. attempted to put on their own little fair. Each club was given the opportunity to sponsor a booth and keep the profits for their club. The 1979 I.C.C. Carnival had a wide assortment of booths ranging from sponge-throwing to tamales. The weather was perfect and everyone seemed to have a rather enjoyable "evening at the fair."

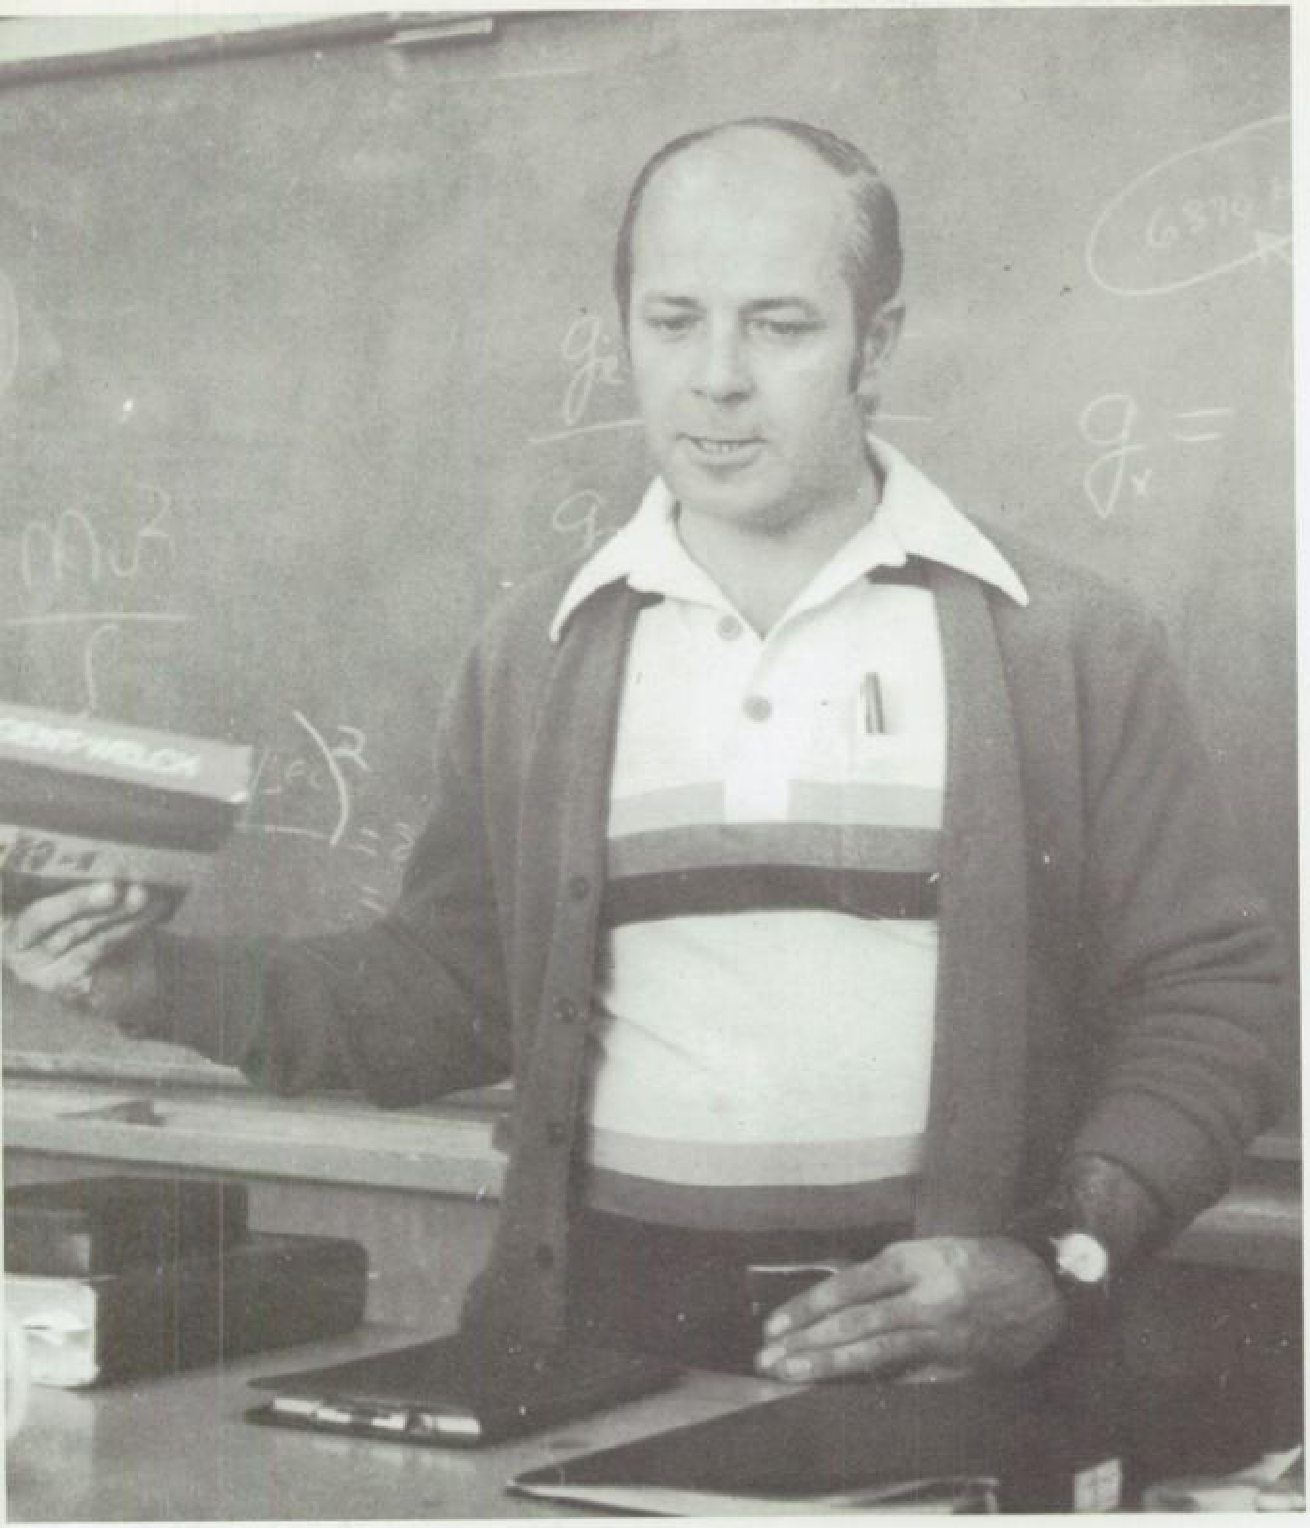
Together . . . We Did it All

The 1978-79 school year was an exciting time for us, Pacific's freshmen class. A wee bit nervous at first, we soon learned that we were welcome at our new school. So, we joined right in — cheering on teams, running for offices, and adding our talents to Pacific's athletic, musical, and service groups. We found that the more we gave of ourselves the richer our own lives would be. The class of 1982 was off to a great start.

TAKING THE FIRST STEP

LITTLE HEAD MAKES BIG — Presidency must run in the family. Karen Martinez takes after her brother, Ken.
CORNY COBB — Vice President Paula Cobb shows her winning smile.
BOSSANOVA — Nova Hunn proved to be a swinging Freshmen Class Secretary.
NUEK TAKES A LOOK — into the freshmen treasury. Freshmen Treasurer, Nuek Adkins.

The freshman class officers had an enormous job: trying to figure out just why they were freshmen class officers. The seniors had a graduation to plan, the juniors put on a prom, the sophomores raised money for a prom, but the freshmen had no project for which they were responsible. But the experiences of campaigning for an office, finding a sponsor, and meeting a few times at least, were useful. Some became hooked on the whole political experience and were to become leaders at Pacific in later years.



Setting the Class of '82 on Its Feet

FORCE FACTOR — Besides being Freshmen class sponsor, Mr. Pendergast also taught Physics with much enthusiasm.
SPIRITED FRESHMEN — Freshmen class representatives Susan Gonzales, Stacey Everett and Andrea Johnson had enough spirit for their whole class.

Nova Hunn: A New Name on Pacific's List of Royalty

The 1979 Basketball homecoming was a first for the Freshman Class of '82. Five young ladies, each of whom were sure to be honored many times during their four years at Pacific, were nominated for Freshman Sweetheart. Nova Hunn was crowned on January 26, and she was certainly a sweetheart of whom our Freshmen could be very proud.

MUSCLES MONTANO — Although he wasn't very big, Dennis Montano didn't have to struggle too hard to pin his opponent.
SEXY SONGSTRESS — Stacey Everett kept the audience captivated with her lovely voice.

Whether it is in art, music, or sports, someone always had to be the best, the one who is noted by teachers and peers as being "a good example" of perfection. Excelling in whatever they did was important to certain freshmen, and the class of 1982 was proud of its members who had the incentive and the talent to reach that goal of excellence.

LIVING WATER!
GOD CREATED MAN TO HAVE FELLOWSHIP WITH – DADDY!
HE GAVE MAN A FREE WILL BECAUSE GOD WANTED REAL LOVE AND MAN REBELLED...
GO AWAY!
THUS MAN WAS SEPARATED FROM GOD BECAUSE OF SIN
BUT GOD LOVED MAN SO MUCH HE GAVE HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON*
AND WHEN JESUS DIED HE BRIDGED THE GAP –
HOLY GOD
JESUS
SINFUL MAN
EVERYONE HAS A GOD-SHAPED BLANK INSIDE...
THAT CANNOT BE FILLED WITH – SEX
PHILOSOPHY
BUT ONLY
JESUS
A PERFECT FIT!
JESUS
HE THAT BELIEVES* ON THE SON (JESUS) OUT OF HIS HEART SHALL FLOW RIVERS OF LIVING WATER!
GOD
* TRUSTS IN, RELYS ON
IF WE WANT THE FULLNESS OF GOD WE MUST GIVE ALL!
GOD IS LIKE A CLOUD, AS MUCH VAPOR – (OURSELVES) AS WE GIVE TO HIM IS AS MUCH RAIN (BLESSINGS) HE WILL GIVE TO US...
HALLELUJAH!
* IF WE GIVE ALL WE WILL GET DRENCHED!
WE MUST BE WILLING TO BEAR THE CROSS TO WEAR THE CROWN TRIALS
ETERNAL LIFE
GOD IS WILLING THAT ALL SHOULD COME TO REPENTENCE. GOD DOES'NT SEND ANYONE TO HELL – WE DECIDE OUR ETERNAL DESTINY! JESUS DIED SO WE COULD BE SET FREE FROM THE BONDAGE OF SIN!
WHY DON'T YOU GET LIBERATED FROM SIN AND TAKE A DRINK OF LIVING WATER? SPIRITUAL REFRESHMENT COMES FROM THE LORD! ASK JESUS IN YOUR HEART AND FIND ETERNAL PEACE WITH GOD!
THINK ABOUT WHAT JESUS SAID, BEFORE YOU LET YOUR MIND REJECT HIM – LISTEN TO YOUR HEART INSTEAD AND YOU WILL ACCEPT HIM!
NOW
IF YOU'VE RECEIVED JESUS
TIPS FOR GROWTH...
#1 READ THE BIBLE
BIBLE
#2 PRAY & PRAISE
"PRAY WITHOUT CEASING" 1 THES 5:17
"LET EVERYTHING THAT HAS BREATH PRAISE YE THE LORD" PSALMS 150:6
#3 WITNESS "DO THE WORK OF AN EVANGELIST"
BIBLE
#4 FELLOWSHIP
"FORSAKE NOT THE ASSEMBLING OF THE SAINTS"
JESUS

Jesus said ~ I am the way, the truth, and the life, no man cometh unto the father but by me. John 14:6

PATTON HOSPITAL

Well, another year has come to an end and you hold within your grasp The Book with which you can always remember it. We, the editors of the 1978-79 Pacificana, have experienced traumas and triumphs of varying intensity as we attempted to compile this volume of memories. Tempers flared, resulting in the shattering of friendships. Patience wore thin with those who needed patience most. Certainly, differing personalities are what make life interesting, but, come June, the obnoxiousness, the disorganization, and even the shortness, of various editors had begun to get old. We had suffered the loss of one of our head photographers, a senile football homecoming photographer, the confusion of trying to figure out a certain threesome on ou staff, a static radio, a continuous barrage of threats from The Man, sunburns, quarterbacks, dedications, three sophomore dropouts who made D-4 their hangout, and numerous infatuations over football coaches. Yes, all this and plenty more made for a nerve-racking year. But we made it through, and you have your book. We hope you are happy. If you now have any complaints, no matter how trivial they may be, visiting hours are weekdays 5 to 7. Make it then. For if you can't no other arrangements will be made and that's . . .

. . . TUFF!!!

Ann,
This reminds me
d band and flags cause were all crazy and especially you just kidding
Love ya
